Disclosure shall be done promptly by filing a memorandum with the Clerk, which shall be printed in the Journal if the vote is taken on the floor. If the vote is taken in a committee, the memorandum shall be filed promptly with the committee administrative assistant, who shall attach such memorandum to the committee report. (6) Publish Daily and Interim Calendars necessary to provide public notice of consideration of bills, resolutions, and memorials by the House and its committees.

(7) Examine bills, resolutions, and memorials upon their tender for introduction to determine whether facially they meet the requirements of the Florida Constitution for the presence of the enacting or resolving clause or the provision in local bills, including local claim bills, for advertising or for referendum; however, beyond calling an apparent defect to the attention of the first-named sponsor, the obligation of the Clerk shall end.

(8) Sign and receive necessary papers in the name of the House between a general election and election of the Speaker.

(b) It shall be a ministerial duty of the Clerk to attest to all writs, issued by order of the House, and to the passage of all bills, resolutions, and memorials.

An employee shall not exhibit an improper interest in or concern with any bill.

(b) An employee of the House may not engage in campaign activities during regular work hours, except when on approved leave, and may neither hold, nor be a candidate for, public office (other than a political party executive committee office) while in the employ of the House.

RULE FIVE

FORM AND INTRODUCTION OF BILLS

5.1—"Bill" Stands for All Legislation

Except when the context otherwise indicates, "bill," as used in these Rules, means a bill, joint resolution, concurrent resolution, resolution, memorial, or other measure upon which a committee may be required to report.

5.2—Filing Deadlines

(a) No general bill, local bill originating in the House, joint resolution, concurrent resolution (except one relating to extension of a session or legislative organization or procedures), or memorial originating in the House shall be given first reading unless filed for introduction no later than noon of the first day of the regular session.

(b) Bills, resolutions, and memorials introduced by committees are exempt from the requirements of this Rule.

5.3—Limitation on Member Bills Filed

(a) A Member may not file more than six (6) bills for a regular session. For purposes of this Rule, the Member considered to have filed a bill is the first-named sponsor of the bill. Bills that have been withdrawn from further consideration prior to the filing deadline shall not be considered filed.

(b) Bills not counted toward these limits include:

- (1) Local bills
- (2) Claim bills
- (3) House resolutions
- (4) Memorials
- (5) Concurrent resolutions relating to extension of a session or legislative organization or procedures
- (6) Trust fund bills adhering to another bill
- (7) Public records or public meetings exemption bills adhering to another bill

RULE FIVE
FORM AND INTRODUCTION OF BILLS

- (8) Joint resolutions adhering to a general bill
- (9) Bills introduced by a committee under Rule 7.23
- (10) Bills that only repeal or delete, without substantive replacement, provisions of the Florida Statutes or Laws of Florida.

5.4—Forms of Measures

- (a) To be acceptable for introduction, all bills shall be produced in accordance with standards approved by the Speaker. Members desiring to be cosponsors must file a cosponsor form to be agreed to by the first-named sponsor.
- (b) No Member may be added or deleted as a sponsor or cosponsor of a bill without the Member’s consent on forms provided by the Clerk.
- (c) Bills that propose to amend existing provisions of law shall contain the full text of the section, subsection, or paragraph to be amended. Joint resolutions that propose to amend the Florida Constitution shall contain the full text of the section to be amended. As to those portions of general bills and joint resolutions that propose to amend existing provisions of the Florida Statutes or the Florida Constitution, new words shall be inserted in the text underlined and words to be deleted shall be lined through with hyphens. If the change in language is so general that the use of these procedures would hinder, rather than assist, the understanding of the amendment, it is not necessary to use the coded indicators of words added or deleted, but, in lieu thereof, a notation similar to the following shall be inserted immediately preceding the affected section of the bill: “Substantial rewording of section. See s. . . ., F.S., for present text.” When such a notation is used, the notation, as well as the substantially reworded text, shall be underlined. The words to be deleted and the above-described indicators of such words and of new material are for information and guidance and do not constitute a part of the bill under consideration. Numerals in the margins of the line-numbered paper do not constitute a part of the bill and are shown on the page only for convenience in identifying lines. Section catchlines of existing text shall not be underlined, nor shall any other portion of a bill covered by this Rule other than new material.

5.5—Local Bills

- (a) If the Committee on Local Government & Veterans’ Affairs determines that the substance of a local bill may be enacted into law by ordinance of a local governing body, the committee shall not report the bill. However, if a local governing body would be required to call a referendum to enact the substance of a local bill into law, the committee may report the local bill.

(b) A local bill that provides an exemption from general law may not be placed on the Special Order Calendar in any section reserved for the expedited consideration of local bills.

(c) All local bills, including local claim bills, must either, as required by Section 10 of Article III of the Florida Constitution, embody provisions for a ratifying referendum (stated in the title as well as in the text of the bill) or be accompanied by an affidavit of proper advertisement, securely attached to the original bill ahead of its first page.

5.6—Claim Bills

(a) Claim bills may be referred by the Speaker to any committee for consideration. The Speaker may appoint a Special Master to conduct a hearing. The Special Master may administer an oath to all witnesses, accept relevant documentary and tangible evidence offered, tape record the proceedings, and prepare a final report containing findings of fact, conclusions of law, and recommendations. The report shall be signed by the Special Master, who shall be available, in person, to explain his or her report to any committee of reference.

(b) Stipulations entered by the parties are not binding on the Special Master or the House or its committees.

(c) The hearing and consideration of a claim bill shall be held in abeyance until all available administrative and judicial remedies have been exhausted, except that the hearing and consideration of a claim that is still within the judicial or administrative system may proceed when the parties have executed a written settlement agreement.

5.7—Reviser's Bills

(a) Reviser's bills are nonsubstantive bills initiated by the Office of Legislative Services pursuant to section 11.242, Florida Statutes, for any of the following purposes:

- (1) To reduce the number and bulk of the statutes
- (2) To remove inconsistencies and redundancies in the statutes
- (3) To improve the clarity and facilitate the correct and proper interpretation of the statutes.

FORM AND INTRODUCTION OF BILLS

(b) Reviser's bills shall be prepared by the Subcommittee on Rules, which may request prior review by another substantive committee. They shall be filed by the Committee on Procedures as soon as possible prior to or during each legislative session. Reviser's bills may be amended only by making deletions.

5.8—Memorials

A memorial expresses the opinion of the Legislature to the Federal Government. All memorials shall contain the resolving clause "Be It Resolved by the Legislature of the State of Florida:".

5.9—House Resolutions and Concurrent Resolutions and Tributes

(a) All House resolutions and all concurrent resolutions originating in the House shall contain a title and a resolving clause. In the case of House resolutions, the resolving clause shall be "Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Florida:". In the case of concurrent resolutions originating in the House, the resolving clause shall be "Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Florida, the Senate Concurring:". Concurrent resolutions originating in the House shall present only questions pertaining to extension of a session, enactment of joint rules, ratification of federal constitutional amendments, communications with the judiciary, actions taken pursuant to federal law not requiring gubernatorial approval, or other exclusively legislative matters.

(b) All resolutions shall be reviewed and approved by the Chair of the Subcommittee on Rules before introduction.

(c) Copies of House resolutions shall be furnished by the Clerk. The Secretary of State shall be requested to prepare certified copies of concurrent resolutions after their adoption.

(d) Any matter commemorating local achievement, condolences, or other recognition shall be prepared by the House Bill Drafting Service as an individual tribute for the Member sponsoring the measure.

5.10—Prefiled Bills

During the period between the Organization Session and the convening of the first regular session of the legislative biennium and during the period between the first and second regular sessions of the legislative biennium, Members may file for introduction bills that have been prepared or reviewed by the House Bill Drafting Service.

5.11—Requirements for Introduction

(a) All bills (other than a General Appropriations Bill, concurrent resolutions relating to organization of the Legislature, resolutions relating to organization of the House, reviser's bills, reapportionment bills or resolutions, and recall of acts from the Governor) shall either be prepared or, in the case of local bills, reviewed by the House Bill Drafting Service. After completion and delivery by the House Bill Drafting Service, no change may be made in the text or title of the bill without returning the bill to the House Bill Drafting Service prior to filing.

(b) The Director of the House Bill Drafting Service shall notify any Member proposing a bill if an identical or similar bill has been filed and, if so, the name of the sponsor of such bill.

5.12—Identification

All bills shall be given a number and filed on behalf of a Member by the House Bill Drafting Service. Bills shall be serially numbered, in an odd-numbered sequence, except that bills of a similar type may be serially numbered separately. The Clerk shall validate the original copy of each bill, and each page thereof, to ensure its identification as the item introduced in order to prevent unauthorized or improper substitutions therefor. Any device used for such validation shall be used by and at all times shall be in the secure custody of the Clerk, and its use by any person not authorized by this Rule shall be prohibited.

5.13—Companion Measures

A companion Senate bill must be substantially similar in wording, and identical as to specific intent and purpose, to the House bill for which it is being substituted. Whenever a House bill is reached on the floor for consideration, either on second or third reading, and there is also pending on the Calendar of the House a companion bill already passed by the Senate, it shall be in order to move that the Senate companion bill be substituted and considered in lieu of the House bill. Such motion may be adopted by a majority vote, provided the Senate bill is on the same reading, otherwise the motion shall be to waive the Rules by two-thirds vote of the Members present and voting and substitute such Senate bill. At the moment the House substitutes the Senate companion bill or takes up a Senate bill in lieu of a House bill, the House bill so replaced shall be automatically tabled. Recommitment of a House bill shall automatically carry with it any Senate companion bill then on the Calendar of the House.

RULE SIX

REFERENCE

6.1—Speaker to Refer Legislation

The authority to make bill referrals rests with the Speaker, except as otherwise provided in these Rules.

6.2—Reference: Generally

(a) Bills, upon prefiling or introduction, whether House or Senate, may be referred by the Speaker to one or more committees or subcommittees or to the Calendar of the House. The order of reference shall be determined by the Speaker.

(b) References of bills and the nature of any documents referred shall be recorded in the Journal.

6.3—Reference: Exception; Additional or New References

(a) All bills, whether House or Senate, may be referred by the Speaker to the appropriate committees and subcommittees. A Senate bill with a House companion may be paired with the companion House bill at whatever its stage of consideration, provided both bills are on the same reading.

(b) If a bill is reported with an amendment, the Speaker may redetermine reference of the bill.

(c) If after a bill is placed on the Calendar of the House and any amendment is filed, the Speaker may recommit the bill to a committee or subcommittee of reference or may otherwise redetermine reference of the bill.

6.4—Reference of Resolutions, Concurrent Resolutions: Exception

Resolutions on House organization and concurrent resolutions pertaining to extension of the session may be taken up upon motion and adopted at the time of introduction without reference. Resolutions or concurrent resolutions of a substantive nature, as authorized under Rule 5.9, may first be referred to appropriate committees or subcommittees.

6.5—Reference of Appropriations or Tax Measures

Except as provided in Rule 6.2, all bills carrying or affecting appropriations or tax matters shall be referred to an appropriate fiscal committee or subcommittee. If an amendment adopted on the floor of the House affects an appropriation or a tax matter, the Speaker, upon motion made by the Chair of the Committee on Appropriations, or the Chair of the Committee on Procedures or the Majority Whip in the absence of the Chair, shall refer the bill with the amendment to the Committee on Appropriations, unless the amendment is the substance of a bill which has been reported favorably by the Committee on Appropriations. If the bill, as amended, is reported favorably, it shall be returned to the same reading as when referred.

6.6—Reference of Veto Messages

The Speaker may refer veto messages to the appropriate committees for recommendations.

RULE SEVEN

COMMITTEES—ORGANIZATION, MEETINGS, AND OVERSIGHT

Part One—Organization

7.1—Standing Committee Appointments

(a) The Speaker shall appoint the Chair, the Vice Chair, and any Co-Chairs deemed necessary for each standing House committee and subcommittee and shall also appoint the remaining membership of each such committee and subcommittee. The Speaker shall give notice of each such appointment in writing to the Clerk for publication.

(b) If the need arises, the Speaker may appoint a temporary Chair for any standing committee or subcommittee.

(c) All standing committee or subcommittee Chairs, Vice Chairs, and members serve at the pleasure of the Speaker.

(d) All standing committee and subcommittee appointments shall be made by the Speaker prior to the convening of each regular session and shall expire on August 1 of odd-numbered years or, if the Legislature is convened in special or extended session on that date, upon adjournment sine die of such session.

7.2—Appointment of Select Committees

The Speaker may at any time create a select committee or select subcommittee and shall appoint the membership and name the Chair and Vice Chair thereof. A select committee may include the entire membership of the House. A select committee has the jurisdiction, authority, and duties and exists for the period of time specified by the Speaker. A select committee has the powers granted by these Rules to a standing committee except as limited by the Speaker. The Speaker shall give notice of the creation of a select committee or select subcommittee in writing to the Clerk for publication in an Interim Calendar and the Session Journal.

7.3—Ex Officio Members

The Speaker may designate the Speaker pro tempore or the Majority Whip as an ex officio, voting member of any standing committee. No standing committee may have more than one ex officio member voting at any one time. For the purpose of a quorum, an ex officio member shall not be included in the membership of a committee. The Speaker shall give notice of the designation of any such ex officio member in writing to the Member so designated and to the committee Chair. The Speaker may designate the Chair of the parent committee, ex officio, as an additional voting member of a subcommittee. However, for the purpose of a quorum, the parent committee Chair shall not be included in the membership of a subcommittee.

Part Two—Meetings; Powers, Duties, and Procedure

7.4—Powers of the Chair

(a) The committee or subcommittee Chair shall sign all notices, vouchers, or reports required or permitted by these Rules. The committee Chair shall sign all subpoenas as provided in Rule 16.1. Except as otherwise provided in these Rules, the Chair has all authority necessary to ensure an efficient operation of the committee or subcommittee, including, but not limited to, presiding over the committee or subcommittee, establishing the agenda for the committee or subcommittee, recognition of members or presenters, deciding all questions of order in committee or subcommittee, and determining the order in which matters are considered in committee or subcommittee. There shall be no appeal from the Chair's recognition, but the Chair shall be governed by the Rules and usage in priority of entertaining motions.

(b) Questions of order are subject to an appeal. Such appeal shall be made during the committee meeting and shall be submitted in writing to the Chair signed by at least two members of the committee or subcommittee prior to 4:30 p.m. of the next business day. The appeal shall be certified by the Chair to the House for timely action by the Speaker following such certification. The Speaker may refer an appeal to the Chair of the Subcommittee on Rules for a recommendation. The ruling of the Speaker shall be entered in the Journal and shall be subject to appeal as any other question. The Chair may, or on majority vote of the committee or subcommittee shall, certify a question of parliamentary procedure to the Speaker as contemplated by the Rule without a formal appeal. Such a certified question shall be disposed of by the Speaker as if it had been on appeal. The certification of an appeal or of a question of parliamentary procedure pursuant to this Rule does not constitute an automatic stay to further legislative action on the measure under consideration.

7.5—Absence of the Chair

For the purpose of convening or presiding over a meeting in the absence of the Chair, the Vice Chair shall assume all duties of the Chair until the Chair's return or replacement, unless a temporary Chair has been appointed by the Speaker to assume those duties instead.

7.6—Meetings of Committees and Subcommittees

Committees and subcommittees shall meet at the call of the committee Chair, within the dates, times, and locations designated by the Speaker. Meeting beyond the designated time shall be allowed only with special leave granted by the Speaker. A committee or subcommittee may continue the consideration of properly noticed legislation after the expiration of the time set for the meeting with the Speaker's approval and if a majority agree to continue or to temporarily recess to continue the meeting at a time and place certain on the same day, provided there is no conflict with another scheduled committee or subcommittee meeting.

7.7—Time for Meetings

No committee or subcommittee meeting shall begin before 8:00 a.m. or last beyond 6:00 p.m., unless granted special leave by the Speaker.

7.8—Committees and Subcommittees Meeting During House Session

No committee or subcommittee shall meet while the House is in session without the consent of the House, except the Subcommittee on Rules, when meeting to consider matters other than legislation, and conference committees.

7.9—Consideration of Bills, Including Proposed Committee Bills

(a) The Chair of any committee or subcommittee shall give prior notice in writing of the intention to take up any bill or proposed bill. The Chair of any committee or subcommittee may remove any item from an agenda at any time by filing an amended notice prior to commencement of the meeting.

(b) Proposed committee bills (PCBs) shall be treated as other bills in meeting the requirements for notice under Rules 7.10-7.12. Each PCB shall be available to each committee member no later than the time of posting of notice. A PCB taken up without the committee conforming to this Rule shall be regarded as being considered in workshop session only, with final action carried over to a future meeting of the committee at which the requirements of this Rule have been met.

(c) Before a standing committee may consider a proposed committee bill, the Speaker must approve the consideration by the committee of the proposed bill.

7.10—Meetings of Committees and Subcommittees: Time Required for Advance Notice

(a) During the first 45 calendar days of a regular session, prior notice shall be given two (2) days (excluding Saturday and Sunday) in advance of a committee or subcommittee meeting for the purpose of considering legislation. If the notice is given by 4:30 p.m., a bill or proposed bill may be heard at any time on the second succeeding day. After the 45th calendar day and during any extended or special session, the notice shall be given at least one (1) day in advance of the committee or subcommittee meeting.

(b) If a committee or subcommittee is approved and scheduled for a meeting by the Speaker, but does not plan to meet, a notice stating that no meeting is to be held shall be posted.

(c) Except when meeting to consider the substance of legislation, the Subcommittee on Rules shall be exempt from the requirements of this Rule.

7.11—Nature and Distribution of Notice

(a) A notice shall include a listing and sufficient title for identification of any and all bills or proposed bills to be considered by the committee or subcommittee holding the meeting, including, time permitting, those pending on reconsideration. However, failure to include a bill pending on reconsideration in the notice does not preclude the motion to reconsider from being made as provided under Rule 7.13(b).

(b) A notice shall state the date, time, and place of a meeting. The first-named sponsor and the members of the committee or subcommittee shall be provided separate notice.

(c) Whenever timely, such notices shall be included in the Calendar of the House.

7.12—Notices of Meetings Between Sessions

During the period when the Legislature is not in session, before any committee or subcommittee holds a meeting for the purpose of considering a prefiled bill or a proposed committee bill (PCB), a notice of such meeting shall be filed no later than seven (7) calendar days before the Friday preceding the week of the meeting. If a committee or subcommittee is approved and scheduled for a meeting by the Speaker, but does not plan to meet, a notice stating that no meeting is to be held shall be filed. The committee administrative assistant shall send copies of the notice to the members of the committee or subcommittee and to the first-named sponsor of the bill. This notice shall state the date, time, and place of the meeting, the bill number, and a portion of the title sufficient for identification. Whenever timely, the Clerk shall enter such notices in an Interim Calendar. When two meetings have been scheduled by a committee or subcommittee during a 30-day period when the Legislature is not in session, the committee Chair may provide in the notice for the first meeting that bills placed on the agenda for the first meeting and not reported out shall be available for consideration at the second meeting without further notice.

7.13—Reconsideration in Committee or Subcommittee

The Rules of the House shall govern proceedings in committee or subcommittee insofar as they are applicable, except that a motion for reconsideration shall be treated in the following manner:

(a) When a main question has been decided by a committee or subcommittee, any member voting with the prevailing side, or any member when the vote was a tie or by voice, may move for reconsideration.

(b) Without recognition, a member voting on the prevailing side on passage or defeat of a bill may, as a matter of right, order the bill to be retained through the next committee or subcommittee meeting for the purpose of reconsideration. Such an order of an individual member may be set aside by adoption of a motion to report the bill immediately, which shall require a two-thirds vote of the members present and voting. No bill may be ordered retained after the 40th day of a regular session or during an extended or special session.

RULE SEVEN

(c) A motion to reconsider a collateral matter must be disposed of during the course of consideration of the main subject to which it is related.

(d) If the committee or subcommittee refuses to reconsider or, upon reconsideration, confirms its prior decision, no further motion to reconsider shall be in order except upon unanimous consent of the committee or subcommittee members present.

(e) If a bill is not directed to be retained, the committee administrative assistant shall promptly report the bill.

7.14—Open Meetings; Decorum

(a) All meetings of all committees and subcommittees shall be open to the public at all times, subject always to the authority of the Chair to maintain order and decorum; however, when reasonably necessary for security purposes or the protection of a witness, a Chair, with the concurrence of the Speaker and the Minority Leader, may close a committee or subcommittee meeting, or portion thereof, and the record of such meeting may not disclose the identity of the witness appearing before the committee or subcommittee.

(b) The Chair shall exercise all authority necessary to maintain order and decorum, including the authority to require all persons attending a committee or subcommittee meeting to silence all telephones, audible beepers, and other audible electronic equipment.

7.15—Unfavorable Reports

(a) A bill reported unfavorably by a committee shall be laid on the table. A bill so reported may be taken from the table upon the motion of any Member on the floor, adopted by a two-thirds vote of the Members present and voting, after debate not to exceed six (6) minutes evenly divided between proponents and opponents of the motion.

(b) A bill reported unfavorably by a subcommittee shall appear on the agenda for the next meeting of the parent committee following the unfavorable vote of the subcommittee, consistent with time and notice requirements. A bill reported unfavorably by a subcommittee shall be laid upon the table and shall be reported unfavorably following the next meeting of the parent committee after the unfavorable report of the subcommittee, unless a member of the parent committee, at such meeting, makes a motion, which shall be decided without debate, to take the bill from the table. A two-thirds majority vote of the membership of the parent committee shall be required to take the bill from the table. If the bill that previously had been reported unfavorably by a subcommittee is taken from the table, the parent committee shall take up the bill with debate limited to members of the committee and the first-named sponsor. However, by a two-thirds majority vote of the members of the parent committee, the bill may receive a hearing de novo and witnesses shall be permitted to testify.

7.16—Voting in Committee

A majority of the members of a committee or subcommittee present, a quorum having been established, shall agree by their recorded votes upon the disposition of any bill or other main question considered by the committee or subcommittee. (Florida Constitution, Article III, Section 4(c): “In any legislative committee or subcommittee, the vote of each member voting on the final passage of any legislation pending before the committee, and upon the request of any two members of the committee or subcommittee, the vote of each member on any other question, shall be recorded.”)

7.17—Proxy Voting Prohibited; Votes Recorded After Roll Call

A member of a committee or subcommittee may not, under any circumstance, vote by proxy. Absent members may have recorded an indication of how they would have voted if present, but this shall not be counted on a roll call.

7.18—Quorum Required

A committee or subcommittee may not file a report unless the committee or subcommittee has met at an authorized time and place, with a quorum present. A majority of the membership of the committee or subcommittee shall constitute a quorum. Only those members present may vote on any matter. A committee or subcommittee may conduct a workshop with or without a quorum.

7.19—Nature and Contents of Committee and Subcommittee Reports

(a) It shall be the duty of committees and subcommittees to report bills either favorably, favorably with a committee substitute, or unfavorably, but never without recommendation. A motion to lay a bill on the table shall be construed as a motion to report the pending bill unfavorably.

(b) Each report of a committee or subcommittee must contain the action of the committee or subcommittee on the bill being transmitted, together with a Committee or Subcommittee Information Record stating:

RULE SEVEN
COMMITTEES—ORGANIZATION, MEETINGS, AND OVERSIGHT

- (1) The time and place of the meeting at which the action was taken;
 - (2) The name and address of each person appearing before the committee or subcommittee relative to the measure and, if an agent, the interest represented; and
 - (3) The vote of each member of the committee or subcommittee on the motion to report each bill.
- (c) Each report by a committee or subcommittee shall set forth the identifying number of the bill, and, if a committee substitute is proposed by the committee or subcommittee, the words “with amendment” shall follow the identifying number. For the purpose of documentation, committees and subcommittees shall retain copies of their reports and amendments adopted, rejected, or withdrawn, with the committee or subcommittee action noted thereon.
- (d) Committees and subcommittees shall, after consideration of prefiled bills, report their actions promptly, in the manner prescribed by these Rules.

7.20—Minority Reports

Minority reports on any matter may be published in the Journal only by majority vote of the House.

7.21—Fiscal Analysis

All general bills affecting revenues, expenditures, or fiscal liability shall be accompanied by a fiscal analysis upon being reported favorably by a fiscal standing committee. Fiscal analyses shall state in dollars the estimated increase or decrease in revenues or expenditures and the present and future fiscal implication of the bill. A fiscal analysis shall be regarded as a memorandum of factual information and may be included within the body of the bill analysis that accompanies the bill, which statement shall be made available to Members. The fiscal analysis portion of the bill analysis shall not express comment or opinion relative to the merits of the legislation proposed, but should point out technical or mechanical defects. If any bill of this nature is reported favorably by any fiscal standing committee without a fiscal analysis having been prepared, it shall be the right of any Member to raise a point of order on second reading and the Speaker may, in the Speaker’s discretion, order return of the bill to the appropriate fiscal committee. The accuracy of a fiscal analysis shall not be a basis for a point of order under these Rules. A fiscal analysis prepared for a House bill may be presumed as prepared also for its Senate companion.

7.22—Committee and Subcommittee Amendments

(a) Committees and subcommittees may only consider amendments presented in final written form prior to adoption.

(b) Any Member may offer an amendment to a bill being considered by any committee or subcommittee of the House and shall be recognized to introduce and close on the amendment. If not appointed to the committee or subcommittee, a Member who offers an amendment must comply with the amendment filing deadline and must be present at the meeting. If such Member is not present, the amendment may still be considered, but only if taken up and offered by a Member who is appointed to the committee or subcommittee.

(c) During the first 45 calendar days of a regular session, the filing deadline for amendments to be offered in a committee or subcommittee by nonappointed Members shall be 5:00 p.m., one (1) day (excluding Saturday and Sunday) in advance of the committee or subcommittee meeting. After the 45th day and during any extended or special session, such amendments shall be filed two (2) hours before the committee or subcommittee meeting. Amendments introduced by committee or subcommittee members, including ex officio members, shall not be subject to these filing deadlines and may be offered at any time during consideration of a bill.

(d) Committees shall propose revisions to a bill only in the form of a single amendment. The amendment shall be made up of the text of the bill with recommended changes engrossed. Such a measure shall be known as a committee substitute and shall be treated as the bill. A committee of later reference shall address itself for purposes of amendment to the most recently adopted committee substitute, if one accompanies the pending measure. An earlier committee substitute shall be laid on the table upon adoption of a committee substitute by a later committee of reference.

7.23—Committee Bills; Designation of Cosponsors

A committee, in introducing a committee bill, shall submit a Committee Information Record. In introducing a committee bill, the Chair shall designate a member of the committee as cosponsor, with the approval of such member, and may designate other members of the committee as cosponsors, with their approval.

Part Three—Conference Committees

7.24—Conference Committee Meetings; Procedures

(a) Meetings of conference committees shall be open to the public at all times, subject to the authority of the Chair to maintain order and decorum. Once appointed, the conference committee shall determine its procedures.

(b) The Chair of any conference committee shall give notice at least two (2) hours prior to the meeting and after the 50th day one (1) hour notice of intention to meet.

7.25—Composition of Conference Committee

(a) A conference committee shall consist of managers from each house. The Speaker shall appoint the House managers of all conference committees. The Speaker shall determine the number as need appears and shall appoint no less than a majority who generally supported the House position as determined by the Speaker. In addition, the Speaker shall name the House Chair of each conference committee and may also name the House Vice Chair thereof.

(b) The conference committee shall select one of its members to preside. A conference committee report shall require the affirmative votes of a majority of the managers from each house.

7.26—Presentation of Conference Committee Report

(a) The receiving of conference committee reports shall always be in order, except when the House is voting on any proposition. When a conference committee report is presented to the House, the sequence shall be:

(1) The vote first shall be on whether the report shall be considered at that time.

(2) The next vote shall be on acceptance or rejection of the report in its entirety. The report must be acted upon as a whole, being agreed to or disagreed to in its entirety.

(3) The final vote shall be a roll call on the passage of the bill as amended by the report.

(b) If either paragraph (a)(2) or paragraph (a)(3) fails, the report shall be automatically recommitted to the conference committee. If a motion to reconsider is made, the vote first would be on paragraph (a)(2) and then on paragraph (a)(3).

7.27—Form of Conference Committee Report

(a) When a conference committee has redrafted a bill, the committee shall report an amendment removing everything after the enacting clause, together with an appropriate title amendment if needed.

(b) Each conference committee report must be accompanied by a statement, written or oral, to inform the House of the effect of the report on the measure to which it relates.

7.28—Time Restraints on Conference Committees

(a) During the first 54 calendar days of a regular session, it shall be a motion of highest privilege either to discharge the House managers and appoint new House managers or to instruct the House managers after House and Senate managers have been appointed for seven (7) calendar days and have failed to report.

(b) During the last six (6) calendar days of a regular session, it shall be a motion of highest privilege either to discharge the House managers and appoint new House managers or to instruct the House managers after House and Senate managers have been appointed for 36 hours and have failed to report.

7.29—When Managers Are Unable to Agree

When a conference committee is appointed in reference to any bill and the House managers report inability to agree, no action of the House taken prior to such appointment shall preclude further action by the House as the House may determine.

Part Four—Oversight Responsibilities and Powers

7.30—Oversight Powers and Responsibilities of Committees and Subcommittees

(a) Committees and subcommittees are authorized:

(1) To maintain a continuous review of the work of the state agencies concerned with their subject areas and the performance of the functions of government within each subject area;

(2) To invite public officials, public employees, and private individuals to appear before the committees or subcommittees to submit information;

(3) To request reports from departments performing functions reasonably related to the committees' jurisdictions;

RULE SEVEN
COMMITTEES—ORGANIZATION, MEETINGS, AND OVERSIGHT

- (4) To complete the interim projects assigned by the Speaker; and
- (5) To conduct such other business as directed by the Speaker.

(b) In order to carry out its duties, each committee or subcommittee has the reasonable right and authority to inspect and investigate the books, records, papers, documents, data, operation, and physical plant of any public agency in this state.

(c) In order to carry out the duties of the committee and its subcommittees, the Chair of each committee may issue subpoenas duces tecum, as provided in Rule 16.1, and other necessary process to compel the attendance of witnesses either before the committee or subcommittee or at deposition and the production of any books, letters, or other documentary evidence required by such committee. Any member of a committee or subcommittee may administer all oaths and affirmations, in a manner prescribed by law, to witnesses who appear before such committees to testify in any matter requiring evidence.

RULE EIGHT

CHAMBER PROTOCOL

Part One—Privilege of the Floor

8.1—Privilege of the Floor

(a) Only present Members of the House and of the Senate, and contestants in election cases during the pendency of their cases in the House, shall be admitted during regular daily sessions to the Chamber of the House. The Governor, the Lieutenant Governor, Cabinet Members, Justices of the Supreme Court, Members of Congress, visiting dignitaries, official guests, and former Members of the Legislature who are not interested in any claim or directly in any bill pending before the Legislature, may be granted the privilege of the floor by the Speaker. Employees of the House may be admitted to the Chamber as determined by the Speaker. Persons granted the privilege of the floor may not lobby the Members while the House is in session, unless by motion granted leave to address the House.

(b) When the House is in session, all persons in the House Chamber shall be dressed in proper business attire.

Part Two—Speaking

8.2—Addressing the House; Requirements to Spread Remarks Upon the Journal

(a) When a Member desires to speak or deliver any matter to the House, the Member shall rise and respectfully address the Speaker as “Mr. (or Madam) Speaker” and shall confine all remarks to the question under debate, avoiding personalities. Once recognized, a Member may speak from the Member’s desk or may, with the Speaker’s permission, speak from the well.

(b) Any motion to spread remarks upon the Journal, except those of the Governor or the Speaker, shall be referred to the Chair of the Subcommittee on Rules for recommendation before being put to the House.

8.3—When Two Members Rise at Once

When two or more Members rise at once, the Speaker shall name the one who is to speak first. This decision shall be final and not open to debate or appeal.

8.4—Recognition of Members

There shall be no appeal from the Speaker's recognition, but the Speaker shall be governed by the Rules and usage in priority of entertaining motions from the floor. When a Member seeks recognition, the Speaker may ask, "For what purpose does the Member rise?" or "For what purpose does the Member seek recognition?"

8.5—Recognition of Gallery Visitors and Physician of the Day

On written request by a Member, on a form prescribed by the Subcommittee on Rules, the Speaker may recognize or permit the Member to recognize any person or persons in the gallery. After granting a request for recognition, the Speaker shall afford that recognition at a convenient place in the order of business, considering the need for order and decorum and the need for continuity of debate. At an appropriate time during proceedings on the floor, the Speaker may recognize a Physician of the Day.

Part Three—Debate

8.6—Decorum

The Members shall attend to the debates unless necessarily prevented, and a Member shall not stand between the Speaker and a Member recognized to speak.

8.7—Speaking and Debate

(a) A Member may not speak more than once or occupy more than 15 minutes in debate on any question. A Member who has the floor may not be interrupted by another Member for any purpose, save the privilege of the House, unless he or she consents to yield to the other Member. A Member desiring to interrupt another in debate should first address the Speaker for the permission of the Member speaking. The Speaker shall then ask the Member who has the floor if he or she wishes to yield, and then announce the decision of that Member. Whether to yield shall be entirely within the speaking Member's discretion. However, this subsection shall not deprive the first-named sponsor or mover of the right to close when the effect of an amendment or motion would be to kill the bill, amendment, or motion.

(b) Debate may not be disguised in the form of a question, but questions may be asked on second reading or with respect to an amendment offered on third reading.

8.8—Right to Open and Close Debate

The mover of any proposition, or the Member reporting any measure from a committee or subcommittee, or, in the absence of either of them, any other Member designated by such absentee, shall have the right to open and close the debate, and for this purpose may speak each time up to ten (10) minutes, unless otherwise limited by majority vote of the House, notwithstanding the limitation in Rule 8.7(a).

Part Four—Materials and Meals in Chamber

8.9—Distribution of Materials in Chamber; Meals in Chamber

(a) The following constitutes policy regarding material distributed to the general membership through the Sergeant at Arms' Office and pages:

(1) All material prior to such distribution must be approved by the Chair of the Subcommittee on Rules.

(2) The following official materials are approved: House and Senate bills, resolutions, memorials, and amendments thereto, and official calendars and journals; committee and subcommittee meeting notices; communications from the Speaker and Clerk and official communications from the Senate; and official staff reports of standing or select committees or subcommittees or of the majority or minority parties.

(b) Meals will not be allowed on the floor without concurrence of the Members present and voting. This shall not be construed to prevent the serving of drinks such as juices, coffee, tea, soft drinks, milk, and the like.

Part Five—Miscellaneous Papers

8.10—Miscellaneous Papers

Papers of a miscellaneous nature addressed to the House may, at the discretion of the Speaker, be read, noted in the Journal, or filed with the appropriate committee. When the reading of a paper other than one upon which the House is called to give a final vote is demanded, and such reading is objected to by any Member, it shall be determined without debate by the House by majority vote.

RULE NINE

VOTING

9.1—Members Shall Vote

Every Member shall be within the House Chamber during its sittings, unless excused or necessarily prevented, and shall vote on each question put.

9.2—Taking the Yeas and Nays

The Speaker shall declare all votes, but if any Member rises to doubt a vote, upon a showing of hands by five (5) Members, the Speaker shall take the sense of the House by oral roll call or electronic roll call. When taking the yeas and nays on any question, the electronic roll-call system may be used and when so used shall have the force and effect of a roll call taken as provided in these Rules. This system likewise may be used to determine the presence of a quorum. When the House is ready to vote upon a question requiring roll call, and the vote is by electronic roll call, the Speaker shall say, "The question now recurs on (designating the matter to be voted upon). The Clerk will unlock the machine and the House will proceed to vote." When sufficient time has elapsed for each Member to vote, the Speaker shall ask, "Have all Members voted?" After a short pause the Speaker shall say, "The Clerk will lock the machine and record the vote." When the vote is completely recorded, the Speaker shall announce the result to the House, and the Clerk shall record the action upon the Journal.

9.3—Vote of the Speaker or Temporary Presiding Officer

The Speaker or temporary presiding officer is not required to vote in legislative proceedings other than on final passage of a bill, except when the Speaker's or temporary presiding officer's vote would be decisive. In all yea and nay votes, the Speaker's or temporary presiding officer's name shall be called last. With respect to voting, the Speaker or temporary presiding officer is subject to the same disqualification and disclosure requirements as any other Member.

9.4—Votes After Roll Call

After the result of a roll call has been announced, a Member may advise the Clerk of how the Member would have voted or would have voted differently. The Clerk shall provide forms for the recording of these actions. When timely made, these requests shall be shown beneath the roll call in the Journal. Otherwise, the request shall be shown separately in the Journal. In no instance, other than by reason of an electronic or mechanical malfunction, shall the result of a voting machine roll call on any question be changed.

9.5—No Member to Vote for Another Except by Request

No Member may vote for another Member except at the other Member's request when absent from his or her seat but present elsewhere in the Chamber, nor may any person who is not a Member cast a vote for a Member. In no case shall a Member vote for another on a quorum call. Any Member who votes or attempts to vote for another Member in violation of this Rule may be punished in such a manner as the House may deem proper. Any person who is not a Member and who votes wrongfully in the place of a Member shall be excluded from the Chamber for the remainder of the session, in addition to such punishment as the House may deem proper.

9.6—Explanation of Vote

A Member may not explain his or her vote during a roll call, but may reduce his or her explanation to writing, in not more than 200 words in an electronic format, and upon filing with the Clerk, this explanation shall be spread upon the Journal.

RULE TEN
ORDER OF BUSINESS AND CALENDARS

(b) During special sessions, the order of business of Introduction and Reference shall be conducted immediately following the order of business of Correction of the Journal.

(c) By majority vote of the Members present, the House may on motion of the Chair of the Committee on Procedures or the Chair of the Subcommittee on Rules move to any order of business. The motion may provide which matter on such order of business may be considered.

10.3—Chaplain to Offer Prayer

A chaplain shall attend at the beginning of each day's sitting of the House and open the same with prayer. In the absence of a chaplain, the Speaker may designate someone else to offer prayer.

10.4—Quorum

A majority of the membership of the House shall constitute a quorum to conduct business.

10.5—Consideration of Senate Messages; Generally

Senate messages may be considered by the House at the time and in the order determined by the Speaker.

Part Two—Readings

10.6—"Reading" Defined

"Reading" means the stage of consideration of a bill, resolution, or memorial after reading of a portion of the title sufficient for identification, as determined by the Speaker.

10.7—Reading of Bills and Joint Resolutions

Each bill and each joint resolution shall receive three (3) readings on three (3) separate days prior to a vote upon final passage unless two-thirds of the Members decide otherwise. The publication of a bill or joint resolution by its title in the Journal shall satisfy the requirements of first reading.

10.8—Reading of Concurrent Resolutions and Memorials

Concurrent resolutions and memorials shall receive two (2) readings on two (2) separate days prior to a voice vote upon adoption, except that concurrent resolutions extending a legislative session or involving other procedural legislative matters authorized under Rule 5.9 may be read twice without motion on the same legislative day.

10.9—Reading of House Resolutions

A House resolution shall receive two (2) readings by title only prior to a voice vote upon adoption, except that ceremonial resolutions may be shown as read and adopted by publication in full in the Journal in accordance with Rule 10.18.

10.10—Measures on Third Reading

(a) Except upon motion by the Chair of the Subcommittee on Rules and adopted by majority vote, bills on third reading shall be taken up in the order in which the House concluded action on them on second reading.

(b) Before any bill shall be read the third time, whether amended or not, it shall be referred without motion to the Engrossing Clerk for examination and, if amended, the engrossing of amendments. In the case of any Senate bill amended in the House, the amendment adopted shall be reproduced and attached to the bill amended in such manner that it will not be lost therefrom.

(c) A bill shall be deemed on its third reading when it has been read a second time on a previous day and has no motion left pending.

10.11—Waiting Period Prior to Vote on Final Passage

No bill shall be considered for a vote on passage on the day it is amended or on the next succeeding calendar day. Technical amendments drafted by House Bill Drafting and offered in the name of the Subcommittee on Rules shall not delay a vote on passage.

Part Three—Bills Subject to Special Rule

10.12—Bills Subject to Special Rule

(a) The Subcommittee on Rules may by majority vote recommend that any bill be subject to a Special Rule created by the Subcommittee. The Subcommittee on Rules shall submit the recommendation to the House for its approval.

(b) A Special Rule may not limit or prohibit the offering of amendments, but may prescribe the time and conditions of debate, may govern floor action on both second and third readings, or may contain any other provisions deemed appropriate.

(c) A specific provision in a Special Rule is controlling over a conflicting provision of these Rules.

Part Four—Calendars

10.13—Special Order Calendar

(a) REGULAR SESSION

(1) The Subcommittee on Rules shall periodically submit, as needed, a Special Order Calendar determining the sequence for consideration of legislation. The Special Order Calendar may include bills on second reading, bills on third reading, resolutions, and specific sections for local bills, trust fund bills, bills to be taken up at a time certain, and bills subject to Special Rule. Upon adoption of a Special Order Calendar, no other bills shall be considered for the time period set forth for that Special Order Calendar, except that any bill appearing on that Special Order Calendar may be stricken from it by a majority vote of the Members present and voting or any bill may be added to it pursuant to Rule 10.14. A previously adopted Special Order Calendar shall expire upon adoption by the House of a new Special Order Calendar.

(2) Any committee or Member may apply to the Chair of the Subcommittee on Rules to place a bill on the Special Order Calendar. The Subcommittee on Rules may grant such requests by a majority vote.

(3) During the regular session, the Special Order Calendar shall be published in two (2) Calendars of the House, and it may be taken up on the day of the second published Calendar.

(b) EXTENDED OR SPECIAL SESSION

(1) If the Legislature extends a legislative session, all bills on the Calendar of the House at the time of expiration of the regular session shall be placed in the Committee on Procedures.

(2) During any extended or special session, all bills upon being reported favorably by the last committee of reference shall be placed in the Committee on Procedures.

(3) During any extended or special session, the Subcommittee on Rules shall establish a Special Order Calendar and only those bills on such Special Order Calendar shall be placed on the Calendar of the House.

10.14—Consideration of Bills Not on Special Order

A bill not included on the Special Order Calendar may be considered by the House upon two-thirds vote of the Members present and voting.

10.15—Consent Calendar

The Subcommittee on Rules may submit a Consent Calendar designed to expedite the consideration of noncontroversial legislation, according to procedures recommended by the Subcommittee on Rules and approved by the House.

10.16—Requirements for Placement on a Calendar

No measure may be placed on a calendar until it has been reported favorably by each committee of reference.

10.17—Informal Deferral of Bills

Whenever the Member who introduced a bill or the first-named Member sponsor of a committee bill is absent from the Chamber when the bill has been reached in the regular order on second or third reading, consideration shall be informally deferred until such Member's return, unless another Member consents to offer the bill on behalf of the original Member. The bill shall retain its position on the Calendar of the House during the same legislative day. The Member shall have the responsibility of making the motion for its subsequent consideration.

Part Five—Ceremonial Resolutions

10.18—Ceremonial Resolutions Published in Journal

Upon approval of the Chair of the Subcommittee on Rules, a ceremonial resolution may be shown as read and adopted by publication in full in the Journal. The Committee on Procedures shall periodically distribute a list of such resolutions one (1) day (excluding Saturday and Sunday) prior to the day of their publication, during which time any Member may file an objection with the Committee on Procedures to any resolution listed. Each resolution for which an objection has been filed shall be removed from the list and placed on the Calendar of the House. All resolutions without objections shall be printed on the next legislative day in the Journal and considered adopted by the House.

RULE ELEVEN

MOTIONS

11.1—Motions; How Made

Every motion shall be made orally, except when requested by the Speaker to be reduced to writing.

11.2—Precedence of Motions During Debate

(a) When a question is under debate, the Speaker shall receive no motion except:

- (1) To adjourn at a time certain
 - (2) To adjourn
 - (3) To recess to a time certain
 - (4) To lay on the table
 - (5) To reconsider
 - (6) For the previous question
 - (7) To limit debate
 - (8) To temporarily postpone
 - (9) To postpone to a time or day certain
 - (10) To refer to or to recommit to committee or subcommittee
 - (11) To amend
 - (12) To amend by removing the enacting or resolving clause.
- (b) Such motions shall have precedence in the descending order given.

11.3—Questions of Order Decided Without Debate

All procedural questions of order, arising after a motion is made for any of the motions named in Rule 11.2 and pending that motion, shall be decided by the Speaker without debate, whether on appeal or otherwise; however, the Speaker may ask the House for comment.

11.4—Division of Question

Any Member may call for a division of a question when the sense will admit of it. A motion to remove and insert shall be deemed indivisible. A motion to remove, being lost, shall preclude neither amendment nor a motion to remove and insert.

11.5—Motion to Recess to a Time Certain

A motion to recess to a time certain shall be treated the same as a motion to adjourn, except that the motion is debatable when no business is before the House and can be amended as to the time to recess and duration of the recess. It yields only to a motion to adjourn.

11.6—Motion to Lay on the Table

A motion to lay on the table is not debatable and cannot be amended; however, before the motion is put, the first-named sponsor of a bill or the mover of a debatable motion shall be allowed five (5) minutes within which to discuss the same and may divide the time with, or waive this right in favor of, some other Member. A motion to table a main question requires a majority vote. A motion to lay an amendment on the table, if adopted, does not carry with it the measure to which it adheres. A motion to lay an amendment on the table may be adopted by a majority vote.

11.7—Motion to Reconsider

(a) When a motion or main question has been made and carried or lost, it shall be in order at any time as a matter of right on the same or succeeding legislative day for a Member voting with the prevailing side, or for any Member in the case of a voice or tie vote, to move for reconsideration thereof. When a majority of Members vote in the affirmative but the proposition is lost because it is one in which the concurrence of a greater number than a majority is necessary for adoption or passage, any Member may move for a reconsideration. No bill referred or recommitted to a committee by a vote of the House shall be brought back into the House on a motion to reconsider. The motion to reconsider shall require a majority vote for its adoption, and such motion shall not be renewed on any proposition, after once being considered by vote of the House, except by unanimous consent. Debate shall be allowed on a motion to reconsider only when the question that it is proposing to reconsider is debatable. When debate upon a motion to reconsider is in order, no Member shall speak thereon more than once or for more than five (5) minutes. The adoption of a motion to reconsider a vote upon any secondary matter shall not remove the main subject under consideration from consideration of the House. A motion to reconsider a collateral matter must be disposed of at once during the course of the consideration of the main subject to which it is related, and such motion shall be out of order after the House has passed to other business.

(b) The Clerk shall retain possession of all bills and joint resolutions for the period after passage during which reconsideration may be moved or for such longer period as directed by the Speaker; however, unless otherwise directed by the Speaker, during the last 14 calendar days allowed under the Florida Constitution for a regular session and during any extensions thereof, or during any special session, these shall be transmitted to the Senate forthwith.

(c) The adoption of a motion to waive the Rules and immediately certify any bill to the Senate shall be construed as releasing the measure from the Clerk's possession for the period of reconsideration. Local bills, concurrent resolutions, and memorials shall be transmitted to the Senate without delay. Unless otherwise directed by the Speaker, messages relating to procedural motions, to House action on Senate amendments, or to conference committee reports shall be transmitted forthwith.

11.8—Motion for the Previous Question

(a) The previous question may be asked and ordered upon any debatable single motion, series of motions, or amendment pending and the effect thereof shall be to conclude all action on the same day. If third reading is reached on another day, the order for the previous question must be renewed on that day.

(b) The motion for the previous question shall be decided without debate. If the motion prevails, the sponsor of a bill or debatable motion and an opponent shall be allowed three (3) minutes each within which to discuss the same, and each may divide the time with, or waive this right in favor of, some other Member.

(c) When the motion for the previous question is adopted on a main question, the sense of the House shall be taken forthwith on pending amendments and such question in the regular order. If amendments have been adopted, the regular order shall include the adoption of necessary title amendments.

(d) The motion for the previous question may not be made by the first-named sponsor or mover.

11.9—Motion to Limit Debate

When there is debate by the House, it shall be in order for a Member to move to limit debate and such motion shall be decided without debate, except that the first-named sponsor or mover of the question under debate shall have five (5) minutes within which to discuss the motion and may divide the allotted time with, or waive it in favor of, some other Member. If, by majority vote, the question is decided in the affirmative, debate shall be limited to ten (10) minutes for each side, unless a greater time is stated in the motion, such time to be apportioned by the Speaker; however, the first-named sponsor or mover shall have an additional five (5) minutes within which to close the debate and may divide the allotted time with, or waive it in favor of, some other Member.

11.10—Motion to Temporarily Postpone

The motion to temporarily postpone shall be decided without debate and shall cause a measure to be set aside but retained on the desk. If a main question has been temporarily postponed after having been debated or after motions have been applied and is not brought back before the House on the same legislative day, it shall be placed under the order of unfinished business on the Calendar of the House. If a main question is temporarily postponed before debate has commenced or motions have been applied, its reading shall be considered a nullity and the bill shall retain its original position on the order of business. The motion to return to consideration of a temporarily postponed main question shall be made under the proper order of business when no other matter is pending. If applied to a collateral matter, the motion to temporarily postpone shall not cause the main question to be carried with it. After having been temporarily postponed, if a collateral matter is not brought back before the House in the course of consideration of the adhering or main question, it shall be deemed abandoned.

11.11—Motions to Withdraw or Refer Bills

(a) Any Member may, no later than under the order of business of Motions Relating to Committee References on the legislative day following reference of a bill, move for reference from one committee or subcommittee to a different committee or subcommittee, which shall be decided by a majority vote.

(b) A motion to withdraw a bill from committee or subcommittee, or to refer a bill from one committee or subcommittee to another committee or subcommittee other than as provided in subsection (a), may be made during the regular order of business and shall require an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the Members present and voting.

(c) A motion to refer a bill to an additional committee may be made during the regular order of business and shall require an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the Members present and voting.

(d) A motion to refer shall be debated only as to the propriety of the reference.

(e) A motion to withdraw a bill from further consideration of the House shall require an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the Members present and voting.

(1) For the purpose of withdrawing bills from further consideration, the first-named Member sponsor shall be regarded as the only Member empowered to move for the withdrawal of a bill. The first-named Member sponsor of a bill may, prior to its introduction, withdraw the bill by letter to the Clerk.

(2) In moving for the withdrawal of a bill from further consideration by floor motion, the introducer shall be required to identify the nature of the bill.

11.12—Motion to Recommit

(a) After a committee or subcommittee reports favorably on a bill, the bill may be recommitted by the House to a committee or subcommittee by a majority vote.

(b) A motion to recommit to committee or subcommittee a bill that is before the House may be made during the regular order of business. The motion shall be debatable only as to the propriety of that reference and shall require an affirmative majority vote.

11.13—Dilatory Motions

Dilatory or delaying motions shall not be in order as determined by the Speaker.

11.14—Withdrawal of Motions

The mover of a motion may withdraw the motion at any time before it has been amended or a vote on it has commenced, except that a motion to reconsider may be withdrawn only on the day made.

RULE TWELVE

AMENDMENTS

12.1—Form

Floor amendments and committee substitute amendments shall be prepared by House Bill Drafting and filed electronically.

12.2—Filing; 2-day Amendment Cycle

(a) When placed on Calendar, a bill or, if accompanied by a committee substitute, the committee substitute is available for floor amendment. A bill referred directly to Calendar or reported favorably by the last committee of reference by 4:30 p.m. shall be placed on Calendar that day. A list of those bills placed on Calendar and available for floor amendment shall be published by 6:00 p.m. that day or as soon thereafter as practicable. A main floor amendment must be filed by 10:00 a.m. of the second day, excluding Saturday and Sunday, following the day the bill is placed on Calendar. A substitute floor amendment or amendment to a floor amendment must be filed by 6:00 p.m. on the second day, excluding Saturday and Sunday, after the bill is placed on Calendar. For the purpose of this Rule, an amendment shall be considered timely filed if the first-named sponsor has approved the amendment for filing or has provided the amendment in substantially completed form for final completion by the Office of House Bill Drafting.

(b) A bill placed on a Special Order Calendar scheduled to be heard at a session prior to completion of the bill's 2-day amendment filing cycle shall be available for floor amendment until 2 hours prior to the session at which the bill is scheduled to be heard. Substitute amendments and amendments to floor amendments for such a bill must be filed 1 hour prior to the session at which the bill is scheduled to be heard.

12.3—Presentation and Consideration

(a) Amendments shall be taken up only as sponsors gain recognition from the Speaker to move their adoption, except that the Chair of the committee (or any member thereof designated by the Chair) reporting the measure under consideration shall have preference for the presentation of committee amendments.

(b) If a committee substitute accompanies a bill, it shall be considered as the original bill. Floor amendments shall be drawn to the committee substitute. An amendment to a pending main amendment may be received, but until it is disposed of no other motion to amend will be in order except a substitute amendment or an amendment to the substitute. Such amendments are to be disposed of in the following order:

RULE TWELVE

- (1) Amendments to the amendment are voted on before the substitute is taken up. Only one amendment to the amendment is in order at a time.
- (2) Amendments to the substitute are next voted on.
- (3) The substitute then is voted on. The adoption of a substitute amendment in lieu of an original amendment shall be treated and considered as an amendment of the bill itself.

(c) The adoption of an amendment to a section shall not preclude further amendment of that section. If a bill is being considered section by section or item by item, only amendments to the section or item under consideration shall be in order.

(d) For the purpose of this Rule, an amendment shall be deemed pending only after its proposer has been recognized by the Speaker and has moved its adoption.

12.4—Second and Third Reading; Vote Required on Third Reading

(a) A motion to amend is in order during the second or third reading of any bill.

(b) Amendments proposed on third reading shall require a two-thirds vote of the Members present and voting for adoption, except that technical amendments introduced in the name of the Subcommittee on Rules shall require a majority vote for adoption.

(c) A motion for reconsideration of an amendment on third reading requires a two-thirds vote of the Members present and voting for adoption.

12.5—Amendment of General Appropriations Bill

(a) Whenever an amendment is offered to a General Appropriations Bill that would increase any line item of such bill, such amendment shall show the amount by line item of the increase and shall, from within the jurisdiction of the same fiscal standing subcommittee, decrease a line item or items in an amount or amounts equivalent to or greater than the increase required by the amendment.

(b) A floor amendment to the General Appropriations Bill that proposes to move spending authority between sections of the bill shall require a two-thirds vote of the Members present and voting.

12.6—Consideration of Senate Amendments

(a) After the reading of a Senate amendment to a House bill, the following motions shall be in order and shall be privileged in the order named:

(1) Amend the Senate amendment by a concurrence of the majority required for the final passage of the bill

(2) Concur in the Senate amendment by a concurrence of the same majority required for the final passage of the bill

(3) Refuse by the majority of the required quorum to concur and ask the Senate to recede

(4) Request the Senate to recede and, failing to do so, to appoint a conference committee to meet with a like committee appointed by the Speaker.

(b) If the Senate refuses to concur in a House amendment to a Senate bill, the following motions shall be in order and shall be privileged in the order named:

(1) That the House recede

(2) That the House insist and ask for a conference committee

(3) That the House insist.

(c) The Speaker may, upon determining that a Senate amendment substantially changes the bill as passed by the House, refer the Senate message, with the bill and Senate amendment or amendments, to the appropriate House committee for review and report to the House. The Speaker, upon such reference, shall announce the date and time for the committee to meet. The committee shall report to the House the recommendation for disposition of the Senate amendment or amendments under one of the four options presented in subsection (a). The report shall be given to the House, in writing, by the Chair of the reporting committee.

12.7—Motion to Amend by Removing Enacting or Resolving Clause

An amendment to remove the enacting clause of a bill or the resolving clause of a resolution or memorial shall, if carried, be considered as equivalent to rejection of the bill, resolution, or memorial by the House.

12.8—Germanity of House Amendments

(a) GERMANITY

(1) Neither the House nor any committee or subcommittee shall consider an amendment that relates to a different subject or is intended to accomplish a different purpose than that of the pending question or that, if adopted and passed, would require a title amendment for the proposal that is substantially different from the proposal's original title or that would unreasonably alter the nature of the proposal.

(2) The Speaker, or the Chair in the case of an amendment offered in committee or subcommittee, shall determine the germanity of any amendment when the question is timely raised.

(3) An amendment of the second degree or a substitute amendment must be germane to both the main amendment and the measure to which it adheres.

(b) AMENDMENTS THAT ARE NOT GERMANE. House amendments that are not germane include:

(1) A general proposition amending a specific proposition

(2) An amendment amending a statute or session law when the purpose of the bill is limited to repealing such law, or an amendment repealing a statute or session law when the purpose of the bill is limited to amending such law

(3) An amendment that substantially expands the scope of the bill

(4) An amendment to a bill when legislative action on that bill is by law or these Rules limited to passage, concurrence, or nonconcurrence as introduced.

(c) AMENDMENTS THAT ARE GERMANE. Amendments that are germane include:

- (1) A specific provision amending a general provision
- (2) An amendment that accomplishes the same purpose in a different manner
- (3) An amendment limiting the scope of the proposal
- (4) An amendment providing appropriations necessary to fulfill the original intent of a proposal
- (5) An amendment that changes the effective date of a repeal, reduces the scope of a repeal, or adds a short-term nonstatutory transitional provision to facilitate repeal.

(d) WAIVER OF RULE. Waiver of this Rule shall require unanimous consent of the House.

12.9—Amendments Out of Order

An amendment is out of order if it is the principal substance of a bill that has received an unfavorable committee report, has been withdrawn from further consideration by the first-named sponsor, or has not been reported favorably by at least one committee of reference and may not be offered to a bill on the Calendar and under consideration by the House. Any amendment that is substantially the same, and identical as to specific intent and purpose, as the measure residing in the committee or committees of reference is covered by this Rule.

12.10—Printing of Amendments in Journal

All amendments taken up, unless withdrawn, shall be printed in the Journal, except that an amendment to a General Appropriations Bill constituting an entirely new bill shall not be printed until the filing of the conference committee report.

RULE THIRTEEN

The initial adoption of the Rules of the House shall require a majority vote. Once adopted, the Rules of the House shall remain in effect, unless waived or amended as provided in these Rules.

13.2—Waiver of Rules of the House

Any Rule of the House, except a Rule requiring unanimous consent, may be waived by a two-thirds vote of the Members present and voting; however, the waiver shall apply only to the matter under immediate consideration and shall not extend beyond adjournment of a session day.

13.3—Amending Rules of the House

No Rule of the House may be amended except by a report or resolution from the Subcommittee on Rules adopted by the House by majority vote. A report or resolution of the Subcommittee on Rules proposing amendments to these Rules is always in order; however, any amendment of such a report or resolution prior to its adoption requires a two-thirds vote of the Members present and voting.

13.4—Parliamentary Authorities

In all cases not provided for by the Florida Constitution, the Rules of the House, or the Joint Rules of the Senate and House, the guiding, but nonbinding, authority shall be first the Rulings of the Speaker and then the latest edition of Mason's Manual of Legislative Procedure.

13.5—Majority Action

Any person who is denied access to a legislative record and who believes that he or she is wrongfully being denied such access may appeal the decision to deny access to the Speaker.

14.2—Legislative Records; Maintenance, Control, Destruction, Disposal, and Disposition

(a) Records that are required to be created by these Rules or that are of vital, permanent, or archival value shall be maintained in a safe location that is easily accessible for convenient use. No such record need be maintained if the substance of the record is published or retained in another form or location. Whenever necessary, but no more often than annually or less often than biennially, records required to be maintained may be archived.

(c)(1) The committee administrative assistant for each existing committee shall ensure compliance with this Rule for all records created or received by the committee or for a former committee or council whose jurisdiction has been assigned to the committee.

(2) The Speaker, the Speaker pro tempore, the Minority Leader, the Majority Leader, the Majority Whip, and the Sergeant at Arms shall ensure compliance with this Rule for all records created or received by their respective offices and their predecessors in office.

RULE FIFTEEN

ETHICS AND CONDUCT OF MEMBERS

15.1—Legislative Ethics and Official Conduct

Legislative office is a trust to be performed with integrity in the public interest. A Member is respectful of the confidence placed in the Member by the other Members and by the people. By personal example and by admonition to colleagues whose behavior may threaten the honor of the lawmaking body, the Member shall watchfully guard the responsibility of office and the responsibilities and duties placed on the Member by the House. To this end, each Member shall be accountable to the House for violations of this Rule or any provision of the House Code of Conduct contained in Rules 15.1-15.7.

15.2—The Integrity of the House

A Member shall respect and comply with the law and shall perform at all times in a manner that promotes public confidence in the integrity and independence of the House and of the Legislature. Each Member shall perform at all times in a manner that promotes a professional environment in the House, which shall be free from unlawful employment discrimination.

15.3—Improper Influence; Solicitation of Campaign Contributions

(a) A Member may not accept anything that reasonably may be construed to improperly influence the Member's official act, decision, or vote.

(b) A Member may neither solicit nor accept any campaign contribution during the 60-day regular legislative session on the Member's own behalf, on behalf of a political party, or on behalf of a candidate for the House of Representatives; however, a Member may contribute to the Member's own campaign.

15.4—Ethics; Conflicting Employment

A Member shall:

(a) Scrupulously comply with the requirements of all laws related to the ethics of public officers.

RULE FIFTEEN
ETHICS AND CONDUCT OF MEMBERS

(b) Not allow personal employment to impair the Member's independence of judgment in the exercise of official duties.

(c) Not directly or indirectly receive or agree to receive any compensation for any services rendered or to be rendered either by the Member or any other person when such activity is in substantial conflict with the duties of a Member of the House.

15.5—Use of Official Position

A Member may not corruptly use or attempt to use the Member's official position in a manner contrary to the trust or authority placed in the Member, either by the public or by other Members, for the purpose of securing a special privilege, benefit, or exemption for the Member or for others.

15.6—Use of Information Obtained by Reason of Official Position

A Member may engage in business and professional activity in competition with others but may not use or provide to others, for the Member's personal gain or benefit or for the personal gain or benefit of any other person or business entity, any information that has been obtained by reason of the Member's official capacity as a Member and that is unavailable to members of the public as a matter of law.

15.7—Representation of Another Before a State Agency

A Member may not personally represent another person or entity for compensation before any state agency other than a judicial tribunal. For the purposes of this Rule, "state agency" means any entity of the legislative or executive branch of state government over which the Legislature exercises plenary budgetary and statutory control.

15.8—Advisory Opinions

(a) A Member, when in doubt about the applicability and interpretation of these Rules with respect to legislative ethics and Member conduct, may convey the facts of the situation to the House general counsel for an advisory opinion. The general counsel shall issue the opinion within ten (10) days after receiving the request. The advisory opinion may be relied upon by the Member requesting the opinion. Upon request of any Member, the committee designated by the Speaker to have responsibility for the ethical conduct of Members may revise an advisory opinion rendered by the House general counsel through an advisory opinion issued to the Member who requested the opinion.

(b) An advisory opinion rendered by the House general counsel or the committee shall be numbered, dated, and published. Advisory opinions from the House general counsel or the committee may not identify the Member seeking the opinion unless such Member so requests.

15.9—Felony Indictment or Information of a Member

(a) If an indictment or information for a felony of any jurisdiction is filed against a Member of the House, the Member indicted or informed against may request the Speaker to excuse the Member, without pay, from all privileges of membership of the House pending final adjudication.

(b) If the indictment or information is either nolle prossed or dismissed, or if the Member is found not guilty of the felonies charged, or lesser included felonies, then the Member shall be paid all back pay and other benefits retroactive to the date the Member was excused.

15.10—Felony Guilty Plea of a Member

A Member who enters a plea of guilty or nolo contendere (no contest) to a felony of any jurisdiction may, at the discretion of the Speaker, be suspended immediately, without a hearing and without pay, from all privileges of membership of the House through the remainder of that Member's term.

15.11—Felony Conviction of a Member

(a) A Member convicted of a felony of any jurisdiction may, at the discretion of the Speaker, be suspended immediately, without a hearing and without pay, from all privileges of membership of the House pending appellate action or the end of the Member's term, whichever occurs first.

(b) A Member suspended under the provisions of this Rule may, within ten (10) days after such suspension, file a written request for a hearing, setting forth specific reasons contesting the Member's suspension. Upon receipt of a written request for a hearing, the Speaker shall appoint a select committee, which shall commence a hearing on the Member's suspension within 30 days and issue a report to the House within ten (10) days after the conclusion of the hearing. The report of the select committee shall be final unless the Member, within ten (10) days after the issuance of the report, requests in writing that the Speaker convene the full House to consider the report of the select committee. Upon receipt of a request for such consideration, the Speaker shall timely convene the House for such purpose.

RULE FIFTEEN
ETHICS AND CONDUCT OF MEMBERS

(c) If the final appellate decision is to sustain the conviction, then the Member's suspension shall continue to the end of the Member's term. If the final appellate decision is to vacate the conviction and there is a rehearing, the Member shall be subject to Rule 15.9. If the final appellate decision is to vacate the conviction and no felony charges remain against the Member, the Member shall be entitled to restitution of back pay and other benefits retroactive to the date of suspension.

RULE SIXTEEN

PROCEDURES FOR LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

Part One—Committees Conducting Legal Proceedings

16.1—Procedures for Committees Conducting Legal Proceedings

(a) ISSUANCE OF SUBPOENA

(1) In order to carry out its duties, each standing or select committee, whenever required, may issue subpoena with the approval of the Speaker and other necessary process to compel the attendance of witnesses before such committee or the taking of a deposition pursuant to these Rules. The Chair of the committee shall issue such process on behalf of the committee. The Chair or any other member of such committee may administer all oaths and affirmations in the manner prescribed by law to witnesses who shall appear before such committee for the purpose of testifying in any matter about which such committee may require evidence.

(2) Each standing or select committee, whenever required, may also compel by subpoena duces tecum with the approval of the Speaker the production of any books, letters, or other documentary evidence it may need to examine in reference to any matter before it. The Chair of the standing or select committee shall issue process on behalf of the standing or select committee.

(b) CONTEMPT PROCEEDINGS

(1) The House may punish, by fine or imprisonment, any person who is not a Member and who is guilty of disorderly or contemptuous conduct in its presence or of a refusal to obey its lawful summons.

(2) A person shall be deemed in contempt if the person:

a. Fails or refuses to appear in compliance with a subpoena or, having appeared, fails or refuses to testify under oath or affirmation;

b. Fails or refuses to answer any relevant question or fails or refuses to furnish any relevant book, paper, or other document subpoenaed on behalf of such committee; or

c. Commits any other act or offense against such committee that, if committed against the Legislature or either house thereof, would constitute contempt.

RULE SIXTEEN
PROCEDURES FOR LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

(3) A standing or select committee may, by majority vote of all of its members, apply to the House for contempt citation. The application shall be considered as though the alleged contempt had been committed in or against the House itself. If such committee is meeting during the interim, its application shall be made to the circuit court pursuant to subsection (f).

(4) A person guilty of contempt under this Rule shall be fined not more than $500 or imprisoned not more than 90 days or both, or shall be subject to such other punishment as the House may, in the exercise of its inherent powers, impose prior to and in lieu of the imposition of the aforementioned penalty.

(5) The sheriffs in the several counties shall make such service and execute all process or orders when required by standing or select committees. Sheriffs shall be paid as provided for in section 30.231, Florida Statutes.

(c) FALSE SWEARING. Whoever willfully affirms or swears falsely in regard to any material matter or thing before any standing or select committee is guilty of perjury in an official proceeding, which is a felony of the third degree and shall be punished as provided in section 775.082, section 775.083, or section 775.084, Florida Statutes.

(d) RIGHTS OF WITNESSES

(1) All witnesses summoned before any standing or select committee shall receive reimbursement for travel expenses and per diem at the rates provided in section 112.061, Florida Statutes. However, the fact that such reimbursement is not tendered at the time the subpoena is served shall not excuse the witness from appearing as directed therein.

(2) Service of a subpoena requiring the attendance of a person at a meeting of a standing or select committee shall be made in the manner provided by law for the service of subpoenas in civil action at least seven (7) calendar days prior to the date of the meeting unless a shorter period of time is authorized by majority vote of all the members of such committee. If a shorter period of time is authorized, the persons subpoenaed shall be given reasonable notice of the meeting, consistent with the particular circumstances involved.

(3) Any person who is served with a subpoena to attend a meeting of any standing or select committee also shall be served with a general statement informing the person of the subject matter of such committee's investigation or inquiry and a notice that the person may be accompanied at the meeting by private counsel.

(4) Upon the request of any party and the approval of a majority of the standing or select committee, the Chair shall instruct all witnesses to leave the meeting room and retire to a designated place. The witness will be instructed by the Chair not to discuss the testimony of the witness or the testimony of any other person with anyone until the meeting has been adjourned and the witness has been discharged by the Chair. The witness shall be further instructed that if any person discusses or attempts to discuss the matter under investigation with the witness after receiving such instructions, the witness shall bring such matter to the attention of such committee. No member of such committee or representative thereof may discuss any matter or matters pertinent to the subject matter under investigation with any witness to be called before such committee from the time that these instructions are given until the meeting has been adjourned and the witness has been discharged by the Chair. Any person violating this Rule shall be in contempt of the Legislature.

(5) Any standing or select committee taking sworn testimony from witnesses as provided herein shall cause a record to be made of all proceedings in which testimony or other evidence is demanded or adduced, which record shall include rulings of the Chair, questions of such committee and its staff, the testimony or responses of witnesses, sworn written statements submitted to the committee, and such other matters as the committee or its Chair may direct.

(6) A witness at a meeting, upon advance request and at the witness's own expense, shall be furnished a certified transcript of the witness's testimony at the meeting.

(e) RIGHT OF OTHER PERSONS TO BE HEARD

(1) Any person whose name is mentioned or who is otherwise identified during a meeting being conducted for the purpose of taking sworn testimony from witnesses of any standing or select committee and who, in the opinion of such committee, may be adversely affected thereby, may, upon the request of the person or upon the request of any member of such committee, appear personally before such committee and testify on the person's own behalf, or, with such committee's consent, file a sworn written statement of facts or other documentary evidence for incorporation into the record of the meeting. Any such witness, however, shall, prior to filing such statement, consent to answer questions from such committee regarding the contents of the statement.

(2) Upon the consent of a majority of the members present, a quorum having been established, any standing or select committee may permit any other person to appear and testify at a meeting or submit a sworn written statement of facts or other documentary evidence for incorporation into the record. No request to appear, appearance, or submission shall limit in any way the committee's power of subpoena. Any such witness, however, shall, prior to filing such statement, consent to answer questions from any standing or select committee regarding the contents of the statement.

(f) ENFORCEMENT OF SUBPOENA OUT OF SESSION. If any witness fails to respond to the lawful subpoena of any standing or select committee at a time when the Legislature is not in session or, having responded, fails to answer all lawful inquiries or to turn over evidence that has been subpoenaed, such committee may file a complaint before any circuit court of the state setting up such failure on the part of the witness. On the filing of such complaint, the court shall take jurisdiction of the witness and the subject matter of the complaint and shall direct the witness to respond to all lawful questions and to produce all documentary evidence in the possession of the witness that is lawfully demanded. The failure of any witness to comply with such order of the court shall constitute a direct and criminal contempt of court, and the court shall punish such witness accordingly.

Part Two—Complaints Against Members and Officers of the House

16.2—Complaints of Violations of the Standards of Conduct by Members and Officers of the House; Procedure

(a) FILING OF COMPLAINTS. The Chair of the Subcommittee on Rules shall receive and initially review allegations of improper conduct that may reflect upon the House, violations of law, violations of the House Code of Conduct, and violations of the Rules and regulations of the House relating to the conduct of individuals in the performance of their duties as Members or officers of the House. Complaints of improper conduct against the Chair of the Subcommittee on Rules shall be reviewed and managed by the Speaker or, if designated by the Speaker, the Speaker pro tempore.

(1) Review of Complaints. The Chair of the Subcommittee on Rules shall review each complaint submitted to the committee relating to the conduct of a Member or officer of the House.

(2) Complaints

a. A complaint shall be in writing and under oath, setting forth in simple, concise statements the following:

1. The name and legal address of the party filing the complaint (complainant);

2. The name and position or title of the Member or officer of the House (respondent) alleged to be in violation of the House Code of Conduct or a law, rule, regulation, or other standard of conduct;

3. The nature of the alleged violation, based upon the personal knowledge of the complainant, including, if possible, the specific section of the House Code of Conduct or law, rule, regulation, or other standard of conduct alleged to have been violated; and

4. The facts alleged to have given rise to the violation.

b. All documents in the possession of the complainant that are relevant to, and in support of, the allegations shall be attached to the complaint.

(3) Processing Complaint and Preliminary Findings

a. Upon the filing of a complaint, the Chair shall, within five (5) working days, notify the Member or officer against whom the complaint has been filed and give such person a copy of the complaint. Within 20 days, the Chair shall take the necessary actions as provided in subparagraphs b.-g.

b. The Chair shall examine each complaint for jurisdiction and for compliance with paragraph (a)(2).

c. If the Chair determines that a complaint does not comply with such Rule, the complaint shall be returned to the complainant with a general statement that the complaint is not in compliance with such Rule and with a copy of the Rule. A complainant may resubmit a complaint, provided such complaint is resubmitted prior to the expiration of the time limitation set forth in subsection (o).

d. If the Chair determines that the verified complaint does not allege facts sufficient to constitute a violation of any of the provisions of the House Code of Conduct, or a law, rule, regulation, or other standard of conduct, the Chair shall dismiss the complaint and notify the complainant and the respondent of such action.

e. If the Chair determines that the complaint is outside the jurisdiction of the House, the Chair shall dismiss the complaint and notify the complainant and the respondent of such action.

f. If the Chair determines that a violation is inadvertent, technical, or otherwise of a de minimis nature, the Chair may attempt to correct or prevent such a violation by informal means.

g. If the Chair determines that such a complaint does allege facts sufficient to constitute a violation of any of the provisions of the House Code of Conduct, or a law, rule, regulation, or other standard of conduct, and that the complaint is not de minimis in nature, the Chair shall, within 20 days, transmit a copy of the complaint to the Speaker and, in writing, request the appointment of a Probable Cause Panel or Special Master regarding the complaint. A copy of the letter shall be provided to the complainant and the respondent.

RULE SIXTEEN

(4) Withdrawal of Complaints. A complaint may be withdrawn at any time.

(b) PROBABLE CAUSE PANEL OR SPECIAL MASTER

(1) Creation. Whenever the Speaker receives a copy of a complaint and request made pursuant to subsection (a), the Speaker shall, within 20 days, either appoint a Probable Cause Panel (the panel) consisting of an odd number of members or appoint a Special Master. If the Speaker appoints a Probable Cause Panel, the Speaker shall also appoint one member of the panel as its Chair. The Speaker may appoint up to two (2) additional persons who are not Members of the House to serve as nonvoting, public members of a Probable Cause Panel.

(2) Powers and Duties. The members of the panel or the Special Master shall have the following powers and duties:

a. Investigate complaints and make appropriate findings of fact promptly regarding allegations of improper conduct sufficient to establish probable cause of violations of law, violations of the House Code of Conduct, and violations of Rules and regulations of the House relating to the conduct of individuals in the performance of their duties as Members or as officers of the House;

b. Based upon the investigation by the Special Master or the panel, make and report findings of probable cause to the Speaker and to the House as it relates to the complaint that occasioned the appointment of the Probable Cause Panel or the Special Master;

c. Recommend to the Subcommittee on Rules such additional Rules or regulations as the Probable Cause Panel or the Special Master shall determine are necessary or desirable to ensure proper standards of conduct by Members and officers of the House in the performance of their duties and the discharge of their responsibilities; and

d. Adopt rules of procedure as appropriate.

(3) Quorum. A quorum of a Probable Cause Panel, when appointed, shall consist of a majority of the members of the panel. All action by a Probable Cause Panel shall require the concurrence of a majority of the full panel.

(4) Term. A Probable Cause Panel or Special Master, as appropriate, shall serve until the complaint that occasioned the appointment of the panel or the Special Master has been dismissed or until a finding of probable cause has been transmitted to the Speaker.

(c) PRELIMINARY INVESTIGATION AND PROBABLE CAUSE FINDING

(1) Preliminary Investigation

a. The Probable Cause Panel or the Special Master shall provide the respondent an opportunity to present to the panel, the Special Master, or the staff of the panel, orally or in writing, a statement addressing the allegations.

b. The panel, Special Master, or the staff of the panel may interview witnesses and examine documents and other evidentiary matters.

c. The panel or Special Master may order the testimony of witnesses to be taken under oath, in which event the oath may be administered by the Chair or any other member of the panel, by the Special Master, or by any person authorized by law to administer oaths.

d. The panel or Special Master may require, by subpoena issued pursuant to these Rules or otherwise, the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of such books, records, correspondence, memoranda, papers, documents, and other items as it deems necessary to the conduct of the inquiry.

(2) Probable Cause Finding

a. Findings

1. The panel, by a recorded vote of a majority of the full panel, or the Special Master, as appropriate, shall determine whether there is probable cause to conclude that a violation within the jurisdiction of the panel or the Special Master has occurred.

2. If the panel or Special Master, as appropriate, finds that probable cause does not exist, the panel or Special Master shall dismiss the complaint and notify the complainant and the respondent of its determination.

3. If the panel or Special Master, as appropriate, determines that probable cause exists to believe that a violation occurred but that the violation, if proven, is of a de minimis nature or is not sufficiently serious to justify expulsion, censure, or reprimand, the panel or Special Master may recommend an appropriate, lesser penalty or may resolve the complaint informally. If the respondent agrees, a summary of the panel's or Special Master's conclusions, as appropriate, shall be published in the House Journal and the penalty agreed upon shall be imposed. If the panel or Special Master is unable to satisfactorily settle the complaint, the complaint shall be subject to a full evidentiary hearing before the Select Committee on Standards of Official Conduct pursuant to subsection (d).

RULE SIXTEEN
PROCEDURES FOR LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

4. If the panel or Special Master determines that probable cause exists to believe that a violation occurred and that, if proven, would be sufficiently serious to justify expulsion, censure, or reprimand, the panel or Special Master shall cause to be transmitted to the respondent a Statement of Alleged Violation. The statement shall be divided into counts, and each count shall be related to a separate violation and shall contain a plain and concise statement of the alleged facts of such violation, including a reference to the provision of the House Code of Conduct or law, rule, regulation, or other standard of conduct alleged to have been violated. A copy of the statement shall also be transmitted to the Speaker.

b. Collateral Proceedings. If the complaint against a Member or officer of the House has been the subject of action before any other body, the panel or Special Master may forward the complaint directly to a hearing pursuant to subsection (d).

(d) HEARING

(1) Select Committee on Standards of Official Conduct. Upon receipt by the Speaker of a Statement of Alleged Violation, the Speaker shall appoint, within 20 days, a Select Committee on Standards of Official Conduct (the select committee) to hold hearings regarding the statement and make a recommendation for disciplinary action to the full House. Upon the receipt by the Speaker of a complaint and findings by the Commission on Ethics regarding a Member of the House, the Speaker shall appoint, within 20 days, a Select Committee on Standards of Official Conduct to hold hearings to determine whether a violation has occurred and, if so, to make a recommendation for disciplinary action to the full House.

(2) Hearing. A hearing regarding a violation charged in a Statement of Alleged Violation or in a complaint and findings by the Commission on Ethics shall be held promptly to receive evidence upon which to base findings of fact and recommendations, if any, to the House respecting such violation.

a. Chair. The Chair of the select committee or other member presiding at a hearing shall rule upon any question of admissibility of testimony or evidence presented to the select committee. Rulings shall be final unless reversed or modified by a majority vote of the members of the select committee. If the select committee appoints a referee pursuant to subsection (i), the referee shall make all evidentiary rulings.

b. Referee. The select committee shall serve as referee for all proceedings under these Rules, unless the select committee retains an independent referee pursuant to subsection (i).

c. Prosecutor. The select committee's staff shall serve as a legal advisor to the committee. The select committee may retain independent counsel pursuant to subsection (j) to serve as prosecutor in all proceedings conducted under these Rules.

d. Respondent's Rights. The respondent shall have the right to be represented by legal counsel, to call witnesses, to introduce exhibits, and to cross-examine opposing witnesses. The respondent or respondent's counsel shall be permitted to take the deposition of the complainant in accordance with sub-subparagraph (3)a.3.

e. Complainant's Rights. The complainant is not a party to any part of the complaint process or these proceedings. The complainant has no standing to challenge these Rules or procedures and has no right to appeal. The complainant may submit a list of witnesses or questions for the select committee's consideration to assist in its preparation for the hearing.

(3) Procedures

a. Procedure and Evidence

1. Procedure. The select committee may adopt rules of procedure as appropriate to its needs.

2. Evidence. Irrelevant, immaterial, or unduly repetitious evidence shall be excluded, but all other evidence of a type commonly relied upon by reasonably prudent persons in the conduct of their affairs shall be admissible, whether or not such evidence would be admissible in a trial in the courts of Florida. However, hearsay evidence may not be used unless same would be admissible under the Florida Rules of Evidence and it shall not be sufficient in itself to support a factual finding unless it would be admissible over objection in civil actions.

3. Discovery. Discovery may be permitted upon motion, which shall state the reason therefor. Discovery shall be in accordance with the Florida

RULE SIXTEEN
PROCEDURES FOR LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

Rules of Civil Procedure but may be limited in time, scope, and method by the Chair or the referee.

4. Testimony. The select committee shall order the testimony of witnesses to be taken under oath, in which event the oath may be administered by the Chair or a member of the select committee, by any referee appointed pursuant to subsection (i), or by any person authorized by law to administer oaths.

5. Subpoenas. The select committee may require, by subpoena issued pursuant to these Rules or otherwise, the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of such books, records, correspondence, memoranda, papers, documents, and other items as it deems necessary to the conduct of the inquiry.

b. Order of Hearing. The order of the full hearing before the select committee or the referee shall be as follows:

1. The Chair or the referee shall open the hearing by stating the select committee's authority to conduct the hearing, the purpose of the hearing, and its scope.

2. Testimony from witnesses and other evidence pertinent to the subject of the hearing shall be received in the following order, whenever possible: witnesses and other evidence offered by the independent counsel, witnesses and other evidence offered by the respondent, and rebuttal witnesses. The select committee may call witnesses at any time during the proceedings.

3. Witnesses at the hearing shall be examined first by the independent counsel. The respondent or the respondent's counsel may then cross-examine the witnesses. The members of the select committee may then question the witnesses. Redirect and recross may be permitted in the Chair's or the referee's discretion. With respect to witnesses offered by the respondent, a witness shall be examined first by the respondent or the respondent's counsel and then may be cross-examined by the independent counsel. Members of the select committee may then question the witness. Redirect and recross may be permitted in the Chair's or the referee's discretion. Participation by the select committee at the hearing stage is at the sole discretion of the select committee and is not mandatory.

(4) Burden of Proof. At the hearing, the burden of proof rests on the appointed independent counsel to establish the facts alleged by clear and convincing evidence with respect to each count.

(e) COMMITTEE RECOMMENDED ORDER

(1) Committee Deliberations. As soon as practicable, the select committee shall consider each count contained in a Statement of Alleged Violation or in a complaint and findings, as the case may be. A count shall not be proven unless at least a majority of the select committee votes for a motion that the count has been proved. A count that is not proved shall be considered as dismissed by the select committee.

(2) Dismissal of Complaint. After the hearing, the select committee shall, in writing, state its findings of fact. If the select committee finds that the respondent has not violated any of the provisions of the House Code of Conduct, or a law, rule, regulation, or other standard of conduct, it shall order the action dismissed and shall notify the respondent and the complainant of such action.

(3) Recommended Order

a. Recommended Order. If the select committee finds that the respondent has violated any of the provisions of the House Code of Conduct, or a law, rule, regulation, or other standard of conduct, it shall, in writing, state its findings of fact and submit a report to the House. A copy of the report shall be sent to the respondent and the complainant and shall be published in the House Journal.

b. Penalty. With respect to any violation with which a Member or officer of the House is charged in a count that the select committee has voted as proved, the select committee may recommend to the House that the Member or officer be fined, censured, reprimanded, placed on probation, or expelled, as appropriate, or may recommend such other lesser penalty as may be appropriate.

(f) PROPOSED RECOMMENDED ORDER

(1) Referee. When a hearing is conducted by referee, as provided in subsection (i), the referee shall prepare a proposed recommended order and file it, together with the record of the hearing, with the select committee. Copies of the proposed recommended order shall be served on all parties.

(2) Proposed Recommended Order. The proposed recommended order will contain the time and place of the hearing, appearances entered at the hearing, issues, and proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law.

(3) Exceptions. The respondent and the independent counsel may file written exceptions with the select committee in response to a referee's recommended order. Exceptions shall be filed within 20 days after service of the recommended order unless such time is extended by the referee or the Chair of the select committee.

RULE SIXTEEN
PROCEDURES FOR LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

(4) Recommended Order. The select committee shall deliberate and render a recommended order pursuant to the provisions of subsection (e).

(g) CONSENT DECREE. At any stage of the proceedings, the respondent and the select committee may agree to a consent decree. The consent decree shall state findings of fact and shall be published in the House Journal. The consent decree shall contain such penalty as may be appropriate. If the House accepts the consent decree, the complaint pursuant to these proceedings shall be resolved. If the House does not accept the consent decree, the proceedings before the select committee shall resume.

(h) CONFIDENTIALITY. Any material provided to the House in response to a complaint filed under this Rule that is confidential under applicable law shall remain confidential and shall not be disclosed except as authorized by applicable law. Except as otherwise provided in this section, a complaint and the records relating to a complaint shall be available for public inspection upon the dismissal of a complaint by the Chair of the Subcommittee on Rules, a determination as to probable cause or informal resolution of a complaint by a Special Master or Probable Cause Panel, or the receipt by the Speaker of a request in writing from the respondent that the complaint and other records relating to the complaint be made public records.

(i) REFEREE. The Select Committee on Standards of Official Conduct may, in its discretion and with the approval of the Speaker, employ a referee to preside over the proceedings, to hear testimony, and to make findings of fact and recommendations to the select committee concerning the disposition of complaints.

(j) INDEPENDENT COUNSEL. The Select Committee on Standards of Official Conduct is authorized to retain and compensate counsel not regularly employed by the House, as authorized by the Speaker.

(k) ATTORNEY'S FEES. When a Probable Cause Panel or a Special Master finds that probable cause does not exist or the select committee finds that the respondent has not violated any of the provisions of the House Code of Conduct or a law, rule, regulation, or other standard of conduct, the panel or Special Master or the select committee may recommend to the Speaker that the reasonable attorney's fees and costs incurred by the respondent be paid by the House. Payment of such reasonable fees and costs shall be subject to the approval of the Speaker.

(l) ELIGIBILITY; SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE. If any allegation under this Rule involves the conduct or activities of the Speaker, the duties of the Speaker pursuant to this Rule shall be transferred to the Speaker pro tempore.

(m) COLLATERAL ACTIONS

(1) Criminal Actions. Any criminal complaints relating to Members shall be governed by these Rules.

(2) Commissions or Quasi-Judicial Agencies with Concurrent Jurisdiction. If a complaint against a Member or an officer of the House is filed with a commission or quasi-judicial agency with concurrent jurisdiction, the Chair of the Subcommittee on Rules, a Probable Cause Panel or a Special Master, and the Select Committee on Standards of Official Conduct shall have the discretion to refrain from processing a similar complaint until such commission or quasi-judicial agency has completed its review of the matter. If such a complaint is filed initially with the Chair of the Subcommittee on Rules and subsequently filed with a commission or quasi-judicial agency with concurrent jurisdiction, the Chair of the Subcommittee on Rules, the panel or Special Master, and the select committee shall have the discretion to suspend their proceedings until all such commissions and agencies have completed their review of the matter.

(n) EX PARTE COMMUNICATIONS

(1) A Special Master or a member of a Probable Cause Panel or of a Select Committee on Standards of Official Conduct shall not initiate or consider any ex parte communication relative to the merits of a pending complaint proceeding by:

a. Any person engaged in prosecution or advocacy in connection with the matter; or

b. A party to the proceeding or any person who, directly or indirectly, would have a substantial interest in the action of the panel, Special Master, or select committee, or authorized representatives or counsel thereof.

(2) Except when acting in official capacity as a Special Master or as a member of a panel or select committee, a Special Master or a member of a Probable Cause Panel or of a Select Committee on Standards of Official Conduct shall not comment upon or discuss with any other person the matters that occasioned the appointment of the Special Master, panel, or select committee during the pendency of proceedings held pursuant to this Rule before the Special Master, panel, or select committee. This section shall not apply to communications initiated or considered by the Special Master or the Chair of the panel or select committee relating to a settlement pursuant to sub-subparagraph (c)(2)a.3. or to a consent decree authorized pursuant to subsection (g).

PROCEDURES FOR LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

(o) TIME LIMITATIONS

(1) On or after the effective date of these Rules, all sworn complaints alleging violation of the House Code of Conduct, including any violation of law or of the Rules and regulations of the House, shall be filed with the Subcommittee on Rules within two (2) years after the alleged violation.

(2) A violation of the House Code of Conduct is committed when every element of the Rule has occurred, and time starts to run on the day after the violation occurred.

(3) The applicable period of limitation is tolled on the day a sworn complaint against the Member or officer is filed with the Subcommittee on Rules. If it can be concluded from the face of the complaint that the applicable period of limitation has run, the allegations shall not be considered a complaint for the purpose of requiring action by the Chair of the Subcommittee on Rules. The complaint and all material related thereto shall remain confidential.

16.3—Penalties for Violations

Separately from any prosecutions or penalties otherwise provided by law, any Member determined to have violated the foregoing requirements of these Rules shall be fined, censured, reprimanded, placed on probation, or expelled, or have such other lesser penalty imposed as may be appropriate. Such determination and disciplinary action shall be taken by a two-thirds vote of the House, except that expulsions shall require two-thirds vote of the membership, upon recommendation of the select committee so designated under Rule 16.2.

Part Three—Complaints Against Lobbyists

16.4—Lobbyists

(a) OBLIGATIONS OF A LOBBYIST

(1) A lobbyist shall supply facts, information, and opinions of principals to legislators from the point of view that the lobbyist openly declares. A lobbyist shall not offer or propose anything that may reasonably be construed to improperly influence the official act, decision, or vote of a legislator, nor shall a lobbyist attempt to improperly influence the selection of officers or employees of the House. A lobbyist, by personal example and admonition to colleagues, shall maintain the honor of the legislative process by the integrity of the lobbyist's relationship with legislators as well as with the principals whom the lobbyist represents.

(2) A lobbyist shall not knowingly and willfully falsify, conceal, or cover up, by any trick, scheme, or device, a material fact or make any false, fictitious, or fraudulent statement or representation, or make or use any writing or document knowing the same to contain any false, fictitious, or fraudulent statements or entry.

(3) No registered lobbyist shall be permitted upon the floor of the House while it is in session.

(b) ADVISORY OPINIONS; COMPILATION THEREOF. A lobbyist, when in doubt about the applicability and interpretation of subsection (a) in a particular context, shall submit in writing the facts for an advisory opinion to the Speaker, who shall either refer the issue to the House general counsel for an advisory opinion or refer the issue to a committee designated by the Speaker to have responsibility for the ethical conduct of lobbyists and may appear in person before such committee. The House general counsel or this committee shall render advisory opinions to any lobbyist who seeks advice as to whether the facts in a particular case would constitute a violation of such Rule by a lobbyist. Such opinion, until amended or revoked, shall be binding in any subsequent complaint concerning the lobbyist who sought the opinion and acted on it in good faith, unless material facts were omitted or misstated in the request for advisory opinion. Upon request of the lobbyist or any Member, the committee designated by the Speaker to have responsibility for the ethical conduct of lobbyists may revise any advisory opinion issued by the House general counsel or may revise any advisory opinion issued by the general counsel of the Office of Legislative Services under Joint Rule 1.7. The House general counsel or committee shall make sufficient deletions to prevent disclosing the identity of persons in the decisions or opinions. All advisory opinions of the House general counsel or this committee shall be numbered, dated, and published in an annual publication of the House. The Clerk shall keep a compilation of all advisory opinions of the House general counsel or committee designated by the Speaker to have responsibility for the ethical conduct of lobbyists.

16.5—Complaints of Violations Relating to Lobbyists; Procedure

(a) FILING OF COMPLAINTS. The Chair of the Subcommittee on Rules shall receive and initially review allegations of violations of the Rules of the

RULE SIXTEEN
PROCEDURES FOR LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

House, Joint Rule 1, or violations of a law, rule, or other standard of conduct by a lobbyist.

(1) Review of Complaints. The Chair of the Subcommittee on Rules shall review each complaint submitted to the subcommittee relating to the conduct of a lobbyist.

(2) Complaints

a. A complaint shall be in writing and under oath, setting forth in simple, concise statements the following:

1. The name and legal address of the party filing the complaint (complainant);

2. The name and address of the lobbyist (respondent) alleged to be in violation of the Rules of the House, Joint Rule 1, or a law, rule, or other standard of conduct;

3. The nature of the alleged violation based upon the personal knowledge of the complainant, including, if possible, the specific section of the Rules of the House, Joint Rule 1, or law, rule, or other standard of conduct alleged to have been violated; and

4. The facts alleged to give rise to the violation.

b. All documents in the possession of the complainant that are relevant to, and in support of, the allegations shall be attached to the complaint.

(3) Processing Complaint and Preliminary Findings

a. Upon the filing of a complaint, the Chair shall, within five (5) working days, notify the lobbyist against whom the complaint has been filed and give such person a copy of the complaint. Within 20 days, the Chair shall take the necessary actions as provided in subparagraphs b.-g.

b. The Chair shall examine each complaint for jurisdiction and for compliance with paragraph (a)(2).

c. If the Chair determines that a complaint does not comply with such Rule, the complaint shall be returned to the complainant with a general statement that the complaint is not in compliance with such Rule and with a copy of the Rule. A complainant may resubmit a complaint, provided such complaint is resubmitted prior to the expiration of the time limitation set forth in subsection (m).

d. If the Chair determines that the verified complaint does not allege facts sufficient to constitute a violation of any of the provisions of the Rules of the House, Joint Rule 1, or a law, rule, or other standard of conduct, the Chair shall dismiss the complaint and notify the complainant and the respondent of such action.

e. If the Chair determines that the complaint is outside the jurisdiction of the House, the Chair shall dismiss the complaint and notify the complainant and the respondent of such action.

f. If the Chair determines that a violation is inadvertent, technical, or otherwise of a de minimis nature, the Chair may attempt to correct or prevent such a violation by informal means.

g. If the Chair determines that such a complaint does allege facts sufficient to constitute a violation of any of the provisions of the Rules of the House, Joint Rule 1, or a law, rule, or other standard of conduct, and that the complaint is not de minimis in nature, the Chair shall transmit a copy of the complaint to the Speaker and, in writing, request the appointment of a Probable Cause Panel or Special Master regarding the complaint. A copy of the letter shall be provided to the complainant and the respondent.

(4) Withdrawal of Complaints. A complaint may be withdrawn at any time.

(b) PROBABLE CAUSE PANEL OR SPECIAL MASTER

(1) Creation. Whenever the Speaker receives a copy of a complaint and request made pursuant to subsection (a), the Speaker shall, within 20 days, either appoint a Probable Cause Panel (the panel) consisting of an odd number of members or appoint a Special Master. If the Speaker appoints a Probable Cause Panel, the Speaker shall also appoint one member of the panel as its Chair. The Speaker may appoint up to two (2) additional persons who are not Members of the House to serve as nonvoting, public members of a Probable Cause Panel.

(2) Powers and Duties. The members of the panel or the Special Master shall have the following powers and duties:

a. Investigate complaints and make appropriate findings of fact promptly regarding allegations of improper conduct sufficient to establish probable cause of violation of the Rules of the House, Joint Rule 1, or a law, rule, or other standard of conduct;

b. Based upon the investigation by the Special Master or the panel, make and report findings of probable cause to the Speaker and to the House as it relates to the complaint that occasioned the appointment of the Probable Cause Panel or the Special Master;

RULE SIXTEEN
PROCEDURES FOR LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

c. Recommend to the Subcommittee on Rules such additional Rules or regulations as the Probable Cause Panel or the Special Master shall determine are necessary or desirable to ensure proper standards of conduct by lobbyists; and

d. Adopt rules of procedure as appropriate to its needs.

(3) Quorum. A quorum of a Probable Cause Panel, when appointed, shall consist of a majority of the members of the panel. All action by a Probable Cause Panel shall require the concurrence of a majority of the full panel.

(4) Term. A Probable Cause Panel or Special Master, as appropriate, shall serve until the complaint that occasioned the appointment of the panel or the Special Master has been dismissed or until a finding of probable cause has been transmitted to the Speaker.

(c) PRELIMINARY INVESTIGATION AND PROBABLE CAUSE FINDING

(1) Preliminary Investigation

a. The Probable Cause Panel or the Special Master shall provide the respondent an opportunity to present to the panel, the Special Master, or staff of the panel, orally or in writing, a statement addressing the allegations.

b. The panel, Special Master, or the staff of the panel may interview witnesses and examine documents and other evidentiary matters.

c. The panel or Special Master may order the testimony of witnesses to be taken under oath, in which event the oath may be administered by the Chair or any other member of the panel, by the Special Master, or by any person authorized by law to administer oaths.

d. The panel or Special Master may require, by subpoena issued pursuant to these Rules or otherwise, the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of such books, records, correspondence, memoranda, papers, documents, and other items as it deems necessary to the conduct of the inquiry.

(2) Probable Cause Finding

a. The panel, by a recorded vote of a majority of the full panel, or the Special Master, as appropriate, shall determine whether there is probable cause to conclude that a violation within the jurisdiction of the panel or the Special Master has occurred.

b. If the panel or Special Master, as appropriate, finds that probable cause does not exist, the panel or Special Master shall dismiss the complaint and notify the complainant and the respondent of its determination.

c. If the panel or Special Master, as appropriate, determines that probable cause exists to believe that a violation occurred but that the violation, if proven, is of a de minimis nature or is not sufficiently serious to justify the imposition of a penalty pursuant to Rule 16.6, the panel or Special Master may recommend an appropriate, lesser penalty or may resolve the complaint informally. If the respondent agrees, a summary of the panel's or Special Master's conclusions, as appropriate, shall be published in the House Journal and the penalty agreed upon shall be imposed. If the panel or Special Master is unable to satisfactorily settle the complaint, the complaint shall be subject to a full evidentiary hearing before the Select Committee on Lobbyist Conduct pursuant to subsection (d).

d. If the panel or Special Master determines that probable cause exists to believe that a violation occurred and that, if proven, would be sufficiently serious to justify imposition of a penalty pursuant to Rule 16.6, the panel or Special Master shall cause to be transmitted to the respondent a Statement of Alleged Violation. The statement shall be divided into counts, and each count shall be related to a separate violation and shall contain a plain and concise statement of the alleged facts of such violation, including a reference to the provision of the Rules of the House, Joint Rule 1, or law, rule, or other standard of conduct alleged to have been violated. A copy of the statement shall also be transmitted to the Speaker.

(d) HEARING

(1) Select Committee on Lobbyist Conduct. Upon receipt by the Speaker of a Statement of Alleged Violation, the Speaker shall appoint, within 20 days, a Select Committee on Lobbyist Conduct (the select committee) to hold hearings regarding the statement and make a recommendation for disciplinary action to the full House.

(2) Hearing. A hearing regarding a violation charged in a Statement of Alleged Violation shall be held promptly to receive evidence upon which to base findings of fact and recommendations, if any, to the House respecting such violation. The hearing before the select committee shall be subject to Rule 7.14.

a. Chair. The Chair of the select committee or other member presiding at a hearing shall rule upon any question of admissibility of testimony or evidence presented to the select committee. Rulings shall be final unless reversed or modified by a majority vote of the members of the select committee. If the select committee appoints a referee pursuant to subsection (i), the referee shall make all evidentiary rulings.

RULE SIXTEEN
PROCEDURES FOR LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

b. Referee. The select committee shall serve as referee for all proceedings under these Rules, unless the select committee retains an independent referee pursuant to subsection (i).

c. Prosecutor. The select committee's staff shall serve as prosecutor in all proceedings conducted under these Rules, unless the select committee retains independent counsel pursuant to subsection (j).

d. Respondent's Rights. The respondent shall have the right to be represented by legal counsel, to call witnesses, to introduce exhibits, and to cross-examine opposing witnesses. The respondent or respondent's counsel shall be permitted to take the deposition of the complainant in accordance with sub-subparagraph (3)a.3.

e. Complainant's Rights. The complainant is not a party to any part of the complaint process or these proceedings. The complainant has no standing to challenge these Rules or procedures and has no right to appeal. The complainant may submit a list of witnesses or questions for the select committee's consideration to assist in its preparation for the hearing.

(3) Procedures

a. Procedure and Evidence

1. Procedure. The select committee may adopt rules of procedure as appropriate to its needs.

2. Evidence. Irrelevant, immaterial, or unduly repetitious evidence shall be excluded, but all other evidence of a type commonly relied upon by reasonably prudent persons in the conduct of their affairs shall be admissible, whether or not such evidence would be admissible in a trial in the courts of Florida. However, hearsay evidence may not be used unless same would be admissible under the Florida Rules of Evidence and it shall not be sufficient in itself to support a factual finding unless it would be admissible over objection in civil actions.

3. Discovery. Discovery may be permitted upon motion, which shall state the reason therefor. Discovery shall be in accordance with the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure, but may be limited in time, scope, and method by the Chair or the referee.

4. Testimony. The select committee shall order the testimony of witnesses to be taken under oath, in which event the oath may be administered by the Chair or a member of the select committee, by any referee appointed pursuant to subsection (i), or by any person authorized by law to administer oaths.

5. Subpoenas. The select committee may require, by subpoena issued pursuant to these Rules or otherwise, the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of such books, records, correspondence, memoranda, papers, documents, and other items as it deems necessary to the conduct of the inquiry.

b. Order of Hearing. The order of the full hearing before the select committee or the referee shall be as follows:

1. The Chair or the referee shall open the hearing by stating the select committee's authority to conduct the hearing, the purpose of the hearing, and its scope.

2. Testimony from witnesses and other evidence pertinent to the subject of the hearing shall be received in the following order, whenever possible: witnesses and other evidence offered by the select committee's staff or the independent counsel, witnesses and other evidence offered by the respondent, and rebuttal witnesses. The select committee may call witnesses at any time during the proceedings.

3. Witnesses at the hearing shall be examined first by the select committee's staff or the independent counsel. The respondent or the respondent's counsel may then cross-examine the witnesses. The members of the select committee may then question the witnesses. Redirect and recross may be permitted in the Chair's or the referee's discretion. With respect to witnesses offered by the respondent, a witness shall be examined first by the respondent or the respondent's counsel, and then may be cross-examined by the select committee's staff or the independent counsel. Members of the select committee may then question the witness. Redirect and recross may be permitted in the Chair's or the referee's discretion. Participation by the select committee at the hearing stage is at the sole discretion of the select committee and is not mandatory.

(4) Burden of Proof. At the hearing, the burden of proof rests on the select committee's staff or the appointed independent counsel to establish the facts alleged by clear and convincing evidence with respect to each count.

(e) COMMITTEE RECOMMENDED ORDER

(1) Committee Deliberations. As soon as practicable, the select committee shall consider each count contained in a Statement of Alleged

RULE SIXTEEN
PROCEDURES FOR LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

Violation. A count shall not be proven unless at least a majority of the select committee votes for a motion that the count has been proven. A count that is not proven shall be considered as dismissed by the select committee.

(2) Dismissal of Complaint. After the hearing, the select committee shall, in writing, state its findings of fact. If the select committee finds that the respondent has not violated any of the provisions of the Rules of the House, Joint Rule 1, or a law, rule, or other standard of conduct, it shall order the action dismissed and shall notify the respondent and the complainant of such action.

(3) Recommended Order

a. Recommended Order. If the select committee finds that the respondent has violated any of the provisions of the Rules of the House, Joint Rule 1, or a law, rule, or other standard of conduct, it shall, in writing, state its findings of fact and submit a report to the House. A copy of the report shall be sent to the respondent and the complainant and shall be published in the House Journal.

b. Penalty. With respect to any violation with which a lobbyist is charged in a count that the select committee has voted as proven, the select committee may recommend to the House that the lobbyist be censured, reprimanded, or prohibited from lobbying for all or any part of the legislative biennium during which the violation occurred, or such other penalty as may be appropriate.

(f) PROPOSED RECOMMENDED ORDER

(1) Referee. When a hearing is conducted by referee, as provided in subsection (i), the referee shall prepare a proposed recommended order and file it, together with the record of the hearing, with the select committee. Copies of the proposed recommended order shall be served on all parties.

(2) Proposed Recommended Order. The proposed recommended order shall contain the time and place of the hearing, appearances entered at the hearing, issues, and proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law.

(3) Exceptions. The respondent and the independent counsel may file written exceptions with the select committee in response to a referee's recommended order. Exceptions shall be filed within 20 days after service of the recommended order unless such time is extended by the referee or the Chair of the select committee.

(4) Recommended Order. The select committee shall deliberate and render a recommended order pursuant to the provisions of subsection (e).

(g) CONSENT DECREE. At any stage of the proceedings, the respondent and the select committee may agree to a consent decree. The consent decree shall state findings of fact and shall be published in the House Journal. The consent decree shall contain such penalty as may be appropriate. If the House accepts the consent decree, the complaint pursuant to these proceedings shall be resolved. If the House does not accept the consent decree, the proceedings before the select committee shall resume.

(h) CONFIDENTIALITY. Any material provided to the House in response to a complaint filed under this Rule that is confidential under applicable law shall remain confidential and shall not be disclosed except as authorized by applicable law. Except as otherwise provided in this section, a complaint and the records relating to a complaint shall be available for public inspection upon the dismissal of a complaint by the Chair of the Subcommittee on Rules, a determination as to probable cause or informal resolution of a complaint by a Special Master or Probable Cause Panel, or the receipt by the Speaker of a request in writing from the respondent that the complaint and other records relating to the complaint be made public records.

(i) REFEREE. The Select Committee on Lobbyist Conduct may, in its discretion and with the approval of the Speaker, employ a referee to preside over the proceedings, to hear testimony, and to make findings of fact and recommendations to the select committee concerning the disposition of complaints.

(j) INDEPENDENT COUNSEL. The Select Committee on Lobbyist Conduct is authorized to retain and compensate counsel not regularly employed by the House, as authorized by the Speaker.

(k) ELIGIBILITY; SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE. If any allegation under this Rule involves the conduct or activities of the Speaker, the duties of the Speaker pursuant to this Rule shall be transferred to the Speaker pro tempore.

(l) EX PARTE COMMUNICATIONS

(1) A Special Master or a member of a Probable Cause Panel or of a Select Committee on Lobbyist Conduct shall not initiate or consider any ex parte communication relative to the merits of a pending complaint proceeding by:

a. Any person engaged in prosecution or advocacy in connection with the matter; or

RULE SIXTEEN
PROCEDURES FOR LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

b. A party to the proceeding or any person who, directly or indirectly, would have a substantial interest in the action of the panel, Special Master or select committee, or authorized representatives or counsel thereof.

(2) Except when acting in official capacity as a Special Master or as a member of a panel or select committee, a Special Master or a member of a Probable Cause Panel or of a Select Committee on Lobbyist Conduct shall not comment upon or discuss with any other person the matters that occasioned the appointment of the Special Master, panel, or select committee during the pendency of proceedings held pursuant to this Rule before the Special Master, panel, or select committee. This section shall not apply to communications initiated or considered by the Special Master or the Chair of the panel or select committee relating to a settlement pursuant to subparagraph (c)(2)c. or to a consent decree authorized pursuant to subsection (g).

(m) TIME LIMITATIONS

(1) On or after the effective date of these Rules, all sworn complaints alleging violation of the Rules of the House, Joint Rule 1, or any law, rule, or other standard of conduct by a lobbyist shall be filed with the Subcommittee on Rules within two (2) years after the alleged violation.

(2) A violation of the Rules of the House is committed when every element of the Rule has occurred, and time starts to run on the day after the violation occurred.

(3) The applicable period of limitation is tolled on the day a sworn complaint against the lobbyist is filed with the Subcommittee on Rules. If it can be concluded from the face of the complaint that the applicable period of limitation has run, the allegations shall not be considered a complaint for the purpose of requiring action by the Chair of the Subcommittee on Rules. The complaint and all material related thereto shall remain confidential.

16.6—Penalties for Violations

Separately from any prosecutions or penalties otherwise provided by law, any person determined to have violated the foregoing requirements of these Rules, any provision in Joint Rule 1 adopted by the House and the Senate, or any law, rule, or other standard of conduct by a lobbyist may be reprimanded, censured, prohibited from lobbying for all or any part of the legislative biennium during which the violation occurred, or have such other penalty imposed as may be appropriate. Such determination shall be made by a majority of the House, upon recommendation of the select committee so designated under Rule 16.5.

JOINT RULES

Joint Rule One

Lobbyist Registration and Reporting

1.1—Those Required to Register; Exemptions; Committee Appearance Records

(1) All lobbyists before the Florida Legislature must register with the Lobbyist Registration Office in the Division of Legislative Information Services of the Office of Legislative Services, referred to in Joint Rule One as the Lobbyist Registration Office. Registration is required for each principal represented.

(2) As used in this rule, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) “Designated lobbyist” means the lobbyist who is appointed, by a principal represented by two or more lobbyists, to file expenditure reports that include lobbying expenditures made directly by the principal.

(b) “Legislative action” means introduction, sponsorship, testimony, debate, voting, or any other official action on any measure, resolution, amendment, nomination, appointment, or report of, or any matter which may be the subject of action by, either house of the Legislature or any committee thereof.

(c) “Lobby” or “lobbying” means influencing or attempting to influence legislative action or nonaction through oral or written communication or an attempt to obtain the goodwill of a member or employee of the Legislature.

(d) “Lobbyist” means a person who is employed and receives payment, or who contracts for economic consideration, for the purpose of lobbying, or a person who is principally employed for governmental affairs by another person or governmental entity to lobby on behalf of that other person or governmental entity. An employee of the principal is not a “lobbyist” unless the employee is principally employed for governmental affairs. “Principally employed for governmental affairs” means that one of the principal or most significant responsibilities of the employee to the employer is overseeing the employer’s various relationships with government or representing the employer in its contacts with government. Any person employed by any executive, judicial, or quasi-judicial department of the state or any community college of the state who seeks to encourage the passage, defeat, or modification of any legislation by personal appearance or attendance before the House of Representatives or the Senate, or any member or committee thereof, is a lobbyist.

(e) “Payment” or “salary” means wages or any other consideration provided in exchange for services, but does not include reimbursement for expenses.

(f) “Principal” means the person, firm, corporation, or other entity that has employed or retained a lobbyist. When an association has employed or retained a lobbyist, the association is the principal; the individual members of the association are not principals merely because of their membership in the association.

(3) For purposes of this rule, the terms “lobby” and “lobbying” do not include any of the following:

(a) Response to an inquiry for information made by any member, committee, or staff of the Legislature.

(b) An appearance in response to a legislative subpoena.

(c) Advice or services that arise out of a contractual obligation with the Legislature, a member, a committee, any staff, or any legislative entity to render the advice or services where such obligation is fulfilled through the use of public funds.

(d) Representation of a client before the House of Representatives or the Senate, or any member or committee thereof, when the client is subject to disciplinary action by the House of Representatives or the Senate, or any member or committee thereof.

(4) For purposes of registration and reporting, the term “lobbyist” does not include any of the following:

(a) A member of the Legislature.

(b) A person who is employed by the Legislature.

(c) A judge who is acting in that judge’s official capacity.

(d) A person who is a state officer holding elective office or an officer of a political subdivision of the state holding elective office and who is acting in that officer’s official capacity.

(e) A person who appears as a witness or for the purpose of providing information at the written request of the chair of a committee, subcommittee, or legislative delegation.

(f) A person employed by any executive, judicial, or quasi-judicial department of the state or community college of the state who makes a personal appearance or attendance before the House of Representatives or the Senate, or any member or committee thereof, while that person is on approved leave or outside normal working hours, and who does not otherwise meet the definition of lobbyist.

(5) When a person, whether or not the person is registered as a lobbyist, appears before a committee of the Legislature, that person must submit a Committee Appearance Record on a form to be provided by the respective house.

1.2—Method of Registration

(1) Each person who is required to register under Joint Senate and House Rule 1.1 must register on forms furnished by the Lobbyist Registration Office, on which that person must state, under oath, that person's full legal name, driver's license number, business address, and phone number, the name and business address of each principal that person represents, the areas of that person's legislative interest, and the extent of any direct business association or partnership that person has with any member of the Legislature. The Lobbyist Registration Office or its designee is authorized to acknowledge the oath of any person who registers in person. Any changes to the information provided in the registration form must be reported to the Lobbyist Registration Office in writing within 15 days on forms furnished by the Lobbyist Registration Office.

(2) Any person required to register must do so with respect to each principal prior to commencement of lobbying on behalf of that principal. At the time of registration, the registrant shall provide a statement signed by the principal or principal's representative that the registrant is authorized to represent the principal. Any person required to register must renew the registration annually, in accordance with Joint Senate and House Rule 1.3.

(3) If a principal is represented by two or more lobbyists, the first lobbyist who registers to represent that principal shall be the designated lobbyist. The principal may change its designated lobbyist at any time in writing on forms furnished by the Lobbyist Registration Office. Upon termination of the designated lobbyist's representation, the principal shall notify the Lobbyist Registration Office within 15 days, on forms furnished by the office, of the appointment of a new designated lobbyist.

(4) A lobbyist shall promptly send a notice to the Lobbyist Registration Office, on forms furnished by the Lobbyist Registration Office, cancelling the registration for a principal upon termination of the lobbyist's representation of that principal. A notice of cancellation takes effect the day it is received by the Lobbyist Registration Office. Notwithstanding this requirement, the Lobbyist Registration Office may remove the name of a lobbyist from the list of registered lobbyists if the principal notifies the Lobbyist Registration Office that the lobbyist is no longer authorized to represent that principal. Each lobbyist shall file an expenditure report for each period during any portion of which he or she was registered, and each principal shall ensure that an expenditure report is filed for each period during any portion of which the principal was represented by a registered lobbyist.

(5) The Lobbyist Registration Office shall publish on the first Monday of each regular session and weekly thereafter through the end of that session a compilation of the names of persons who have registered and the information contained in their registrations.

(6) The Lobbyist Registration Office shall retain all original documents submitted under this section.

(7) A person who is required to register under this rule, or who chooses to register, shall be considered a lobbyist of the Legislature for the purposes of sections 112.3148 and 112.3149, Florida Statutes, relating to the reporting of and the prohibited receipt of gifts and honoraria.

1.3—Registration Costs; Exemptions

(1) To cover the costs incurred in administering this joint policy, each person who registers under Joint Senate and House Rule 1.1 must pay an annual registration fee to the Lobbyist Registration Office. The annual period runs from January 1 to December 31. These fees must be paid at the time of registration.

(2) The following persons are exempt from paying the fee, provided they are designated in writing by the agency head or person designated in this subsection:

(a) Two employees of each department of the executive branch created under chapter 20, Florida Statutes.

(b) Two employees of the Fish and Wildlife Conservation Commission.

(c) Two employees of the Executive Office of the Governor.

(d) Two employees of the Commission on Ethics.

(e) Two employees of the Florida Public Service Commission.

(f) Two employees of the judicial branch designated in writing by the Chief Justice of the Florida Supreme Court.

(3) The annual fee is up to $50 per each house for a person to register to represent one principal and up to an additional $10 per house for each additional principal that the person registers to represent. The amount of each fee shall be established annually by the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives. The fees set shall be adequate to ensure operation of the lobbyist registration and reporting operations of the Lobbyist Registration Office. The fees collected by the Lobbyist Registration Office under this joint policy shall be deposited in the State Treasury and credited to the Legislative Lobbyist Registration Trust Fund specifically to cover the costs incurred in administering this joint policy.

1.4—Periodic Reports Required

(1) REPORTING DATES.—Each person who registers pursuant to Joint Senate and House Rule 1.2 must submit to the Lobbyist Registration Office, on forms provided by the Lobbyist Registration Office and for each reporting period required by this rule, a signed and certified statement listing all lobbying expenditures during the reporting period and the sources of funds for those expenditures as required in this rule. Reporting statements shall be filed no later than 45 days after the end of the reporting period. Only two reports are required each calendar year. The first report shall disclose expenditures made from January 1 through June 30. The second report shall disclose expenditures for July 1 through December 31. It is the intent of this rule that each reporting period be separate from the other reporting period and that each expenditure be reported just once. In addition, any reporting statement may be filed by electronic means, when feasible.

(2) TIMELINESS OF REPORTS.—Reports shall be filed not later than 5 p.m. of the report due date. However, any report that is postmarked by the United States Postal Service no later than midnight of the due date shall be deemed to have been filed in a timely manner. A certificate of mailing obtained from and dated by the United States Postal Service at the time of the mailing, or a receipt from an established courier company which bears a date on or before the due date, shall be proof of mailing in a timely manner.

(3) LOBBYIST'S EXPENDITURE REPORT.—

(a) The Lobbyist's Expenditure Report shall include the name of the lobbyist and the name of the principal on whom the report is prepared. Expenditures for the reporting period shall be reported by the following categories: Food and Beverages; Entertainment; Research; Communications; Media Advertising; Publications; Travel; Lodging; Special Events; and Other. For each expenditure category, the report must identify the amount paid directly by the lobbyist, directly by the principal, initiated or expended by the lobbyist and paid for by the principal, or initiated or expended by the principal and paid for by the lobbyist. Forms shall be provided by the Lobbyist Registration Office.

(b) A lobbyist shall file a Lobbyist's Expenditure Report for each principal represented.

(c) When a principal has two or more lobbyists, the designated lobbyist will be responsible for filing a report that discloses the expenditures made directly by the principal and the expenditures of the designated lobbyist on behalf of the principal. The designated lobbyist is responsible for making a good faith effort to obtain the figures reported as lobbying expenditures made by the principal.

(d) When there are multiple lobbyists, only the designated lobbyist is to report expenditures made directly by the principal. When there are multiple lobbyists, only unduplicated amounts should be reported for expenditures initiated or expended by the lobbyist and paid for by the principal.

(e) The principal is responsible for the accuracy of the figures submitted to the lobbyist for reporting, and the lobbyist is responsible for the accuracy of the figures reported as lobbying expenditures made by that lobbyist. The principal shall sign the expenditure report submitted by the principal's sole or designated lobbyist.

(4) EXPENDITURES.—

(a) Definitions.—

1. "Expenditure" means a payment, distribution, loan, advance, reimbursement, deposit, or anything of value made or controlled, directly or indirectly, by a lobbyist or principal for the purpose of lobbying. Expenditures shall be accounted for and reported on an accrual accounting basis.

2. "Accrual accounting basis" means the method of accounting that recognizes expenses during the period in which they are incurred regardless of when they are actually paid.

(b) Goodwill expenditures.—An expenditure shall be considered to have been intended to be for the purpose of engendering goodwill if it is a gift, an entertainment, any food or beverage, or any other item or service of similar personal benefit to a member or an employee of the Legislature, unless the member or employee is a relative of the lobbyist. A relative is an individual who is related to the member or employee as father, mother, son, daughter, brother, sister, uncle, aunt, first cousin, nephew, niece, husband, wife, father-in-law, mother-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, brother-in-law, sister-in-law, stepfather, stepmother, stepson, stepdaughter, stepbrother, stepsister, half brother, half sister, grandparent, great grandparent, grandchild, great grandchild, step grandparent, step great grandparent, step grandchild, or step great grandchild; any person who is engaged to be married to the member or employee or who otherwise holds himself or herself out as or is generally known as the person whom the member or employee intends to marry or with whom the member or employee intends to form a household; or any other natural person having the same legal residence as the member or employee.

(c) Expenditure categories.—Each reporting individual shall make a good faith effort to report an expenditure and to report it in the appropriate category. If an expenditure fits in two or more categories, it shall be reported in the category to which the expense primarily relates. When an expenditure is not within any defined category, it should be reported in the “Other” category. The categories of expenditures used in this rule are as follows:

1.a. “Communications” means dissemination of information, including, but not limited to, by means of the following:

- I. Audio-visual materials; and
- II. Signs, placards, banners, buttons, promotional materials, and other display materials; together with any associated production services.

b. This category does not include media advertising, publications, or research.

2. “Entertainment” means amusement or recreation, including, but not limited to, sporting, hunting, fishing, theatrical, artistic, cultural, and musical activities or events.

3. “Food and Beverages” means meals, snacks or other edible substances, or liquids for drinking, including services associated therewith.

4. “Lodging” means sleeping or living accommodations for an individual for one or more nights.

5. “Media Advertising” means newspaper and magazine advertising, radio and television advertising, and outdoor advertising, including production services and copyrighting services.

6. “Other” means any item or service that is not included within one of the specified categories, but does not include any item or service that is not required by law to be reported.

7. “Publications” means mass-produced, printed materials, including, but not limited to, magazines, newsletters, brochures, or pamphlets, which expressly encourage persons to communicate with members or employees of the Legislature to influence the official actions of members or employees of the Legislature or which are designed to communicate with members or employees of the Legislature.

8. “Research” means procurement of information relating to a specific issue, regardless of the form or medium in which that information is provided, including, but not limited to, surveys, bill-tracking services, information services, periodicals, and consultants or consultant services to gather data or statistics.

9. “Special Events” means large-scale occurrences, including, but not limited to, receptions, banquets, dinners, or legislative days, to which more than 250 persons are invited and for which the expenditures associated with hosting the occurrence are negotiated with a catering service or facility at a single, set price or which include multiple expenditure categories.

10. “Travel” means transporting an individual from one place to another, regardless of the means used.

(d) Items that are not expenditures.—The term “expenditure” does not include:

1. Contributions or expenditures reported pursuant to chapter 106, Florida Statutes; campaign-related personal services provided without compensation by individuals volunteering their time; or any other contribution or expenditure by a political party.

2. A lobbyist’s or principal’s salary, office expenses, and personal expenses for lodging, meals, and travel. If the principal is a firm, corporation, association, or person, other than a natural person, the office expenses of the entity and the salaries of the officers of the entity, as well as expenses for their lodging, meals, and travel, are not lobbying expenditures. Office expenses include, but are not limited to, payment or obligation for rent or mortgage, utilities, postage, telephone service, employees’ salaries, furniture, copies, computers, software, paper supplies, and custodial or maintenance services. Communications, publications, and research are office expenses if performed or produced by the lobbyist or principal or their employees. If those functions are performed by independent contractors, other than the lobbyist or principal or an affiliate controlled by the principal, they are expenditures reportable under the appropriate expenditure category.

3. If an expense is incurred for a nonlobbying business purpose and the product of that expense is later used for a lobbying purpose, a reportable expenditure is not created.

(e) Valuation of expenditures.—

1. In calculating the amount of aggregate expenditures, a lobbyist or principal may, prior to prorating, round each entry up or down to the nearest $5. A record is not required to be maintained for any amount that rounds to zero.

2. The amount to be reported for an expenditure shall be determined using the actual cost to the lobbyist or principal or other person making the payment on behalf of the lobbyist or principal, less any compensation received by such lobbyist or principal in payment for the object of the expenditure. If a lobbyist or principal makes a contribution to an expenditure by another lobbyist or principal, the person making the contribution shall report the amount of the contribution as an expenditure, and the person receiving the contribution shall subtract the value of the contribution from the expenditure to be reported by that person.

3. When a lobbyist has multiple principals, expenditures made for the purpose of engendering goodwill that are not attributable to one principal may be prorated among the lobbyist's principals or may be attributed to one principal.

4. When a lobbyist has multiple principals, expenditures for research or other expenditures that may benefit several principals may be reported to the principal for whom the research was done or other expenditures incurred or prorated to those principals that may benefit from the research or other expenditures.

5. The amount reported as an expenditure shall not include the amount of any additional expenses that are required as a condition precedent to eligibility to make an expenditure if the amount expended for the condition precedent is primarily intended to be for a purpose other than lobbying or if it is paid to a charitable organization. If the amount expended for the condition precedent is primarily intended to be for a lobbying purpose and is not paid to a charitable organization, the total amount of the expenditure shall be reported as a lobbying expenditure. Initiation fees, membership fees, and booster fees are examples, although not exclusive examples, of additional expenses that are regularly required as conditions precedent for eligibility to make other expenditures.

6. A person providing transportation in a private automobile shall be considered to be making an expenditure at the rate of 29 cents per mile, and the amount of an expenditure made for transportation provided in other private conveyances shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of section 112.3148(7), Florida Statutes.

7. A person providing lodging in a private residence shall be considered to be making an expenditure of $29 per night.

8. Expenditures made for more than one person may be attributed, on a pro rata basis, among all of the persons for whom the expenditure is made.

(5) AGGREGATION OF EXPENDITURE FIGURES.—For each reporting period, the Lobbyist Registration Office shall aggregate the expenditures reported by all of the lobbyists for a principal represented by more than one lobbyist. Following the last report for each calendar year, the Lobbyist Registration Office shall provide a total of expenditures reported as spent by and on behalf of each principal for that calendar year.

1.5—Penalties for Late Filing

(1) Upon determining that a report is late, the person designated to review the timeliness of reports shall immediately notify the lobbyist as to the failure to timely file the report and that a fine is being assessed for each late day. The fine shall be $50 per day per report for each late day, not to exceed $5,000 per report.

(2) Upon receipt of the report, the person designated to review the timeliness of reports shall determine the amount of the fine due based upon the earliest of the following:

- (a) When a report is actually received by the lobbyist registration and reporting office;
- (b) When the report is postmarked;
- (c) When the certificate of mailing is dated; or
- (d) When the receipt from an established courier company is dated.

(3) Such fine shall be paid within 30 days after the notice of payment due is transmitted by the Lobbyist Registration Office, unless appeal is made to the Lobbyist Registration Office. The moneys shall be deposited into the Legislative Lobbyist Registration Trust Fund.

(4) A fine shall not be assessed against a lobbyist the first time any reports for which the lobbyist is responsible are not timely filed. However, to receive this one-time fine waiver, all reports for which the lobbyist is responsible must be filed within 30 days after notice that any reports have not been timely filed is transmitted by the Lobbyist Registration Office. A fine shall be assessed for any subsequent late-filed reports.

(5) A lobbyist, a lobbyist's legal representative, or the principal of a lobbyist may request that the filing of an expenditure report be waived upon good cause shown, based on unusual circumstances. The request must be filed with the General Counsel of the Office of Legislative Services, who shall make a recommendation concerning the waiver request to the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives. The President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives may grant or deny the request. The registration of a lobbyist who fails to timely pay a fine is automatically suspended until the fine is paid or waived.

(6) The person designated to review the timeliness of reports shall notify the director of the division of the failure of a lobbyist to file a report after notice or of the failure of a lobbyist to pay the fine imposed.

1.6—Appeal of Fines; Hearings; Unusual Circumstances

(1) A lobbyist wishing to appeal or dispute a fine imposed in accordance with Joint Senate and House Rule 1.5 shall file with the Lobbyist Registration Office a notice of appeal within 30 days after the notice of payment due is transmitted by the Lobbyist Registration Office, setting out with specificity the unusual circumstances surrounding the failure to file on the designated due date. A request for a hearing on the matter before the General Counsel of the Office of Legislative Services must be made within the same 30-day period. The notice of appeal may be accompanied by any documentation or evidence supporting the claim. Failure to timely file a notice of appeal as described in this subsection shall constitute a waiver of the right to appeal or to dispute a fine.

(2) The President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives may waive the fine in whole or in part for good cause shown based on the unusual circumstances presented by the lobbyist.

(3) The term "unusual circumstances" for the purposes of this rule means uncommon, rare, or sudden events over which the person has no control and which directly result in the failure to meet the filing requirements.

(4) The Department of Banking and Finance shall collect any fine that is not timely paid.

1.7—Questions Regarding Registration

(1) A person may request in writing an informal opinion from the general counsel of the Office of Legislative Services as to the application of this rule to a specific situation. The general counsel shall issue the opinion within 10 days after receiving the request. The informal opinion may be relied upon by the person who requested the informal opinion. A copy of each informal opinion which is issued shall be provided to the presiding officer of each house. The committees designated under section 11.045(4), Florida Statutes, may revise any informal opinion rendered by the general counsel through an advisory opinion to the person who requested the informal opinion. The advisory opinion shall supersede the informal opinion as of the date the advisory opinion is issued.

(2) Persons in doubt about the applicability or interpretation of this rule may submit in writing the facts for an advisory opinion to the committee of either house designated pursuant to section 11.045(4), Florida Statutes, and may appear in person before the committee in accordance with section 11.045(4), Florida Statutes.

1.8—Open Records

All of the lobbyist registration and expenditure reports received by the Lobbyist Registration Office shall be available for public inspection and for duplication at reasonable cost.

1.9—Records Retention and Inspection

Each lobbyist and each principal shall preserve for a period of 4 years all accounts, bills, receipts, computer records, books, papers, and other documents and records necessary to substantiate lobbying expenditures. Upon receipt of a complaint based upon the personal knowledge of the complainant made pursuant to the Senate Rules or Rules of the House of Representatives, any such documents and records may be inspected when authorized by the President of the Senate or the Speaker of the House of Representatives, as applicable. The person authorized to perform the inspection shall be designated in writing and shall be a member of The Florida Bar or a certified public accountant licensed in Florida. Any information obtained by such an inspection may only be used for purposes authorized by law, this rule, Senate Rules, or Rules of the House of Representatives, which purposes may include the imposition of sanctions against a person subject to this rule or Senate Rules or the Rules of the House of Representatives. Any employee who uses that information for an unauthorized purpose is subject to discipline. Any member who uses that information for an unauthorized purpose is subject to discipline under the applicable rules of each house. The right of inspection may be enforced by appropriate writ issued by any court of competent jurisdiction.

2.2—General Appropriations Bill; Definition

For the purposes of Joint Rule 2, the term “general appropriations bill” means a bill which provides for the salaries of public officers and other current expenses of the state and contains no subject other than appropriations. CONSTITUTION OF THE STATE OF FLORIDA

AS REVISED IN 1968 AND SUBSEQUENTLY AMENDED

The Constitution of the State of Florida as revised in 1968 consisted of certain revised articles as proposed by three joint resolutions which were adopted during the special session of June 24-July 3, 1968, and ratified by the electorate on November 5, 1968, together with one article carried forward from the Constitution of 1885, as amended. The articles proposed in House Joint Resolution 1-2X constituted the entire revised constitution with the exception of Articles V, VI, and VIII. Senate Joint Resolution 4-2X proposed Article VI, relating to suffrage and elections. Senate Joint Resolution 5-2X proposed a new Article VIII, relating to local government. Article V, relating to the judiciary, was carried forward from the Constitution of 1885, as amended.

Sections composing the 1968 revision have no history notes. Subsequent changes are indicated by notes appended to the affected sections. The indexes appearing at the beginning of each article, notes appearing at the end of various sections, and section and subsection headings are added editorially and are not to be considered as part of the constitution..

PREAMBLE

We, the people of the State of Florida, being grateful to Almighty God for our constitutional liberty, in order to secure its benefits, perfect our government, insure domestic tranquility, maintain public order, and guarantee equal civil and political rights to all, do ordain and establish this constitution.

If the county is not known, the indictment or information may charge venue in two or more counties conjunctively and proof that the crime was committed in that area shall be sufficient; but before pleading the accused may elect in which of those counties the trial will take place. Venue for prosecution of crimes committed beyond the boundaries of the state shall be fixed by law.

(b) Victims of crime or their lawful representatives, including the next of kin of homicide victims, are entitled to the right to be informed, to be present, and to be heard when relevant, at all crucial stages of criminal proceedings, to the extent that these rights do not interfere with the constitutional rights of the accused.

Any method of execution shall be allowed, unless prohibited by the United States Constitution. Methods of execution may be designated by the legislature, and a change in any method of execution may be applied retroactively. A sentence of death shall not be reduced on the basis that a method of execution is invalid. In any case in which an execution method is declared invalid, the death sentence shall remain in force until the sentence can be lawfully executed by any valid method. This section shall apply retroactively.

On each reading, it shall be read by title only, unless one-third of the members present desire it read in full. On final passage, the vote of each member voting shall be entered on the journal. If during that period or on the seventh day the legislature adjourns sine die or takes a recess of more than thirty days, the governor shall have fifteen consecutive days from the date of presentation to act on the bill. In all cases except general appropriation bills, the veto shall extend to the entire bill. The governor may veto any specific appropriation in a general appropriation bill, but may not veto any qualification or restriction without also vetoing the appropriation to which it relates.

(b) When a bill or any specific appropriation of a general appropriation bill has been vetoed, the governor shall transmit signed objections thereto to the house in which the bill originated if in session. If that house is not in session, the governor shall file them with the custodian of state records, who shall lay them before that house at its next regular or special session, whichever occurs first, and they shall be entered on its journal. If the originating house votes to re-enact a vetoed measure, whether in a regular or special session, and the other house does not consider or fails to re-enact the vetoed measure, no further consideration by either house at any subsequent session may be taken. If a vetoed measure is presented at a special session and the originating house does not consider it, the measure will be available for consideration at any intervening special session and until the end of the next regular session.

(c) If each house shall, by a two-thirds vote, re-enact the bill or reinstate the vetoed specific appropriation of a general appropriation bill, the vote of each member voting shall be entered on the respective journals, and the bill shall become law or the specific appropriation reinstated, the veto notwithstanding.

For purposes of this section, discipline is defined as any or all of the following: reprimand, fine, suspension with or without pay, or lawyer discipline. The commission shall have jurisdiction over justices and judges regarding allegations that misconduct occurred before or during service as a justice or judge if a complaint is made no later than one year following service as a justice or judge. The commission shall have jurisdiction regarding allegations of incapacity during service as a justice or judge. The commission shall be composed of:

(1) The supreme court may accept, reject, or modify in whole or in part the findings, conclusions, and recommendations of the commission and it may order that the justice or judge be subjected to appropriate discipline, or be removed from office with termination of compensation for willful or persistent failure to perform judicial duties or for other conduct unbecoming a member of the judiciary demonstrating a present unfitness to hold office, or be involuntarily retired for any permanent disability that seriously interferes with the performance of judicial duties. Malafides, scienter or moral turpitude on the part of a justice or judge shall not be required for removal from office of a justice or judge whose conduct demonstrates a present unfitness to hold office. After the filing of a formal proceeding and upon request of the investigative panel, the supreme court may suspend the justice or judge from office, with or without compensation, pending final determination of the inquiry.

(2) The supreme court may award costs to the prevailing party.

Sec.

1. Taxation; appropriations; state expenses; state revenue limitation.
2. Taxes; rate.
3. Taxes; exemptions.
4. Taxation; assessments.
5. Estate, inheritance and income taxes.
6. Homestead exemptions.
7. Allocation of pari-mutuel taxes.
8. Aid to local governments.
9. Local taxes.
10. Pledging credit.
11. State bonds; revenue bonds.
12. Local bonds.
13. Relief from illegal taxes.
14. Bonds for pollution control and abatement and other water facilities.

16. Bonds for housing and related facilities.
17. Bonds for acquiring transportation right-of-way or for constructing bridges.
18. Laws requiring counties or municipalities to spend funds or limiting their ability to raise revenue or receive state tax revenue.

SECTION 1. Taxation; appropriations; state expenses; state revenue limitation.—

(a) No tax shall be levied except in pursuance of law. No state ad valorem taxes shall be levied upon real estate or tangible personal property. All other forms of taxation shall be preempted to the state except as provided by general law.

(b) Motor vehicles, boats, airplanes, trailers, trailer coaches and mobile homes, as defined by law, shall be subject to a license tax for their operation in the amounts and for the purposes prescribed by law, but shall not be subject to ad valorem taxes.

(c) No money shall be drawn from the treasury except in pursuance of appropriation made by law.

(d) Provision shall be made by law for raising sufficient revenue to defray the expenses of the state for each fiscal period.

(e) Except as provided herein, state revenues collected for any fiscal year shall be limited to state revenues allowed under this subsection for the prior fiscal year plus an adjustment for growth. As used in this subsection, "growth" means an amount equal to the average annual rate of growth in Florida personal income over the most recent twenty quarters times the state revenues allowed under this subsection for the prior fiscal year. For the 1995-1996 fiscal year, the state revenues allowed under this subsection for the prior fiscal year shall equal the state revenues collected for the 1994-1995 fiscal year. Florida personal income shall be determined by the legislature, from information available from the United States Department of Commerce or its successor on the first day of February prior to the beginning of the fiscal year. State revenues collected for any fiscal year in excess of this limitation shall be transferred to the budget stabilization fund until the fund reaches the maximum balance specified in Section 19(g) of Article III, and thereafter shall be refunded to taxpayers as provided by general law. The vote may not be taken less than seventy-two hours after the third reading of the bill. For purposes of this subsection, "state revenues" means taxes, fees, licenses, and charges for services imposed by the legislature on individuals, businesses, or agencies outside state government. However, "state revenues" does not include: revenues that are necessary to meet the requirements set forth in documents authorizing the issuance of bonds by the state; revenues that are used to provide matching funds for the federal Medicaid program with the exception of the revenues used to support the Public Medical Assistance Trust Fund or its successor program and with the exception of state matching funds used to fund elective expansions made after July 1, 1994; proceeds from the state lottery returned as prizes; receipts of the Florida Hurricane Catastrophe Fund; balances carried forward from prior fiscal years; taxes, licenses, fees, and charges for services imposed by local, regional, or school district governing bodies; or revenue from taxes, licenses, fees, and charges for services required to be imposed by any amendment or revision to this constitution after July 1, 1994. An adjustment to the revenue limitation shall be made by general law to reflect the fiscal impact of transfers of responsibility for the funding of governmental functions between the state and other levels of government. The legislature shall, by general law, prescribe procedures necessary to administer this subsection.

History.—Am. H.J.R. 2053, 1994; adopted 1994.

SECTION 2. Taxes; rate.—All ad valorem taxation shall be at a uniform rate within each taxing unit, except the taxes on intangible personal property may be at different rates but shall never exceed two mills on the dollar of assessed value; provided, as to any obligations secured by mortgage, deed of trust, or other lien on real estate wherever located, an intangible tax of not more than two mills on the dollar may be levied by law to be in lieu of all other intangible assessments on such obligations.

SECTION 3. Taxes; exemptions.—

(a) All property owned by a municipality and used exclusively by it for municipal or public purposes shall be exempt from taxation. A municipality, owning property outside the municipality, may be required by general law to make payment to the taxing unit in which the property is located. Such portions of property as are used predominantly for educational, literary, scientific, religious or charitable purposes may be exempted by general law from taxation.

(b) There shall be exempt from taxation, cumulatively, to every head of a family residing in this state, household goods and personal effects to the value fixed by general law, not less than one thousand dollars, and to every widow or widower or person who is blind or totally and permanently disabled, property to the value fixed by general law not less than five hundred dollars.

(c) Any county or municipality may, for the purpose of its respective tax levy and subject to the provisions of this subsection and general law, grant community and economic development ad valorem tax exemptions to new businesses and expansions of existing businesses, as defined by general law. Such an exemption may be granted only by ordinance of the county or municipality, and only after the electors of the county or municipality voting on such question in a referendum authorize the county or municipality to adopt such ordinances. An exemption so granted shall apply to improvements to real property made by or for the use of a new business and improvements to real property related to the expansion of an existing business and shall also apply to tangible personal property of such new business and tangible personal property related to the expansion of an existing business. The amount or limits of the amount of such exemption shall be specified by general law. The period of time for which such exemption may be granted to a new business or expansion of an existing business shall be determined by general law. The authority to grant such exemption shall expire ten years from the date of approval by the electors of the county or municipality, and may be renewable by referendum as provided by general law.

¹(d) By general law and subject to conditions specified therein, there may be granted an ad valorem tax exemption to a renewable energy source device and to real property on which such device is installed and operated, to the value fixed by general law not to exceed the original cost of the device, and for the period of time fixed by general law not to exceed ten years.

(e) Any county or municipality may, for the purpose of its respective tax levy and subject to the provisions of this subsection and general law, grant historic preservation ad valorem tax exemptions to owners of historic properties. This exemption may be granted only by ordinance of the county or municipality. The amount or limits of the amount of this exemption and the requirements for eligible properties must be specified by general law. The period of time for which this exemption may be granted to a property owner shall be determined by general law.

Note.—This subsection, originally designated (c) by S.J.R. 15-E, 1980, was redesignated (d) by the editors in order to avoid confusion with subsection (c) as contained in S.J.R. 9-E, 1980. cf.—s. 19, Art. XII Schedule.

SECTION 4. Taxation; assessments.—By general law regulations shall be prescribed which shall secure a just valuation of all property for ad valorem taxation, provided:

(a) Agricultural land, land producing high water recharge to Florida's aquifers, or land used exclusively for noncommercial recreational purposes may be classified by general law and assessed solely on the basis of character or use.

(b) Pursuant to general law tangible personal property held for sale as stock in trade and livestock may be valued for taxation at a specified percentage of its value, may be classified for tax purposes, or may be exempted from taxation.

(c) All persons entitled to a homestead exemption under Section 6 of this Article shall have their homestead assessed at just value as of January 1 of the year following the effective date of this amendment. This assessment shall change only as provided herein.

(1) Assessments subject to this provision shall be changed annually on January 1st of each year; but those changes in assessments shall not exceed the lower of the following:

a. Three percent (3%) of the assessment for the prior year.

b. The percent change in the Consumer Price Index for all urban consumers, U.S. City Average, all items 1967=100, or successor reports for the preceding calendar year as initially reported by the United States Department of Labor, Bureau of Labor Statistics.

(2) No assessment shall exceed just value.

(3) After any change of ownership, as provided by general law, homestead property shall be assessed at just value as of January 1 of the following year. Thereafter, the homestead shall be assessed as provided herein.

(4) New homestead property shall be assessed at just value as of January 1st of the year following the establishment of the homestead. That assessment shall only change as provided herein.

(5) Changes, additions, reductions, or improvements to homestead property shall be assessed as provided for by general law; provided, however, after the adjustment for any change, addition, reduction, or improvement, the property shall be assessed as provided herein.

(6) In the event of a termination of homestead status, the property shall be assessed as provided by general law.

(7) The provisions of this amendment are severable. If any of the provisions of this amendment shall be held unconstitutional by any court of competent jurisdiction, the decision of such court shall not affect or impair any remaining provisions of this amendment.

(d) The legislature may, by general law, for assessment purposes and subject to the provisions of this subsection, allow counties and municipalities to authorize by ordinance that historic property may be assessed solely on the basis of character or use. Such character or use assessment shall apply only to the jurisdiction adopting the ordinance. The requirements for eligible properties must be specified by general law.

(e) A county may, in the manner prescribed by general law, provide for a reduction in the assessed value of homestead property to the extent of any increase in the assessed value of that property which results from the construction or reconstruction of the property for the purpose of providing living quarters for one or more natural or adoptive grandparents or parents of the owner of the property or of the owner's spouse if at least one of the grandparents or parents for whom the living quarters are provided is 62 years of age or older. Such a reduction may not exceed the lesser of the following:

(1) The increase in assessed value resulting from construction or reconstruction of the property.

(2) Twenty percent of the total assessed value of the property as improved.

C.S. for H.J.R. 317, 2002; adopted 2002.

SECTION 5. Estate, inheritance and income taxes.—

(a) NATURAL PERSONS. No tax upon estates or inheritances or upon the income of natural persons who are residents or citizens of the state shall be levied by the state, or under its authority, in excess of the aggregate of amounts which may be allowed to be credited upon or deducted from any similar tax levied by the United States or any state.

(b) OTHERS. No tax upon the income of residents and citizens other than natural persons shall be levied by the state, or under its authority, in excess of 5% of net income, as defined by law, or at such greater rate as is authorized by a three-fifths ($\frac{3}{5}$) vote of the membership of each house of the legislature or as will provide for the state the maximum amount which may be allowed to be credited against income taxes levied by the United States and other states. There shall be exempt from taxation not less than five thousand dollars (\$5,000) of the excess of net income subject to tax over the maximum amount allowed to be credited against income taxes levied by the United States and other states.

(c) EFFECTIVE DATE. This section shall become effective immediately upon approval by the electors of Florida.

History.—Am. H.J.R. 7-B, 1971; adopted 1971.

SECTION 6. Homestead exemptions.—

(a) Every person who has the legal or equitable title to real estate and maintains thereon the permanent residence of the owner, or another legally or naturally dependent upon the owner, shall be exempt from taxation thereon, except assessments for special benefits, up to the assessed valuation of five thousand dollars, upon establishment of right thereto in the manner prescribed by law. The real estate may be held by legal or equitable title, by the entireties, jointly, in common, as a condominium, or indirectly by stock ownership or membership representing the owner's or member's proprietary interest in a corporation owning a fee or a leasehold initially in excess of ninety-eight years.

(b) Not more than one exemption shall be allowed any individual or family unit or with respect to any residential unit. No exemption shall exceed the value of the real estate assessable to the owner or, in case of ownership through stock or membership in a corporation, the value of the proportion which the interest in the corporation bears to the assessed value of the property.

(c) By general law and subject to conditions specified therein, the exemption shall be increased to a total of twenty-five thousand dollars of the assessed value of the real estate for each school district levy. By general law and subject to conditions specified therein, the exemption for all other levies may be increased up to an amount not exceeding ten thousand dollars of the assessed value of the real estate if the owner has attained age sixty-five or is totally and permanently disabled and if the owner is not entitled to the exemption provided in subsection (d).

However, such increase shall not apply with respect to any assessment roll until such roll is first determined to be in compliance with the provisions of section 4 by a state agency designated by general law. This subsection shall stand repealed on the effective date of any amendment to section 4 which provides for the assessment of homestead property at a specified percentage of its just value.

(e) By general law and subject to conditions specified therein, the Legislature may provide to renters, who are permanent residents, ad valorem tax relief on all ad valorem tax levies. Such ad valorem tax relief shall be in the form and amount established by general law.

(f) The legislature may, by general law, allow counties or municipalities, for the purpose of their respective tax levies and subject to the provisions of general law, to grant an additional homestead tax exemption not exceeding twenty-five thousand dollars to any person who has the legal or equitable title to real estate and maintains thereon the permanent residence of the owner and who has attained age sixty-five and whose household income, as defined by general law, does not exceed twenty thousand dollars. Pledging credit.—Neither the state nor any county, school district, municipality, special district, or agency of any of them, shall become a joint owner with, or stockholder of, or give, lend or use its taxing power or credit to aid any corporation, association, partnership or person; but this shall not prohibit laws authorizing:

- (a) the investment of public trust funds;
- (b) the investment of other public funds in obligations of, or insured by, the United States or any of its instrumentalities;

If any project so financed, or any part thereof, is occupied or operated by any private corporation, association, partnership or person pursuant to contract or lease with the issuing body, the property interest created by such contract or lease shall be subject to taxation to the same extent as other privately owned property.

(d) a municipality, county, special district, or agency of any of them, being a joint owner of, giving, or lending or using its taxing power or credit for the joint ownership, construction and operation of electrical energy generating or

(a) State bonds pledging the full faith and credit of the state may be issued only to finance or refinance the cost of state fixed capital outlay projects authorized by law, and purposes incidental thereto, upon approval by a vote of the electors; provided state bonds issued pursuant to this subsection may be refunded without a vote of the electors at a lower net average interest cost rate. The total outstanding principal of state bonds issued pursuant to this subsection shall never exceed fifty percent of the total tax revenues of the state for the two preceding fiscal years, excluding any tax revenues held in trust under the provisions of this constitution.

(b) Moneys sufficient to pay debt service on state bonds as the same becomes due shall be appropriated by law.

(c) Any state bonds pledging the full faith and credit of the state issued under this section or any other section of this constitution may be combined for the purposes of sale.

(d) Revenue bonds may be issued by the state or its agencies without a vote of the electors to finance or refinance the cost of state fixed capital outlay projects authorized by law, and purposes incidental thereto, and shall be payable solely from funds derived directly from sources other than state tax revenues.

(e) Bonds pledging all or part of a dedicated state tax revenue may be issued by the state in the manner provided by general law to finance or refinance the acquisition and improvement of land, water areas, and related property interests and resources for the purposes of conservation, outdoor recreation, water resource development, restoration of natural systems, and historic preservation.

(f) Each project, building, or facility to be financed or refinanced with revenue bonds issued under this section shall first be approved by the Legislature by an act relating to appropriations or by general law.

History.—Am. C.S. for C.S. for S.J.R. 612, 1984; adopted 1984; Am. proposed by Constitution Revision Commission, Revision No. 5, 1998, filed with the Secretary of State May 5, 1998; adopted 1998.

SECTION 12. Local bonds.—Counties, school districts, municipalities, special districts and local governmental bodies with taxing powers may issue bonds, certificates of indebtedness or any form of tax anticipation certificates,

SECTION 13. Relief from illegal taxes.—

Until payment of all taxes which have been legally assessed upon the property of the same owner, no court shall grant relief from the payment of any tax that may be illegal or illegally assessed.

SECTION 14. Bonds for pollution control and abatement and other water facilities.—

(a) When authorized by law, state bonds pledging the full faith and credit of the state may be issued without an election to finance the construction of air and water pollution control and abatement and solid waste disposal facilities and other water facilities authorized by general law (herein referred to as “facilities”) to be operated by any municipality, county, district or authority, or any agency thereof (herein referred to as “local governmental agencies”), or by any agency of the State of Florida. Such bonds shall be secured by a pledge of and shall be payable primarily from all or any part of revenues to be derived from operation of such facilities, special assessments, rentals to be received under lease-purchase agreements herein provided for, any other revenues that may be legally available for such purpose, including revenues from other facilities, or any combination thereof (herein collectively referred to as “pledged revenues”), and shall be additionally secured by the full faith and credit of the State of Florida.

(b) No such bonds shall be issued unless a state fiscal agency, created by law, has made a determination that in no state fiscal year will the debt service requirements of the bonds proposed to be issued and all other bonds secured by the pledged revenues exceed seventy-five per cent of the pledged revenues.

(c) The state may lease any of such facilities to any local governmental agency, under lease-purchase agreements for such periods and under such other terms and conditions as may be mutually agreed upon. The local governmental agencies may pledge the revenues derived from such leased facilities or any other available funds for the payment of rentals thereunder; and, in addition, the full faith and credit and taxing power of such local governmental agencies may be pledged for the payment of such rentals without any election of freeholder electors or qualified electors.

(d) The state may also issue such bonds for the purpose of loaning money to local governmental agencies, for the construction of such facilities to be owned or operated by any of such local governmental agencies. Such loans shall bear interest at not more than one-half of one per cent per annum greater than the last preceding issue of state bonds pursuant to this section, shall be secured by the pledged revenues, and may be additionally secured by the full faith and credit of the local governmental agencies.

(e) The total outstanding principal of state bonds issued pursuant to this section 14 shall never exceed fifty per cent of the total tax revenues of the state for the two preceding fiscal years.

History.—C.S. for H.J.R.'s 3853, 4040, 1970; adopted 1970; Am. H.J.R. 1471, 1980; adopted 1980.

SECTION 15. Revenue bonds for scholarship loans.—

(a) When authorized by law, revenue bonds may be issued to establish a fund to make loans to students determined eligible as prescribed by law and who have been admitted to attend any public or private institutions of higher learning, junior colleges, health related training institutions, or vocational training centers, which are recognized or accredited under terms and conditions prescribed by law. Revenue bonds issued pursuant to this section shall be secured by a pledge of and shall be payable primarily from payments of interest, principal, and handling charges to such fund from the recipients of the loans and, if authorized by law, may be additionally secured by student fees and by any other moneys in such fund. There shall be established from the proceeds of each issue of revenue bonds a reserve account in an amount equal to and sufficient to pay the greatest amount of principal, interest, and handling charges to become due on such issue in any ensuing state fiscal year.

(b) Interest moneys in the fund established pursuant to this section, not required in any fiscal year for payment of debt service on then outstanding revenue bonds or for maintenance of the reserve account, may be used for educational loans to students determined to be eligible therefor in the manner provided by law, or for such other related purposes as may be provided by law.

History.—Added, H.J.R. 46-D, 1971; adopted 1972.

SECTION 16. Bonds for housing and related facilities.—

(a) When authorized by law, revenue bonds may be issued without an election to finance or refinance housing and related facilities in Florida, herein referred to as "facilities."

(b) The bonds shall be secured by a pledge of and shall be payable primarily from all or any part of revenues to be derived from the financing, operation or sale of such facilities, mortgage or loan payments, and any other revenues or assets that may be legally available for such purposes derived from sources other than ad valorem taxation, including revenues from other facilities, or any combination thereof, herein collectively referred to as "pledged revenues," provided that in no event shall the full faith and credit of the state be pledged to secure such revenue bonds.

(c) No bonds shall be issued unless a state fiscal agency, created by law, has made a determination that in no state fiscal year will the debt service requirements of the bonds proposed to be issued and all other bonds secured by the same pledged revenues exceed the pledged revenues available for payment of such debt service requirements, as defined by law.

History.—Added, S.J.R. 6-E, 1980; adopted 1980. cf.—s. 18, Art. XII Schedule.

SECTION 17. Bonds for acquiring transportation right-of-way or for constructing bridges.—

(a) When authorized by law, state bonds pledging the full faith and credit of the state may be issued, without a vote of the electors, to finance or refinance the cost of acquiring real property or the rights to real property for state roads as defined by law, or to finance or refinance the cost of state bridge construction, and purposes incidental to such property acquisition or state bridge construction.

(b) Bonds issued under this section shall be secured by a pledge of and shall be payable primarily from motor fuel or special fuel taxes, except those defined in Section 9(c) of Article XII, as provided by law, and shall additionally be secured by the full faith and credit of the state.

(c) No bonds shall be issued under this section unless a state fiscal agency, created by law, has made a determination that in no state fiscal year will the debt service requirements of the bonds proposed to be issued and all other bonds secured by the same pledged revenues exceed ninety percent of the pledged revenues available for payment of such debt service requirements, as defined by law. For the purposes of this subsection, the term "pledged revenues" means all revenues pledged to the payment of debt service, excluding any pledge of the full faith and credit of the state.

History.—Added, C.S. for C.S. for S.J.R. 391, 1988; adopted 1988.

SECTION 18. Laws requiring counties or municipalities to spend funds or limiting their ability to raise revenue or receive state tax revenue.—

(a) No county or municipality shall be bound by any general law requiring such county or municipality to spend funds or to take an action requiring the expenditure of funds unless the legislature has determined that such law fulfills an important state interest and unless: funds have been appropriated that have been estimated at the time of enactment to be sufficient to fund such expenditure; the legislature authorizes or has authorized a county or municipality to enact a funding source not available for such county or municipality on February 1, 1989, that can be used to generate the amount of funds estimated to be sufficient to fund such expenditure by a simple majority vote of the governing body of such county or municipality; the law requiring such expenditure is approved by two-thirds of the membership in each house of the legislature; the expenditure is required to comply with a law that applies to all persons similarly situated, including the state and local governments; or the law is either required to comply with a federal requirement or required for eligibility for a federal entitlement, which federal requirement specifically contemplates actions by counties or municipalities for compliance.

(b) Except upon approval of each house of the legislature by two-thirds of the membership, the legislature may not enact, amend, or repeal any general law if the anticipated effect of doing so would be to reduce the authority that municipalities or counties have to raise revenues in the aggregate, as such authority exists on February 1, 1989.

(c) Except upon approval of each house of the legislature by two-thirds of the membership, the legislature may not enact, amend, or repeal any general law if the anticipated effect of doing so would be to reduce the percentage of a state tax shared with counties and municipalities as an aggregate on February 1, 1989. The provisions of this subsection shall not apply to enhancements enacted after February 1, 1989, to state tax sources, or during a fiscal emergency declared in a written joint proclamation issued by the president of the senate and the speaker of the house of representatives, or where the legislature provides additional state-shared revenues which are anticipated to be sufficient to replace the anticipated aggregate loss of state-shared revenues resulting from the reduction of the percentage of the state tax shared with counties and municipalities, which source of replacement revenues shall be subject to the same requirements for repeal or modification as provided herein for a state-shared tax source existing on February 1, 1989.

(d) Laws adopted to require funding of pension benefits existing on the effective date of this section, criminal laws, election laws, the general appropriations act, special appropriations acts, laws reauthorizing but not expanding then-existing statutory authority, laws having insignificant fiscal impact, and laws creating, modifying, or repealing noncriminal infractions, are exempt from the requirements of this section.

(e) The legislature may enact laws to assist in the implementation and enforcement of this section.

(d) COUNTY OFFICERS. There shall be elected by the electors of each county, for terms of four years, a sheriff, a tax collector, a property appraiser, a supervisor of elections, and a clerk of the circuit court; except, when provided by county charter or special law approved by vote of the electors of the county, any county officer may be chosen in another manner therein specified, or any county office may be abolished when all the duties of the office prescribed by general law are transferred to another office. When not otherwise provided by county charter or special law approved by vote of the electors, the clerk of the circuit court shall be ex officio clerk of the board of county commissioners, auditor, recorder and custodian of all county funds.

(e) COMMISSIONERS. Except when otherwise provided by county charter, the governing body of each county shall be a board of county commissioners composed of five or seven members serving staggered terms of four years. One commissioner residing in each district shall be elected as provided by law.

(f) NON-CHARTER GOVERNMENT. Counties not operating under county charters shall have such power of self-government as is provided by general or special law. The board of county commissioners of a county not operating under a charter may enact, in a manner prescribed by general law, county ordinances not inconsistent with general or special law, but an ordinance in conflict with a municipal ordinance shall not be effective within the municipality to the extent of such conflict.

(g) CHARTER GOVERNMENT. Counties operating under county charters shall have all powers of local self-government not inconsistent with general law, or with special law approved by vote of the electors. The county seat may not be moved except as provided by general law. Branch offices for the conduct of county business may be established elsewhere in the county by resolution of the governing body of the county in the manner prescribed by law. No instrument shall be deemed recorded until filed at the county seat, or a branch office designated by the governing body of the county for the recording of instruments, according to law.

SECTION 3. Consolidation.—The government of a county and the government of one or more municipalities located therein may be consolidated into a single government which may exercise any and all powers of the county and the several municipalities. The consolidation plan may be proposed only by special law, which shall become effective if approved by vote of the electors of the county, or of the county and municipalities affected, as may be provided in the plan. Consolidation shall not extend the territorial scope of taxation for the payment of pre-existing debt except to areas whose residents receive a benefit from the facility or service for which the indebtedness was incurred.

SECTION 4. Transfer of powers.—By law or by resolution of the governing bodies of each of the governments affected, any function or power of a county, municipality or special district may be transferred to or contracted to be performed by another county, municipality or special district, after approval by vote of the electors of the transferor and approval by vote of the electors of the transferee, or as otherwise provided by law.

SECTION 5. Local option.—

(a) Local option on the legality or prohibition of the sale of intoxicating liquors, wines or beers shall be preserved to each county. The status of a county with respect thereto shall be changed only by vote of the electors in a special election called upon the petition of twenty-five per cent of the electors of the county, and not sooner than two years after an earlier election on the same question. Where legal, the sale of intoxicating liquors, wines and beers shall be regulated by law.

(b) Each county shall have the authority to require a criminal history records check and a 3 to 5-day waiting period, excluding weekends and legal holidays, in connection with the sale of any firearm occurring within such county. For purposes of this subsection, the term "sale" means the transfer of money or other valuable consideration for any firearm when any part of the transaction is conducted on property to which the public has the right of access. The Legislature shall, from time to time, determine what portion of said municipality is a rural area, and a homestead in such rural area shall not be limited as if in a city or town. Such municipality may exercise all the powers of a municipal corporation and shall also be recognized as one of the legal political divisions of the State with the duties and obligations of a county and shall be entitled to all the powers, rights and privileges, including representation in the State Legislature, which would accrue to it if it were a county. All property of Duval County and of the municipalities in said county shall vest in such municipal corporation when established as herein provided. Adequate provision shall be made by law for a uniform, efficient, safe, secure, and high quality system of free public schools that allows students to obtain a high quality education and for the establishment, maintenance, and operation of institutions of higher learning and other public education programs that the needs of the people may require. To assure that children attending public schools obtain a high quality education, the legislature shall make adequate provision to ensure that, by the beginning of the 2010 school year, there are a sufficient number of classrooms so that:

(1) The maximum number of students who are assigned to each teacher who is teaching in public school classrooms for prekindergarten through grade 3 does not exceed 18 students;

(2) The maximum number of students who are assigned to each teacher who is teaching in public school classrooms for grades 4 through 8 does not exceed 22 students; and

SECTION 21. Limiting cruel and inhumane confinement of pigs during pregnancy.—Inhumane treatment of animals is a concern of Florida citizens. To prevent cruelty to certain animals and as recommended by The Humane Society of the United States, the people of the State of Florida hereby limit the cruel and inhumane confinement of pigs during pregnancy as provided herein.

(a) It shall be unlawful for any person to confine a pig during pregnancy in an enclosure, or to tether a pig during pregnancy, on a farm in such a way that she is prevented from turning around freely.

On and after the effective date of this section, law enforcement officers in the state are authorized to enforce the provisions of this section in the same manner and authority as if a violation of this section constituted a violation of Section 828.13, Florida Statutes (1999). The confinement or tethering of each pig shall constitute a separate offense. The knowledge or acts of agents and employees of a person in regard to a pig owned, farmed or in the custody of a person, shall be held to be the knowledge or act of such person.

(e) It is the intent of this section that implementing legislation is not required for enforcing any violations hereof.

(a) ADDITIONAL SECURITIES.

(1) ¹Article IX, Section 17, of the Constitution of 1885, as amended, as it existed immediately before this Constitution, as revised in 1968, became effective, is adopted by this reference as a part of this revision as completely as though incorporated herein verbatim, except revenue bonds, revenue certificates or other evidences of indebtedness hereafter issued thereunder may be issued by the agency of the state so authorized by law.

(2) That portion of ²Article XII, Section 9, Subsection (a) of this Constitution, as amended, which by reference adopted ³Article XII, Section 19 of the Constitution of 1885, as amended, as the same existed immediately before the effective date of this amendment is adopted by this reference as part of this revision as completely as though incorporated herein verbatim, for the purpose of providing that after the effective date of this amendment all of the proceeds of the revenues derived from the gross receipts taxes, as therein defined, collected in each year shall be applied as provided therein to the extent necessary to comply with all obligations to or for the benefit of holders of bonds or certificates issued before the effective date of this amendment or any refundings thereof which are secured by such gross receipts taxes. No bonds or other obligations may be issued pursuant to the provisions of ³Article XII, Section 19, of the Constitution of 1885, as amended, but this provision shall not be construed to prevent the refunding of any such outstanding bonds or obligations pursuant to the provisions of this subsection (a)(2).

Subject to the requirements of the first paragraph of this subsection (a)(2), beginning July 1, 1975, all of the proceeds of the revenues derived from the gross receipts taxes collected from every person, including municipalities, as provided and levied pursuant to the provisions of chapter 203, Florida Statutes, as such chapter is amended from time to time, shall, as collected, be placed in a trust fund to be known as the “public education capital outlay and debt service trust fund” in the state treasury (hereinafter referred to as “capital outlay fund”), and used only as provided herein.

The capital outlay fund shall be administered by the state board of education as created and constituted by Section 2 of Article IX of the Constitution of Florida as revised in 1968 (hereinafter referred to as “state board”), or by such other instrumentality of the state which shall hereafter succeed by law to the powers, duties and functions of the state board, including the powers, duties and functions of the state board provided in this subsection (a)(2). The state board shall be a body corporate and shall have all the powers provided herein in addition to all other constitutional and statutory powers related to the purposes of this subsection (a)(2) heretofore or hereafter conferred by law upon the state board, or its predecessor created by the Constitution of 1885, as amended.

State bonds pledging the full faith and credit of the state may be issued, without a vote of the electors, by the state board pursuant to law to finance or refinance capital projects theretofore authorized by the legislature, and any purposes appurtenant or incidental thereto, for the state system of public education provided for in Section 1 of Article IX of this Constitution (hereinafter referred to as “state system”), including but not limited to institutions of higher learning, community colleges, vocational technical schools, or public schools, as now defined or as may hereafter be defined by law. All such bonds shall mature not later than thirty years after the date of issuance thereof. All other details of such bonds shall be as provided by law or by the proceedings authorizing such bonds; provided, however, that no bonds, except refunding bonds, shall be issued, and no proceeds shall be expended for the cost of any capital project, unless such project has been authorized by the legislature.

Bonds issued pursuant to this subsection (a)(2) shall be primarily payable from such revenues derived from gross receipts taxes, and shall be additionally secured by the full faith and credit of the state. No such bonds shall ever be issued in an amount exceeding ninety percent of the amount which the state board determines can be serviced by the revenues derived from the gross receipts taxes accruing thereafter under the provisions of this subsection (a)(2), and such determination shall be conclusive.

The moneys in the capital outlay fund in each fiscal year shall be used only for the following purposes and in the following order of priority:

a. For the payment of the principal of and interest on any bonds due in such fiscal year;

b. For the deposit into any reserve funds provided for in the proceedings authorizing the issuance of bonds of any amounts required to be deposited in such reserve funds in such fiscal year;

c. For direct payment of the cost or any part of the cost of any capital project for the state system theretofore authorized by the legislature, or for the purchase or redemption of outstanding bonds in accordance with the provisions of the proceedings which authorized the issuance of such bonds, or for the purpose of maintaining, restoring, or repairing existing public educational facilities.

(b) REFUNDING BONDS. Revenue bonds to finance the cost of state capital projects issued prior to the date this revision becomes effective, including projects of the Florida state turnpike authority or its successor but excluding all portions of the state highway system, may be refunded as provided by law without vote of the electors at a lower net average interest cost rate by the issuance of bonds maturing not later than the obligations refunded, secured by the same revenues only.

(c) MOTOR VEHICLE FUEL TAXES.

(1) A state tax, designated "second gas tax," of two cents per gallon upon gasoline and other like products of petroleum and an equivalent tax upon other sources of energy used to propel motor vehicles as levied by "Article IX, Section 16, of the Constitution of 1885, as amended, is hereby continued. The proceeds of said tax shall be placed monthly in the state roads distribution fund in the state treasury.

(2) "Article IX, Section 16, of the Constitution of 1885, as amended, is adopted by this reference as a part of this revision as completely as though incorporated herein verbatim for the purpose of providing that after the effective date of this revision the proceeds of the "second gas tax" as referred to therein shall be allocated among the several counties in accordance with the formula stated therein to the extent necessary to comply with all obligations to or for the benefit of holders of bonds, revenue certificates and tax anticipation certificates or any refundings thereof secured by any portion of the "second gas tax."

(3) No funds anticipated to be allocated under the formula stated in "Article IX, Section 16, of the Constitution of 1885, as amended, shall be pledged as security for any obligation hereafter issued or entered into, except that any outstanding obligations previously issued pledging revenues allocated under said "Article IX, Section 16, may be refunded at a lower average net interest cost rate by the issuance of refunding bonds, maturing not later than the obligations refunded, secured by the same revenues and any other security authorized in paragraph (5) of this subsection.

(4) Subject to the requirements of paragraph (2) of this subsection and after payment of administrative expenses, the "second gas tax" shall be allocated to the account of each of the several counties in the amounts to be determined as follows: There shall be an initial allocation of one-fourth in the ratio of county area to state area, one-fourth in the ratio of the total county population to the total population of the state in accordance with the latest available federal census, and one-half in the ratio of the total "second gas tax" collected on retail sales or use in each county to the total collected in all counties of the state during the previous fiscal year. If the annual debt service requirements of any obligations issued for any county, including any deficiencies for prior years, secured under paragraph (2) of this subsection, exceeds the amount which would be allocated to that county under the formula set out in this paragraph, the amounts allocated to other counties shall be reduced proportionately.

(5) Funds allocated under paragraphs (2) and (4) of this subsection shall be administered by the state board of administration created under Article IV, Section 4. The board shall remit the proceeds of the "second gas tax" in each county account for use in said county as follows: eighty per cent to the state agency supervising the state road system and twenty per cent to the governing body of the county. The percentage allocated to the county may be increased by general law. The proceeds of the "second gas tax" subject to allocation to the several counties under this paragraph (5) shall be used first, for the payment of obligations pledging revenues allocated pursuant to 'Article IX, Section 16, of the Constitution of 1885, as amended, and any refundings thereof; second, for the payment of debt service on bonds issued as provided by this paragraph (5) to finance the acquisition and construction of roads as defined by law; and third, for the acquisition and construction of roads and for road maintenance as authorized by law. When authorized by law, state bonds pledging the full faith and credit of the state may be issued without any election: (i) to refund obligations secured by any portion of the "second gas tax" allocated to a county under 'Article IX, Section 16, of the Constitution of 1885, as amended; (ii) to finance the acquisition and construction of roads in a county when approved by the governing body of the county and the state agency supervising the state road system; and (iii) to refund obligations secured by any portion of the "second gas tax" allocated under paragraph 9(c)(4). No such bonds shall be issued unless a state fiscal agency created by law has made a determination that in no state fiscal year will the debt service requirements of the bonds and all other bonds secured by the pledged portion of the "second gas tax" allocated to the county exceed seventy-five per cent of the pledged portion of the "second gas tax" allocated to that county for the preceding state fiscal year, of the pledged net tolls from existing facilities collected in the preceding state fiscal year, and of the annual average net tolls anticipated during the first five state fiscal years of operation of new projects to be financed, and of any other legally available pledged revenues collected in the preceding state fiscal year. Bonds issued pursuant to this subsection shall be payable primarily from the pledged tolls, the pledged portions of the "second gas tax" allocated to that county, and any other pledged revenue, and shall mature not later than forty years from the date of issuance.

(3) Subject to the requirements of paragraph (1) of this subsection (d) beginning July 1, 1973, the first proceeds of the revenues derived from the licensing of motor vehicles (hereinafter called "motor vehicle license revenues") to the extent necessary to comply with the provisions of this amendment, shall, as collected, be placed monthly in the school district and community college district capital outlay and debt service fund in the state treasury and used only as provided in this amendment. Such revenue shall be distributed annually among the several school districts and community college districts in the ratio of the number of instruction units in each school district or community college district in each year computed as provided herein. The amount of the first motor vehicle license revenues to be so set aside in each year and distributed as provided herein shall be an amount equal in the aggregate to the product of six hundred dollars ($600) multiplied by the total number of instruction units in all the school districts of Florida for the school fiscal year 1967-68, plus an amount equal in the aggregate to the product of eight hundred dollars ($800) multiplied by the total number of instruction units in all the school districts of Florida for the school fiscal year 1972-73 and for each school fiscal year thereafter which is in excess of the total number of such instruction units in all the school districts of Florida for the school fiscal year 1967-68, such excess units being designated "growth units." The amount of the first motor vehicle license revenues to be so set aside in each year and distributed as provided herein shall additionally be an amount equal in the aggregate to the product of four hundred dollars ($400) multiplied by the total number of instruction units in all community college districts of Florida. The number of instruction units in each school district or community college district in each year for the purposes of this amendment shall be the greater of (1) the number of instruction units in each school district for the school fiscal year 1967-68 or community college district for the school fiscal year 1968-69 computed in the manner heretofore provided by general law, or (2) the number of instruction units in such school district, including growth units, or community college district for the school fiscal year computed in the manner heretofore or hereafter provided by general law and approved by the state board of education (hereinafter called the state board), or (3) the number of instruction units in each school district, including growth units, or community college district on behalf of which the state board has issued bonds or motor vehicle license revenue anticipation certificates under this amendment which will produce sufficient revenues under this amendment to equal one and twelve-hundredths (1.12) times the aggregate amount of principal of and interest on all bonds or motor vehicle license revenue anticipation certificates issued under this amendment which will mature and become due in such year, computed in the manner heretofore or hereafter provided by general law and approved by the state board.

(4) Such funds so distributed shall be administered by the state board as now created and constituted by Section 2 of Article IX of the State Constitution as revised in 1968, or by such other instrumentality of the state which shall hereafter succeed by law to the powers, duties and functions of the state board, including the powers, duties and functions of the state board provided in this amendment. For the purposes of this amendment, said state board shall be a body corporate and shall have all the powers provided in this amendment in addition to all other constitutional and statutory powers related to the purposes of this amendment heretofore or hereafter conferred upon said state board.

(5) The state board shall, in addition to its other constitutional and statutory powers, have the management, control and supervision of the proceeds of the first motor vehicle license revenues provided for in this subsection (d). The state board shall also have power, for the purpose of obtaining funds for the use of any school board of any school district or board of trustees of any community college district in acquiring, building, constructing, altering, remodeling, improving, enlarging, furnishing, equipping, maintaining, renovating, or repairing of capital outlay projects for school purposes to issue bonds or motor vehicle license revenue anticipation certificates, and also to issue such bonds or motor vehicle license revenue anticipation certificates to pay, fund or refund any bonds or motor vehicle license revenue anticipation certificates theretofore issued by said state board. All such bonds or motor vehicle license revenue anticipation certificates shall bear interest at not exceeding the rate provided by general law and shall mature not later than thirty years after the date of issuance thereof. The state board shall have power to determine all other details of the bonds or motor vehicle license revenue anticipation certificates and to sell in the manner provided by general law, or exchange the bonds or motor vehicle license revenue anticipation certificates, upon such terms and conditions as the state board shall provide.

(6) The state board shall also have power to pledge for the payment of the principal of and interest on such bonds or motor vehicle license revenue anticipation certificates, including refunding bonds or refunding motor vehicle license revenue anticipation certificates, all or any part from the motor vehicle license revenues provided for in this amendment and to enter into any covenants and other agreements with the holders of such bonds or motor vehicle license revenue anticipation certificates at the time of the issuance thereof concerning the security thereof and the rights of the holders thereof, all of which covenants and agreements shall constitute legally binding and irrevocable contracts with such holders and shall be fully enforceable by such holders in any court of competent jurisdiction.

(7) No such bonds or motor vehicle license revenue anticipation certificates shall ever be issued by the state board, except to refund outstanding bonds or motor vehicle license revenue anticipation certificates, until after the adoption of a resolution requesting the issuance thereof by the school board of the school district or board of trustees of the community college district on behalf of which the obligations are to be issued. The state board of education shall limit the amount of such bonds or motor vehicle license revenue anticipation certificates which can be issued on behalf of any school district or community college district to ninety percent (90%) of the amount which it determines can be serviced by the revenue accruing to the school district or community college district under the provisions of this amendment, and shall determine the reasonable allocation of the interest savings from the issuance of refunding bonds or motor vehicle license revenue anticipation certificates, and such determinations shall be conclusive. All such bonds or motor vehicle license revenue anticipation certificates shall be issued in the name of the state board of education but shall be issued for and on behalf of the school board of the school district or board of trustees of the community college district requesting the issuance thereof, and no election or approval of qualified electors shall be required for the issuance thereof.

(8) The state board shall in each year use the funds distributable pursuant to this amendment to the credit of each school district or community college district only in the following manner and in order of priority:

a. To comply with the requirements of paragraph (1) of this subsection (d).

b. To pay all amounts of principal and interest due in such year on any bonds or motor vehicle license revenue anticipation certificates issued under the authority hereof, including refunding bonds or motor vehicle license revenue anticipation certificates, issued on behalf of the school board of such school district or board of trustees of such community college district; subject, however, to any covenants or agreements made by the state board concerning the rights between holders of different issues of such bonds or motor vehicle license revenue anticipation certificates, as herein authorized.

c. To establish and maintain a sinking fund or funds to meet future requirements for debt service or reserves therefor, on bonds or motor vehicle license revenue anticipation certificates issued on behalf of the school board of such school district or board of trustees of such community college district under the authority hereof, whenever the state board shall deem it necessary or advisable, and in such amounts and under such terms and conditions as the state board shall in its discretion determine.

d. To distribute annually to the several school boards of the school districts or the boards of trustees of the community college districts for use in payment of debt service on bonds heretofore or hereafter issued by any such school boards of the school districts or boards of trustees of the community college districts where the proceeds of the bonds were used, or are to be used, in the acquiring, building, constructing, altering, remodeling, improving, enlarging, furnishing, equipping, maintaining, renovating, or repairing of capital outlay projects in such school districts or community college districts and which capital outlay projects have been approved by the school board of the school district or board of trustees of the community college district, pursuant to the most recent survey or surveys conducted under regulations prescribed by the state board to determine the capital outlay needs of the school district or community college district. The state board shall have power at the time of issuance of any bonds by any school board of any school district or board of trustees of any community college district to covenant and agree with such school board or board of trustees as to the rank and priority of payments to be made for different issues of bonds under this subparagraph d., and may further agree that any amounts to be distributed under this subparagraph d. may be pledged for the debt service on bonds issued by any school board of any school district or board of trustees of any community college district and for the rank and priority of such pledge. Any such covenants or agreements of the state board may be enforced by any holders of such bonds in any court of competent jurisdiction.

e. To pay the expenses of the state board in administering this subsection (d), which shall be prorated among the various school districts and community college districts and paid out of the proceeds of the bonds or motor vehicle license revenue anticipation certificates or from the funds distributable to each school district and community college district on the same basis as such motor vehicle license revenues are distributable to the various school districts and community college districts.

f. To distribute annually to the several school boards of the school districts or boards of trustees of the community college districts for the payment of the cost of acquiring, building, constructing, altering, remodeling, improving, enlarging, furnishing, equipping, maintaining, renovating, or repairing of capital outlay projects for school purposes in such school district or community college district as shall be requested by resolution of the school board of the school district or board of trustees of the community college district.

g. When all major capital outlay needs of a school district or community college district have been met as determined by the state board, on the basis of a survey made pursuant to regulations of the state board and approved by the state board, all such funds remaining shall be distributed annually and used for such school purposes in such school district or community college district as the school board of the school district or board of trustees of the community college district shall determine, or as may be provided by general law.

(9) Capital outlay projects of a school district or community college district shall be eligible to participate in the funds accruing under this amendment and derived from the proceeds of bonds and motor vehicle license revenue anticipation certificates and from the motor vehicle license revenues, only in the order of priority of needs, as shown by a survey or surveys conducted in the school district or community college district under regulations prescribed by the state board, to determine the capital outlay needs of the school district or community college district and approved by the state board; provided that the priority of such projects may be changed from time to time upon the request of the school board of the school district or board of trustees of the community college district and with the approval of the state board; and provided, further, that this paragraph (9) shall not in any manner affect any covenant, agreement or pledge made by the state board in the issuance by said state board of any bonds or motor vehicle license revenue anticipation certificates, or in connection with the issuance of any bonds of any school board of any school district or board of trustees of any community college district.

(10) The state board shall have power to make and enforce all rules and regulations necessary to the full exercise of the powers herein granted and no legislation shall be required to render this amendment of full force and operating effect. The legislature shall not reduce the levies of said motor vehicle license revenues during the life of this amendment to any degree which will fail to provide the full amount necessary to comply with the provisions of this amendment and pay the necessary expenses of administering the laws relating to the licensing of motor vehicles, and shall not enact any law having the effect of withdrawing the proceeds of such motor vehicle license revenues from the operation of this amendment and shall not enact any law impairing or materially altering the rights of the holders of any bonds or motor vehicle license revenue anticipation certificates issued pursuant to this amendment or impairing or altering any covenant or agreement of the state board, as provided in such bonds or motor vehicle license revenue anticipation certificates.

(11) Bonds issued by the state board pursuant to this subsection (d) shall be payable primarily from said motor vehicle license revenues as provided herein, and if heretofore or hereafter authorized by law, may be additionally secured by pledging the full faith and credit of the state without an election. When heretofore or hereafter authorized by law, bonds issued pursuant to Article XII, Section 18 of the Constitution of 1885, as amended prior to 1968, and bonds issued pursuant to Article XII, Section 9, subsection (d) of the Constitution as revised in 1968, and bonds issued pursuant to this subsection (d), may be refunded by the issuance of bonds additionally secured by the full faith and credit of the state.

(e) DEBT LIMITATION. Bonds issued pursuant to this Section 9 of Article XII which are payable primarily from revenues pledged pursuant to this section shall not be included in applying the limits upon the amount of state bonds contained in Section 11, Article VII, of this revision.

Note.—Prior to its amendment by C.S. for H.J.R.'s 2289, 2984, 1974, subsection (a) read as follows:

(a) ADDITIONAL SECURITIES. Article IX, Section 17, of the Constitution of 1885, as amended, as it existed immediately before this Constitution, as revised in 1968, became effective, is adopted by this reference as a part of this revision as completely as though incorporated herein verbatim, except revenue bonds, revenue certificates or other evidences of indebtedness hereafter issued thereunder may be issued by the agency of the state so authorized by law.

Article XII, Section 19, of the Constitution of 1885, as amended, as it existed immediately before this revision becomes effective, is adopted by this reference as a part of this revision as completely as though incorporated herein verbatim, except bonds or tax anticipation certificates hereafter issued thereunder may bear interest not in excess of five percent (5%) per annum or such higher interest as may be authorized by statute passed by a three-fifths ($\frac{3}{5}$) vote of each house of the legislature. No revenue bonds or tax anticipation certificates shall be issued pursuant thereto after June 30, 1975.

Note.—Section 19 of Art. XII of the Constitution of 1885, as amended, reads as follows:

SECTION 19. Institutions of higher learning and junior college capital outlay trust fund bonds.—(a) That beginning January 1, 1964, and for fifty years thereafter, all of the proceeds of the revenues derived from the gross receipts taxes collected from every person, including municipalities, receiving payment for electricity for light, heat or power, for natural or manufactured gas for light, heat or power, for use of telephones and for the sending of telegrams and telegraph messages, as now provided and levied as of the time of adoption of this amendment in Chapter 203, Florida Statutes (hereinafter called "Gross Receipts Taxes"), shall, as collected be placed in a trust fund to be known as the "Institutions of Higher Learning and Junior Colleges Capital Outlay and Debt Service Trust Fund" in the State Treasury (hereinafter referred to as "Capital Outlay Fund"), and used only as provided in this Amendment.

Said fund shall be administered by the State Board of Education, as now created and constituted by Section 3 of Article XII [now s. 2, Article IX] of the Constitution of Florida (hereinafter referred to as "State Board"). For the purpose of this Amendment, said State Board, as now constituted, shall continue as a body corporate during the life of this Amendment and shall have all the powers provided in this Amendment in addition to all other constitutional and statutory powers related to the purposes of this Amendment heretofore or hereafter conferred by law upon said State Board.

(b) The State Board shall have power, for the purpose of obtaining funds for acquiring, building, constructing, altering, improving, enlarging, furnishing or equipping capital outlay projects theretofore authorized by the legislature and any purposes appurtenant or incidental thereto, for Institutions of Higher Learning or Junior Colleges, as now defined or as may be hereafter defined by law, and for the purpose of constructing buildings and other permanent facilities for vocational technical schools as provided in chapter 230 Florida Statutes, to issue bonds or certificates, including refunding bonds or certificates to fund or refund any bonds or certificates theretofore issued. All such bonds or certificates shall bear interest at not exceeding four and one-half per centum per annum, and shall mature at such time or times as the State Board shall determine not exceeding, in any event, however, thirty years from the date of issuance thereof. The State Board shall have power to determine all other details of such bonds or certificates and to sell at public sale, after public advertisement, such bonds or certificates, provided, however, that no bonds or certificates shall ever be issued hereunder to finance, or the proceeds thereof expended for, any part of the cost of any capital outlay project unless the construction or acquisition of such capital outlay project has been theretofore authorized by the Legislature of Florida. None of said bonds or certificates shall be sold at less than ninety-eight per centum of the par value thereof, plus accrued interest, and said bonds or certificates shall be awarded at the public sale thereof to the bidder offering the lowest net interest cost for such bonds or certificates in the manner to be determined by the State Board.

The State Board shall also have power to pledge for the payment of the principal of and interest on such bonds or certificates, and reserves thereof, including refunding bonds or certificates, all or any part of the revenue to be derived from the said Gross Receipts Taxes provided for in this Amendment, and to enter into any covenants and other agreements with the holders of such bonds or certificates concerning the security thereof and the rights of the holders thereof, all of which covenants and agreements shall constitute legally binding and irrevocable contracts with such holders and shall be fully enforceable by such holders in any court of competent jurisdiction.

No such bonds or certificates shall ever be issued by the State Board in an amount exceeding seventy-five per centum of the amount which it determines, based upon the average annual amount of the revenues derived from said Gross Receipts Taxes during the immediately preceding two fiscal years, or the amount of the revenues derived from said Gross Receipts Taxes during the immediately preceding fiscal year, as shown in a certificate filed by the State Comptroller with the State Board prior to the issuance of such bonds or certificates, whichever is the lesser, can be serviced by the revenues accruing thereunder under the provisions of this Amendment; nor shall the State Board, during the first year following the ratification of this amendment, issue bonds or certificates in excess of seven times the anticipated revenue from said Gross Receipts Taxes during said year, nor during each succeeding year, more than four times the anticipated revenue from said Gross Receipts Taxes during such year. No election or approval of qualified electors or freeholder electors shall be required for the issuance of bonds or certificates hereunder.

After the initial issuance of any bonds or certificates pursuant to this Amendment, the State Board may thereafter issue additional bonds or certificates which will rank equally and on a parity, as to lien on and source of security for payment from said Gross Receipts Taxes, with any bonds or certificates theretofore issued pursuant to this Amendment, but such additional party bonds or certificates shall not be issued unless the average annual amount of the revenues derived from said Gross Receipts Taxes during the immediately preceding two fiscal years, or the amount of the revenues derived from said Gross Receipts Taxes during the immediately preceding fiscal year, as shown in a certificate filed by the State Comptroller with the State Board prior to the issuance of such bonds or certificates, whichever is the lesser, shall have been equal to one and one-third times the aggregate amount of principal and interest which will become due in any succeeding fiscal year on all bonds or certificates theretofore issued pursuant to this Amendment and then outstanding, and the additional party bonds or certificates then proposed to be issued. No bonds, certificates or other obligations whatsoever shall at any time be issued under the provisions of this Amendment, except such bonds or certificates initially issued hereunder, and such additional party bonds or certificates as provided in this paragraph. Notwithstanding any other provision herein no such bonds or certificates shall be authorized or validated during any biennium in excess of fifty million dollars, except by two-thirds vote of the members elected to each house of the legislature; provided further that during the biennium 1963-1965 seventy-five million dollars may be authorized and validated pursuant hereto.

(c) Capital outlay projects theretofore authorized by the legislature for any Institution of Higher Learning or Junior College shall be eligible to participate in the funds accruing under this Amendment derived from the proceeds of bonds or certificates and said Gross Receipts Taxes under such regulations and in such manner as shall be determined by the State Board, and the State Board shall use or transmit to the State Board of Control or to the Board of Public Instruction of any County authorized by law to construct or acquire such capital outlay projects, the amount of the proceeds of such bonds or certificates or Gross Receipts Taxes to be applied to or used for such capital outlay projects. If for any reason any of the proceeds of any bonds or certificates issued for any capital outlay project shall not be expended for such capital outlay project, the State Board may use such unexpended proceeds for any other capital outlay project for Institutions of Higher Learning or Junior Colleges and vocational technical schools, as defined herein, as now defined or as may be hereafter defined by law, theretofore authorized by the State Legislature. The holders of bonds or certificates issued hereunder shall not have any responsibility whatsoever for the application or use of any of the proceeds derived from the sale of said bonds or certificates, and the rights and remedies of the holders of such bonds or certificates and their right to payment from said Gross Receipts Taxes in the manner provided herein shall not be affected or impaired by the application or use of such proceeds.

The State Board shall use the moneys in said Capital Outlay Fund in each fiscal year only for the following purposes and in the following order of priority:

(1) For the payment of the principal of and interest on any bonds or certificates maturing in such fiscal year.

(2) For the deposit into any reserve funds provided for in the proceedings authorizing the issuance of said bonds or certificates, of any amounts required to be deposited in such reserve funds in such fiscal year.

(3) After all payments required in such fiscal year for the purposes provided for in (1) and (2) above, including any deficiencies for required payments in prior fiscal years, any moneys remaining in said Capital Outlay Fund at the end of such fiscal year may be used by the State Board for direct payment of the cost or any part of the cost of any capital outlay project theretofore authorized by the legislature or for the purchase of any bonds or certificates issued hereunder then outstanding upon such terms and conditions as the State Board shall deem proper, or for the prior redemption of outstanding bonds or certificates in accordance with the provisions of the proceedings which authorized the issuance of such bonds or certificates.

The State Board may invest the moneys in said Capital Outlay Fund or in any sinking fund or other funds created for any issue of bonds or certificates, in direct obligations of the United States of America or in the other securities referred to in Section 344.27, Florida Statutes.

(d) The State Board shall have the power to make and enforce all rules and regulations necessary to the full exercise of the powers herein granted and no legislation shall be required to render this Amendment of full force and operating effect on and after January 1, 1964. The Legislature, during the period of this Amendment is in effect, shall not reduce the rate of said Gross Receipts Taxes now provided in said Chapter 203, Florida Statutes, or eliminate, exempt or remove any of the persons, firms or corporations, including municipal corporations, or any of the utilities, businesses or services now or hereafter subject to said Gross Receipts Taxes, from the levy and collection of said Gross Receipts Taxes as now provided in said Chapter 203, Florida Statutes, and shall not enact any law impairing or materially altering the rights of the holders of any bonds or certificates issued pursuant to this Amendment or impairing or altering any covenants or agreements of the State Board made hereunder, or having the effect of withdrawing the proceeds of said Gross Receipts Taxes from the operation of this Amendment.

The State Board of Administration shall be and is hereby constituted as the Fiscal Agent of the State Board to perform such duties and assume such responsibilities under this Amendment as shall be agreed upon between the State Board and such State Board of Administration. The State Board shall also have power to appoint such other persons and fix their compensation for the administration of the provisions of this Amendment as it shall deem necessary, and the expenses of the State Board in administering the provisions of this Amendment shall be paid out of the proceeds of bonds or certificates issued hereunder or from said Gross Receipts Taxes deposited in said Capital Outlay Fund.

(e) No capital outlay project or any part thereof shall be financed hereunder unless the bill authorizing such project shall specify it is financed hereunder and shall be approved by a vote of three-fifths of the elected members of each house.

History.—S.J.R. 264, 1963; adopted 1963.

Note.—Section 16 of Art. IX of the Constitution of 1885, as amended, reads as follows:

SECTION 16. Board of administration; gasoline and like taxes, distribution and use; etc.—(a) That beginning January 1st, 1943, and for fifty (50) years thereafter, the proceeds of two (2c) cents per gallon of the total tax levied by state law upon gasoline and other like products of petroleum, now known as the Second Gas Tax, and upon other fuels used to propel motor vehicles, shall as collected be placed monthly in the 'State Roads Distribution Fund' in the State Treasury and divided into three (3) equal parts which shall be distributed monthly among the several counties as follows: one part according to area, one part according to population, and one part according to the counties' contributions to the cost of state road construction in the ratio of distribution as provided in Chapter 15659, Laws of Florida, Acts of 1931, and for the purposes of the apportionment based on the counties' contributions for the cost of state road construction, the amount of the contributions established by the certificates made in 1931 pursuant to said Chapter 15659, shall be taken and deemed conclusive in computing the monthly amounts distributable according to said contributions. Such funds so distributed shall be administered by the State Board of Administration as hereinafter provided.

(b) The Governor as chairman, the State Treasurer, and the State Comptroller shall constitute a body corporate to be known as the 'State Board of Administration'; which board shall succeed to all the power, control and authority of the statutory Board of Administration. Said Board shall have, in addition to such powers as may be conferred upon it by law, the management, control and supervision of the proceeds of said two (2c) cents of said taxes and all moneys and other assets which on the effective date of this amendment are applicable or may become applicable to the bonds of the several counties of this state, or any special road and bridge district, or other special taxing district thereof, issued prior to July 1st, 1931, for road and bridge purposes. The word 'bonds' as used herein shall include bonds, time warrants, notes and other forms of indebtedness issued for road and bridge purposes by any county or special road and bridge district or other special taxing district, outstanding on July 1st, 1931, or any refunding issues thereof. Said Board shall have the statutory powers of Boards of County Commissioners and Bond Trustees and of any other authority of special road and bridge districts, and other special taxing districts thereof with regard to said bonds, (except that the power to levy ad valorem taxes is expressly withheld from said Board), and shall take over all papers, documents and records concerning the same. Said Board shall have the power from time to time to issue refunding bonds to mature within the said fifty (50) year period, for any of said outstanding bonds or interest thereon, and to secure them by a pledge of anticipated receipts from such gasoline or other fuel taxes to be distributed to such county as herein provided, but not at a greater rate of interest than said bonds now bear; and to issue, sell or exchange on behalf of any county or unit for the sole purpose of retiring said bonds issued by such county, or special road and bridge district, or other special taxing district thereof, gasoline or other fuel tax anticipation certificates bearing interest at not more than three (3) per cent per annum in such denominations and maturing at such time within the fifty (50) year period as the board may determine. In addition to exercising the powers now provided by statute for the investment of sinking funds, said Board may use the sinking funds created for said bonds of any county or special road and bridge district, or other unit hereunder, to purchase the matured or maturing bonds participating herein of any other county or any other special road and bridge district, or other special taxing district thereof, provided that as to said matured bonds, the value thereof as an investment shall be the price paid therefor, which shall not exceed the par value plus accrued interest, and that said investment shall bear interest at the rate of three (3) per cent per annum.

(c) The said board shall annually use said funds in each county account, first, to pay current principal and interest maturing, if any, of said bonds and gasoline or other fuel tax anticipation certificates of such county or special road and bridge district, or other special taxing district thereof; second, to establish a sinking fund account to meet future requirements of said bonds and gasoline or other fuel tax anticipation certificates where it appears the anticipated income for any year or years will not equal scheduled payments thereon; and third, any remaining balance out of the proceeds of said two (2c) cents of said taxes shall monthly during the year be remitted by said board as follows: Eighty (80%) per cent to the State Road Department for the construction or reconstruction of state roads and bridges within the county, or for the lease or purchase of bridges connecting state highways within the county, and twenty (20%) per cent to the Board of County Commissioners of such county for use on roads and bridges therein.

(d) Said board shall have the power to make and enforce all rules and regulations necessary to the full exercise of the powers hereby granted and no legislation shall be required to render this amendment of full force and operating effect from and after January 1st, 1943. The Legislature shall continue the levies of said taxes during the life of this Amendment, and shall not enact any law having the effect of withdrawing the proceeds of said two (2c) cents of said taxes from the operation of this amendment. The board shall pay refunding expenses and other expenses for services rendered specifically for, or which are properly chargeable to, the account of any county from funds distributed to such county; but general expenses of the board for services rendered all the counties alike shall be prorated among them and paid out of said funds on the same basis said tax proceeds are distributed among the several counties; provided, report of said tax expenses shall be made to each Regular Session of the Legislature, and the Legislature may limit the expenses of the board.

History.—Added, S.J.R. 324, 1941; adopted 1942.

Note.—Prior to its amendment by C.S. for H.J.R. 3576, 1972, subsection (d) read as follows:

(d) SCHOOL BONDS. Article XII, Section 18, of the Constitution of 1885, as amended, as it existed immediately before this revision becomes effective is adopted by this reference as part of this revision as completely as though incorporated herein verbatim, except bonds or tax anticipation certificates hereafter issued thereunder may bear interest not in excess of five per cent per annum or such higher interest as may be authorized by statute passed by a three-fifths vote of each house of the legislature. Bonds issued pursuant to this subsection (d) shall be payable primarily from revenues as provided in Article XII, Section 18, of the Constitution of 1885, as amended, and if authorized by law, may be additionally secured by pledging the full faith and credit of the state without an election. When authorized by law, bonds issued pursuant to Article XII, Section 18, of the Constitution of 1885, as amended, and bonds issued pursuant to this subsection (d), may be refunded by the issuance of bonds additionally secured by the full faith and credit of the state only at a lower net average interest cost rate.

Note.—Section 18, Art. XII of the Constitution of 1885, as amended, reads as follows:

SECTION 18. School bonds for capital outlay, issuance.—

(a) Beginning January 1, 1965 and for thirty-five years thereafter, the first proceeds of the revenues derived from the licensing of motor vehicles to the extent necessary to comply with the provisions of this amendment, shall, as collected, be placed monthly in the county capital outlay and debt service school fund in the state treasury, and used only as provided in this amendment. Such revenue shall be distributed annually among the several counties in the ratio of the number of instruction units in each county in each year computed as provided herein. The amount of the first revenues derived from the licensing of motor vehicles to be so set aside in each year and distributed as provided herein shall be an amount equal in the aggregate to the product of four hundred dollars multiplied by the total number of instruction units in all the counties of Florida. The number of instruction units in each county in each year for the purposes of this amendment shall be the greater of (1) the number of instruction units in each county for the school fiscal year 1951-52 computed in the manner heretofore provided by general law, or (2) the number of instruction units in such county for the school fiscal year computed in the manner heretofore or hereafter provided by general law and approved by the state board of education (hereinafter called the state board), or (3) the number of instruction units in each county on behalf of which the state board of education has issued bonds or motor vehicle tax anticipation certificates under this amendment which will produce sufficient revenues under this amendment to equal one and one-third times the aggregate amount of principal of and interest on such bonds or motor vehicle tax anticipation certificates which will mature and become due in such year, computed in the manner heretofore or hereafter provided by general law and approved by the state board.

Such funds so distributed shall be administered by the state board as now created and constituted by Section 3 of Article XII [now s. 2, Article IX] of the Constitution of Florida. For the purposes of this amendment, said state board, as now constituted, shall continue as a body corporate during the life of this amendment and shall have all the powers provided in this amendment in addition to all other constitutional and statutory powers related to the purposes of this amendment heretofore or hereafter conferred upon said board.

(b) The state board shall, in addition to its other constitutional and statutory powers, have the management, control and supervision of the proceeds of the first part of the revenues derived from the licensing of motor vehicles provided for in subsection (a). The state board shall also have power, for the purpose of obtaining funds for the use of any county board of public instruction in acquiring, building, constructing, altering, improving, enlarging, furnishing, or equipping capital outlay projects for school purposes, to issue bonds or motor vehicle tax anticipation certificates, and also to issue such bonds or motor vehicle tax anticipation certificates to pay, fund or refund any bonds or motor vehicle tax anticipation certificates theretofore issued by said state board. All such bonds shall bear interest at not exceeding four and one-half per centum per annum and shall mature serially in annual installments commencing not more than three years from the date of issuance thereof and ending not later than thirty years from the date of issuance or January 1, 2000, A.D., whichever is earlier. All such motor vehicle tax anticipation certificates shall bear interest at not exceeding four and one-half per centum per annum and shall mature prior to January 1, 2000, A.D. The state board shall have power to determine all other details of said bonds or motor vehicle tax anticipation certificates and to sell at public sale after public advertisement, or exchange said bonds or motor vehicle tax anticipation certificates, upon such terms and conditions as the state board shall provide.

The state board shall also have power to pledge for the payment of the principal of and interest on such bonds or motor vehicle tax anticipation certificates, including refunding bonds or refunding motor vehicle tax anticipation certificates, all or any part from the anticipated revenues to be derived from the licensing of motor vehicles provided for in this amendment and to enter into any covenants and other agreements with the holders of such bonds or motor vehicle tax anticipation certificates at the time of the issuance thereof concerning the security thereof and the rights of the holders thereof, all of which covenants and agreements shall constitute legally binding and irrevocable contracts with such holders and shall be fully enforceable by such holders in any court of competent jurisdiction.

No such bonds or motor vehicle tax anticipation certificates shall ever be issued by the state board until after the adoption of a resolution requesting the issuance thereof by the county board of public instruction of the county on behalf of which such obligations are to be issued. The state board of education shall limit the amount of such bonds or motor vehicle tax anticipation certificates which can be issued on behalf of any county to seventy-five per cent of the amount which it determines can be serviced by the revenue accruing to the county under the provisions of this amendment, and such determination shall be conclusive. All such bonds or motor vehicle tax anticipation certificates shall be issued in the name of the state board of education but shall be issued for and on behalf of the county board of public instruction requesting the issuance thereof, and no election or approval of qualified electors or freeholders shall be required for the issuance thereof.

(c) The State Board shall in each year use the funds distributable pursuant to this Amendment to the credit of each county only in the following manner and order of priority:

(1) To pay all amounts of principal and interest maturing in such year on any bonds or motor vehicle tax anticipation certificates issued under the authority hereof, including refunding bonds or motor vehicle tax anticipation certificates, issued on behalf of the Board of Public Instruction of such county; subject, however, to any covenants or agreements made by the State Board concerning the rights between holders of different issues of such bonds or motor vehicle tax anticipation certificates, as herein authorized.

(2) To establish and maintain a sinking fund or funds to meet future requirements for debt service, or reserves therefor, on bonds or motor vehicle tax anticipation certificates issued on behalf of the Board of Public Instruction of such county, under the authority hereof, whenever the State Board shall deem it necessary or advisable, and in such amounts and under such terms and conditions as the State Board shall in its discretion determine.

(3) To distribute annually to the several Boards of Public Instruction of the counties for use in payment of debt service on bonds heretofore or hereafter issued by any such Board where the proceeds of the bonds were used, or are to be used, in the construction, acquisition, improvement, enlargement, furnishing, or equipping of capital outlay projects in such county, and which capital outlay projects have been approved by the Board of Public Instruction of the county, pursuant to a survey or surveys conducted subsequent to July 1, 1947 in the county, under regulations prescribed by the State Board to determine the capital outlay needs of the county.

The State Board shall have power at the time of issuance of any bonds by any Board of Public Instruction to covenant and agree with such Board as to the rank and priority of payments to be made for different issues of bonds under this Subsection (3), and may further agree that any amounts to be distributed under this Subsection (3) may be pledged for the debt service on bonds issued by any Board of Public Instruction and for the rank and priority of such pledge. Any such covenants or agreements of the State Board may be enforced by any holders of such bonds in any court of competent jurisdiction.

(4) To distribute annually to the several Boards of Public Instruction of the counties for the payment of the cost of the construction, acquisition, improvement, enlargement, furnishing, or equipping of capital outlay projects for school purposes in such county as shall be requested by resolution of the County Board of Public Instruction of such county.

(5) When all major capital outlay needs of a county have been met as determined by the State Board, on the basis of a survey made pursuant to regulations of the State Board and approved by the State Board, all such funds remaining shall be distributed annually and used for such school purposes in such county as the Board of Public Instruction of the county shall determine, or as may be provided by general law.

(d) Capital outlay projects of a county shall be eligible to participate in the funds accruing under this Amendment and derived from the proceeds of bonds and motor vehicle tax anticipation certificates and from the motor vehicle license taxes, only in the order of priority of needs, as shown by a survey or surveys conducted in the county under regulations prescribed by the State Board, to determine the capital outlay needs of the county and approved by the State Board; provided, that the priority of such projects may be changed from time to time upon the request of the Board of Public Instruction of the county and with the approval of the State Board; and provided further, that this Subsection (d) shall not in any manner affect any covenant, agreement, or pledge made by the State Board in the issuance by said State Board of any bonds or motor vehicle tax anticipation certificates, or in connection with the issuance of any bonds of any Board of Public Instruction of any county.

(e) The State Board may invest any sinking fund or funds created pursuant to this Amendment in direct obligations of the United States of America or in the bonds or motor vehicle tax anticipation certificates, matured or to mature, issued by the State Board on behalf of the Board of Public Instruction of any county.

(f) The State Board shall have power to make and enforce all rules and regulations necessary to the full exercise of the powers herein granted and no legislation shall be required to render this Amendment of full force and operating effect from and after January 1, 1953. The Legislature shall not reduce the levies of said motor vehicle license taxes during the life of this Amendment to any degree which will fail to provide the full amount necessary to comply with the provisions of this Amendment and pay the necessary expenses of administering the laws relating to the licensing of motor vehicles, and shall not enact any law having the effect of withdrawing the proceeds of such motor vehicle license taxes from the operation of this Amendment and shall not enact any law impairing or materially altering the rights of the holders of any bonds or motor vehicle tax anticipation certificates issued pursuant to this Amendment or impairing or altering any covenant or agreement of the State Board, as provided in such bonds or motor vehicle tax anticipation certificates.

The State Board shall have power to appoint such persons and fix their compensation for the administration of the provisions of this Amendment as it shall deem necessary, and the expenses of the State Board in administering the provisions of this Amendment shall be prorated among the various counties and paid out of the proceeds of the bonds or motor vehicle tax anticipation certificates or from the funds distributable to each county on the same basis as such motor vehicle license taxes are distributable to the various counties under the provisions of this Amendment. Interest or profit on sinking fund investments shall accrue to the counties in proportion to their respective equities in the sinking fund or funds.
