This page includes the history of Senate Bills for the 2005 Florida Legislature session. It contains information on various bills, including their introduction, referral to committees, and final disposition. The text is structured in a table format, with each bill listed by number and status, along with relevant dates and actions taken. The text also includes a brief description of the subjects covered by the bills, such as education, commerce, and agriculture. The passage provides a summary of legislative activities, including committee referrals, hearings, and Legislative actions, such as favorably reported bills or bills that died. The historical information reflects the procedural progression of each bill through the legislative process. The page numbers at the bottom indicate the page numbers in the original publication. The information is useful for understanding the legislative landscape of Florida during the specified session.
