

The Journal OF THE House of Representatives

Number 3

Thursday, January 31, 2002

The House was called to order by the Speaker at 1:30 p.m.

Prayer

The following prayer was offered by the Reverend Don Roberts of Goodwill Industries in Sarasota, upon invitation of Reps. Flanagan and Clarke:

Holy and eternal God, we, Your children, men and women of goodwill, confess it's easy to be statesmen when we are term limited and have lots of tax cash to spend. But, O Lord, for those of us who, in this session, face shrinking tax receipts and increased budget demands, tax reform in an environment where it can be politically deadly, and redistricting which can give political advantage to a future opponent, O God, it is at this point that our statesmanship is both tested and demonstrated.

Grant us the divine courage to prioritize our spending, reform our tax structure, and redistrict without gerrymander. So, that on that day, when we stand before the Judge of all creation, we will hear the voice of God saying, well done, thou good and faithful statesman.

Finally, Father of us all, we would pray for our children. For our Governor's family, we pray to the Lord. For our parents' children, as we legislate at the point where principle meets the possible and becomes the political, we pray to the Lord. For our own babies, whose future rests upon the sound foundation of the decisions we reach in this session, we pray to the Lord.

Come, Holy God, into our midst to budget us, redistrict us, reform us in Your image, and, probably most important, help us to maintain our sense of humor for the next 60 days.

And all the people of Florida say, Amen.
